PREPARATIONS FOR INTER-CITY SERIES ARE MADE

Municipal Base Ball Association Held Important Meeting Last Night.

Preparations for the city and inter-city series to determine the 1919 city championship in class B and C by the pennant winners of the various leagues affiliated with the Mu- some real base ball ability. Mannicipal Amateur Base Ball associa- ager Deleware writes:

the opening guns will be fired between the winners of the Church and Commercial leagues, both Saturday afternoon organizations, if the league race in the Commercial league s settled this afternoon.

The Iten Biscuit Co., leaders of the Commercial league, will clash with the Western Union team, and pionship will be settled, but on the other hand, if the Western Unions win, the race will be a three-cornered tie between these two teams and the Orchard-Wilhelm crew.

Play at Fontenelle.

The Iten-Western Union tussle will be staged at Fontenelle park at 3:30 o'clock. The Pearl Memorials won the flag in the Church league and are anxiously awaiting the call to enter the series. Since the flag in the American class B league, has not yet been settled, as the Riggs, leaders of that organization, are but a game ahead of the Paxton-Vierlings, and the race in the Gate City league between the Townsends and the Omaha Print Juniors is also undecided, there has been no schedule for the city series arranged, but a committee was appointed to handle the series. Everything in class B depends upon the outcome of the games today and Sunday. Union Outfitters Get 2 Players.

The Union Outfitting Co. were al lowed the services of Koehler to take the place of George Easton, who was released by Manager Pascal of the City league champions for throwing a bat at the umpire in a recent game and also for playing against his teammates at Plattsmouth last Sunday. Simpson was allowed in place of Pitcher McDermott, if the latter is out of town, and Kralicek was allowed in place of Kolker, in case he is unable to participate, as he was operated upon yesterday.

Word From Association. Secretary I. J. Isaacson announced that he had received word from the Western Amateur Base Ball association, of which Omaha is a member. that the class C city champions will play at St. Paul, Minn., on Sunday, September 14, and that the class A city champions will either play St. Paul or Minnesota here on September 7 or 14. This is the first time in the his tory of amateur base ball here that Omaha will be represented in the inter-city series by two teams. According to the ruling of the Western asociation, Omaha's class B champs will be rated as A, and the class A champs as AA. · A motion was passed that no player who is connected with a Sunday championship team and also on Saturday championship team shall be allowed on the Saturday team in the city series, and any substitute player awarded the Saturday pennant winners must be a member of the Saturday league with which the team is affiliated, and shall not be a player on any Sunday team.

Smith and Claude Highsmith, who are members of the Riggs Optical company of the American league, will not be able to play with the Pearl Memorials in case the former team wins the championship of the American league. Another motion was passed that President Dennison of the Greater Omaha league be instructed to collect the association's fees from the Greater Omaha league teams and remit a check to the treasurer of the Municipal Amateur Base Ball association. Dolan Protests Against

Manager Cozy Dolan of the leading St. Joseph club protested vigorously against Pa Rourke calling yesterday's game off. The grounds were in fine shape, none too muddy and drying rapidly under a cooling breeze and an occasional flash of
