CHAS. F. KAMRATH
VICE-PRESIDENT AND GENERAL MANAGER
SKINNER PACKING COMPANY

Mr. Kamrath has to his credit twenty-five years of successful packing house experience. He was with Swift & Company for a number of years and also large independent packing houses. He has had practical and successful experience in every department of the packing business. Of late years Mr. Kamrath has combined his practical knowledge with engineering and he has devoted his time to the construction of packing house plants. He constructed and operated, for three years, the present Armour & Company plant at Spokane, Washington, which speaks for itself. Mr. Kamrath has become associated permanently with the Skinner Packing Company in the capacity of Vice-President and General Manager and devotes his entire time and energy to Omaha's Daylight Snow-white Independent Packing Plant, which is built of steel and reinforced concrete and is absolutely fire proof. Mr. Kamrath has invested heavily in the stock of the Skinner Packing Company.

J. H. ROSENBAUM
MANAGER PRODUCE DEPARTMENT
SKINNER PACKING COMPANY

Mr. Rosenbaum has spent his business life in the Produce business and is successful. He was seven years with the Aron Poultry & Egg Company of Kansas City, who are one of the largest operators in the produce business in the middle west. Armour & Company own a considerable interest in this firm. One year ago he became financially interested and permanently identified with the Skinner Packing Company, and established the Produce Department of this company, which has met with a phenomenal success. The department has received over 15,000 shipments in the past year and as yet has merely scratched the surface as to the volume of business that can be done in poultry, butter and eggs.

Mr. Rosenbaum is thoroughly experienced in both the buying and selling end, as well as the mechanical end of the business. This department of the company is being conducted at 12th and Howard Sts., in the old Kirschbaum Creamery Company Building temporarily, during the erection of the company's new Produce Department Building at 12th and Douglas Sts.

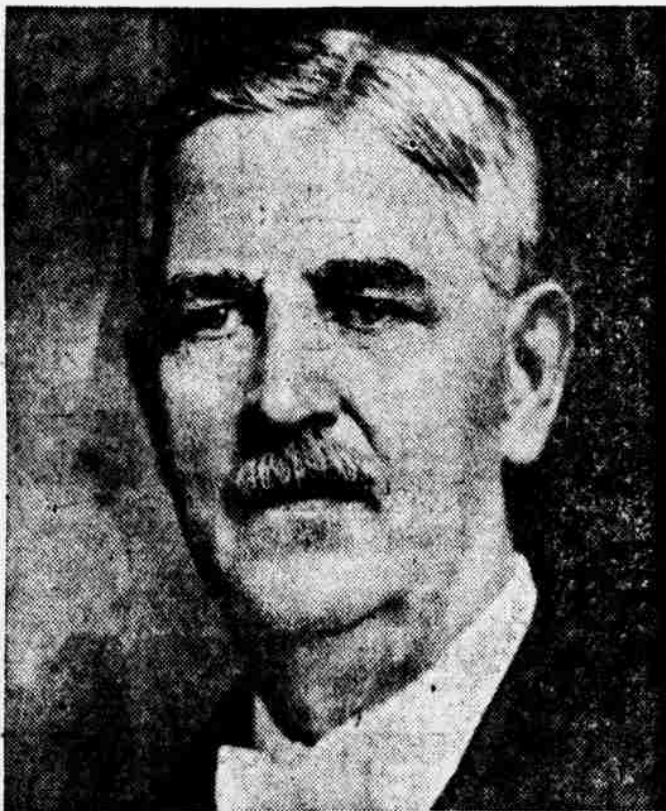

JOHN W. ALLEN
SUPERINTENDENT CANNING AND SAUSAGE DEPARTMENT
SKINNER PACKING COMPANY

John W. Allen, of Chicago, has associated himself permanently with the Skinner Packing Company as Superintendent of the Canning and Sausage Department. The name of John Allen is known nationally in the packing industry as an expert in all lines of canned meats and meat products.

The association of Mr. Allen with the Skinner Packing Company is simply carrying out the policy of the company to secure as the heads of each department of their business the most expert operator it is possible to secure in this country.

Mr. Allen entered the packing business in this country with Armour & Company in their canned food department. For sixteen years Mr. Allen had exclusive charge and management of the meat canning and sausage department of Sulzberger & Sons Company, now known as Wilson & Company. For several years Mr. Allen has worked as an expert in his line, making a specialty of equipping and organizing meat canning departments for various companies. The meat canning department of the wonderfully successful firm of Oscar Mayer & Company of Chicago, was organized and installed by Mr. Allen, as was also the same departments of the famous sausage makers, L. Frank & Sons Company of Milwaukee.

Mr. Allen has investigated the meat canning business from every angle, having made extensive trips for this purpose, for leading packers, into foreign countries, spending much time in Brazil, Mexico and the continent.

GEO. A. DONAHUE
DEPARTMENT STOCKS
SKINNER PACKING COMPANY

Mr. Donahue has had twenty-two years of experience in the packing house business. He was seven years with Swift & Company and fifteen years with the Cudahy Packing Company in charge of department stocks. This is a very important position in the packing house business. Mr. Donahue is now permanently associated with the Skinner Packing Company and his long practical experience and successful record will mean a great deal to the company. He is now preparing his department for the opening of the Skinner plant.

F. M. HUBBELL
OFFICE MANAGER
SKINNER PACKING COMPANY

Mr. Hubbell has to his credit twenty-three years of experience in the packing house business. These twenty-three years were spent with the Cudahy Packing Company. He was their auditor for twelve years, assistant office manager for six years and for several years their office manager. This long packing house experience and his splendid successful record make him a valuable man. He is now permanently associated with the Skinner Packing Company in the capacity of Office Manager and is getting his department in order and securing his assistants for the opening of the Skinner plant.

R. J. ROBERTSON
PURCHASING AGENT
SKINNER PACKING COMPANY

Mr. Robertson was fifteen years with Swift & Company in the purchasing department. For the past six years he has been purchasing agent for Swift & Company and is now permanently associated with the Skinner Packing Company. He has a splendid record and these years of practical experience in purchasing packing house supplies means a big asset to the Skinner Packing Company. Mr. Robertson has been employed by the Skinner Packing Company for the past two months purchasing supplies.

C. H. REINHARDT
TRAFFIC MANAGER
SKINNER PACKING COMPANY

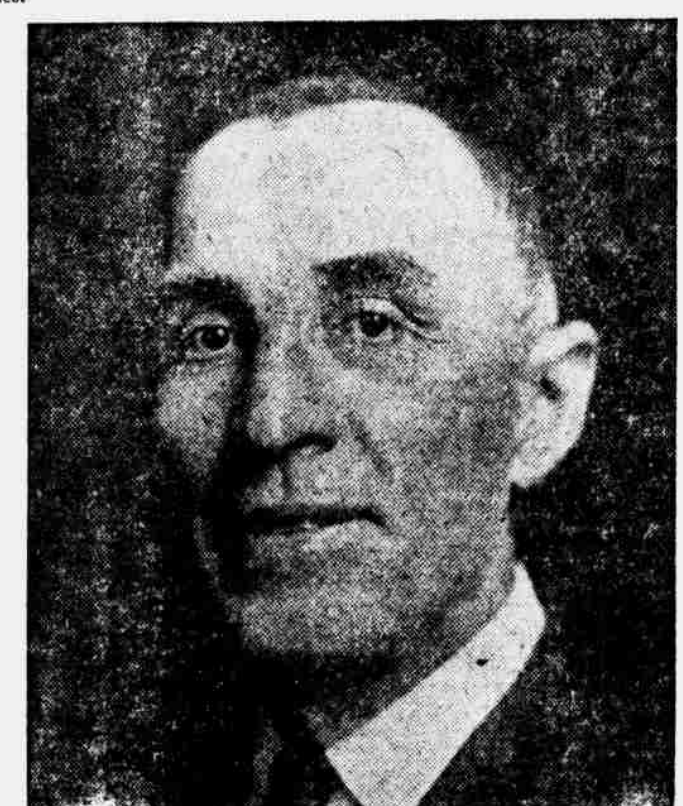

Mr. Reinhardt was ten years with the Cudahy Packing Company; formerly their traffic manager, and is now permanently associated with the Skinner Packing Company in a like capacity. Before he went with the Cudahy Packing Company he was connected with the Kansas City Southern Railroad in their traffic department.

D. C. ROBERTSON
TREASURER
SKINNER PACKING COMPANY

Mr. Robertson has spent his business life in the Banking and Mercantile business. He was formerly Cashier of the Farmers' Saving & Trust Co., of Marinette, Wisconsin, and Chairman of the Liberty Loan Committee of Marinette County. He is a man of sterling integrity, wide experience and very successful; is financially interested and permanently located with the Skinner Packing Company, and is peculiarly fitted by both experience and ability to fill the office of Treasurer to the credit of himself and to the credit of the corporation.

Mr. Robertson has been with the company practically since the organization and has had charge of all the finances from the time of his connection.

CHIEF ENGINEER
SKINNER PACKING COMPANY

Mr. Schroeder has been with the Skinner Packing Company for several months in the capacity of Chief Engineer in charge of his department.

Mr. Schroeder was Chairman of the Examining Board of Stationary Engineers for the city of Omaha for nineteen years, and was Chief Engineer for Armour & Company for seven years and supervised the installation of their power plant equipment, including all ice machines, engines and boilers. He is an expert in his line and his past record is splendid.

He is now associated permanently with the Skinner Packing Company.
