Cleveland, Aug. 6 .- McGregor the Great, owned and driven by Walter R. Cox of Dover, N. H., won the $3,000 Press stake for 2:17 trotters,
the feature event of today's grand the feature event of today's grand circuit meeting at North Randall. Cox made it two straight when he drove Mignola to victory in the 2:07 class trot. Both horses completely outclassed their fields and won in straight heats at prohibitive odds.

After winning the first heat of the 2:12 pace yesterday, Double G., the favorite, succumbed today to Tenna, a rank outsider in the betting. Double G. finished a poor eighth in the second heat and Valentine was substituted for Sturgeon in the sulky in the third heat, but Double G. could not finish better than fourth. N extra two-meg fine for a roost on a street car strap is the piece of hay that bursts the camel's suspenders. It's the bale of straw that fractures the dromedary's lumbar vertebrae and the load of timothy that snaps the ship of the desert's keel.

There is a reason for the high cost of living. Milk popped up to 30 cents for a pinty looking quart, because the cows went democratic and wouldn't scoff anything but four-leaf clover. This nimble flower is supposed to be very lucky, and it is. The hicks, middlemen and distributors are getting fat, but Friend Public looks as if he had swallowed a war map loaded with pink, green and heliotrope pins.

Eggs hyped up to 80 cents for a short dozen, because the hens are dodging so many Fords, that the minute they lay an egg, the egg starts to sprout fenders and floating gears, and has to be hatched in a service station. But we can't spot any reason why balancing yourself on your own bunions should cost more than it did before the war. It does, though, and there ain't any reason for it. Which must be the reason why it does.

As the night riders were a result of the tobacco trust's operations, as the Klux Klux Clan was the outcome of the carpetbaggers' work in the south, so the new League of Straphangers is the logical result of the O. & C. B.'s scheme of dragging the public away from an extra-two-meg war tax. It was first suggested that the organization call itself the Cluck Cluck Clan, which would be appropriate, as anybody who would stand for traffic conditions this long is a cluck for your life.

transferred us from a 60-passenger Brill to a six-passenger Rolls it wouldn't be so tough to take; but jumping from one strap to another like an ape in a cocoanut grove is the bunk. Transfers from street cars to taxicabs wouldn't be so sinister either. Seven cents for a leather hand-Totals 33 924 0 Totals 35 13 27 2 cuff is the work. Two cents extra for a strap is also too much by exactly 2 cents and one strap.

But by that time, it looks as if there will be a swamgoozled more Wuffli sacrificed him to second and straightjackets in the world than there are straps.

The new League of Leather Jerkers is designed to protect the straphanger. If they want to protect him they should give him shinguards and corn pads. If the Association of Hook Danglers have the interests of the straphanger at heart, they will stake him to a set of rubber elbows that will stretch far enough to enable him to grab about 3 cents worth of a 7-cent strap.

The Bund of Flatwheel Bouncers is now organized and will have the largest standing committee of any club in the world. Matteawan and Bloomingdale included. There will be a rough house committee to investigate charges against any member who sits down while there is room to stand up or daugle from a strap like a string of red peppers from a North Sixteenth street window.

The O. & C. B. will joggle down in history as the line that put the strap within reach of the workingman. The League of Danglers doesn't want to take anything away from the O. & C. B. and they hope the feeling is mutual. But 7 cents for a transfer on the O. & C. B. is putting an amusement tax on suffering.
