A CALIFORNIA trip is the thing if you desire coolness during humid weather, according to Mrs. Hubert S. Askew, who has just returned from a western honeymoon. The weather was really uncomfortably chilly in San Francisco, according to this pretty bride, not at all like the Nebraska climate. Mrs. Askew was formerly Miss Margaret Fugitt, before her marriage which took place in June.

Mr. and Mrs. Askew spent several days in Hollywood, the home of many of the prominent movie actors. While there they saw many of the screen stars "on location." Mary MacLaren, Wallace Reid, Charles Chaplin, Roscoe Arbuckle and Clara Kimball Young were among those whose work they witnessed. They also had a glimpse of the great director, D. W. Griffith.

They seem to be very much the same old life as they are in filmland," says Mrs. Askew. They spent the greater part of their time on the coast and took a few short boat trips. Mrs. Askew is very enthusiastic over the climate and beauties of that state, but says that Omaha is a much better place to live.

Engagement Announced.
Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Alexander announce the engagement of their daughter, Dora, to I. J. Talley of Garland, Texas. The wedding will take place in September, at the home of the bride's parents.

Miss Alexander has been clerk of the Woodman Circle for the past eight years and will retain her position after her marriage. Mr. Talley occupied a government position during the war and will enter business circles in Omaha in the fall.

Eldredge-Trust.
The marriage of Miss Pauline Trust, daughter of Mrs. Marguerite Trust, to Gilbert Eldredge was solemnized at high noon, Thursday, at the home of the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Eldredge, in Fairacres. Rev. Titus Lowe performed the ceremony. The rooms were decorated with white roses and gladioli.

The bridesmaids, the Misses Helen Sturges and Louise Jones, were gown in pink georgette and carried pink roses.

The bride wore a pretty summer frock of white georgette. A large shower bouquet of bride's roses and sweet peas completed the costume.

The bridegroom was attended by John C. Eldredge as best man. The young couple will be at home at 85 Drake Court after September 1.

Former Omaha Weds.
Cards have been received by Omaha friends announcing the marriage of Miss Mildred Lomax, daughter of Mrs. Edward Lloyd Lomax, of San Francisco, to Frank Le Blond. The ceremony was performed in San Francisco, Saturday, July 26. Mr. and Mrs. Le Blond will be at home at 2211 Broderick street.

The bride, who is a former Ak-Sa-Ben queen, lived with her parents in Omaha until a few years ago. She possesses an excellent voice and has studied in France and Germany. After going to San Francisco, she entered the newspaper field, doing correspondence work for eastern papers.

For Bride-Elect.
Mrs. Hilding Jacobsen entertained at a miscellaneous shower at her home Thursday evening in honor of Miss Irene Palmquist, whose marriage to Ralph Lundahl of Atlantic, Ia., takes place in the fall.

For Miss Wheelwright.
Miss Daphne Peters entertained very informally at dinner at her home, Thursday evening, in honor of Miss Alice Wheelwright of Minneapolis, who is visiting Miss Dorothy Judson. Other guests included Miss Judson and Messrs. Nash Cartan, Paul Shirley and Douglas Peters. Miss Wheelwright leaves Saturday.

This Outfit Would Make Any Girl Pretty

—Fashion Camera Photo.

What girl would not look pretty in this outfit? Could anything be daintier or more summery? The blouse is of oyster white linen, though it could be made of any color linen, rough or smooth weave, that would suit the wearer. It is trimmed with white bands of cluny lace. The umbrella, which really looks mischievous, is of white taffeta and ostrich feathers. The hat? Oh, yes. There is a hat, isn't there? Well, it is of Pekin blue, the feather being about all you see unless you look closely.

New York theatrical producers report a short of chorus girls, notwithstanding the fact that their wages have doubled within the past several years.

Happy Hollow

L. P. Campbell, had five guests at dinner at the Happy Hollow club Thursday evening. Fred B. Dale entertained a foursome.

Frank L. McCoy will entertain 12 guests at dinner Saturday evening; G. D. Hansen will have six guests.

Mrs. Cuthbert Vincent will entertain the members of the Liberty chapter, O. E. S., at a Kensington at the Happy Hollow club Friday afternoon. Mrs. H. C. Sumney will speak on "The Opportunities of Women."

Seymour Lake Club.
Mrs. C. A. Melcher and daughter, Miss Mabel Melcher, entertained a large bridge party at the Seymour Lake club Thursday. The guests numbered 80.

"Mrs. Graham's Hair Color Restorer is Simply Wonderful"
Mrs. Williams says, "I procured a sample of Mrs. Graham's Hair Color Restorer, and was curious enough to try it. It is simply wonderful and I would not do without it."

The results she obtained from this preparation can be obtained by any woman. Gray and faded hair is quickly restored to its natural color and made rich and glossy.

It is a clear liquid that does not stain and is absolutely harmless. Easy to apply and it is impossible to tell that you are using it. Can be had at the following stores:

Heartbeats

By A. K.

Satiated with sin!

Ah well—not quiet!

Although the tendency

Of middle age

To drift from laws—

Morality—

Is most appalling—

So far we are

From Heaven

And the door of birth—

So far we are

From Heaven

And the gate of death—

That cynic's

Twisted wisdom

And Satan's

Biased plan

Envelop this weak

Will of ours

At cold old middle age.

"The sins of Youth

Are hardly sins

So frank they are

And free"

The middle aged—

Forgetting Love—

See not Eternity.

But when God spies

Havoc working

In this half-way house

Of Strife

He sends the Little babies—

The leavers of Crime.

They come with

Heaven smiling

In each bright

Laughing eye—

They turn our hearts

From wreckage

To the shrine of Happiness.

God sees each torn

And bleeding heart—

He feels each

Desperate soul

And bids His tiny Couriers

Their messages unfold

To us

Half derelicts."

Ah me!

We'd get too near

The brink of Hell

Without the baby's smile.

Camp Brewster Notes.
The members of the Busy Bee Circle of the Plymouth Congregational church had luncheon at Camp Brewster Wednesday.

The following girls are spending their vacation at the camp: Misses Emma Paffmore, Florence, Ella and Helen Carson, Catherine Southmayd, Emma Haffett, Anna Lumley, Frances Barton, Irene and Florence Stahl, Bertha Porter, Virginia Storrs, Rose Newman, Pearl Ryhno, Bess and Juanita Martin, Stell Vance, Helen Weymers of Wayne, Neb., and Mrs. C. M. Southmayd.

The famous Queen Elizabeth was exceedingly superstitious, and she took the precaution to consult an astrologer before naming the day for her coronation.

Carter Lake

Many are the innovations which are being adopted at Carter Lake club, for a boosters committee has been appointed which will direct the athletic and dancing stunts at the club house. Mr. Frank R. Kinknow is the chairman and Raymond G. Keller, secretary of the committee, who will promote good fellowship and incidentally good times at this lake side resort.

At the close of the recent campaign 150 new members were admitted and it is the purpose of the "stunt committee" to have them become acquainted with the older members.

The club is divided under two captains and the losers for this week will entertain 60 members at dinner Thursday night at 7:30.

Mr. H. Pelton entertained at a swimming party followed by dinner Tuesday evening, when his guests included the young women at Red Cross headquarters in the court house. The guests were: Mesdames Mary Eaglen, Irene Meehan, W. E. Bolin, and Misses Nellie M. Christensen, Mary Tobin, Mildred Scoville and Martha Gyger.

The Carter Lake Red Cross auxiliary entertained at luncheon, which was followed by a business meeting, Wednesday. They disbanded as a Red Cross unit and reorganized as a French club. Officers for the coming year were elected. A meeting will be held Thursday, September 4, at the club house, to discuss plans to send a Christmas box to the French orphan which they adopted last spring.

Wednesday night the Cottagers' dinner was well attended. There were 75 reservations.

Mrs. William Eck entertained the Red Cross auxiliary at bridge at her cottage at luncheon, swimming and bridge.

War Camp

The dance at Fort Omaha Tuesday evening was given by the Lafayette and Angelus clubs of War Camp. The young ladies are good entertainers and notwithstanding the hot weather about 40 couples were present.

A novel party is planned at Fort Omaha for next Tuesday evening. Through the courtesy of Colonel Wuest, two cement tennis courts will be at the disposal of the ladies entertaining at the fort. These will be covered with canvas. Rows of electric lights and Japanese lanterns will be strung about the courts. This will be the first attempt that has been made by War camp to conduct open air dancing, but we feel sure that it will be very popular.

The Cluga club held its regular meeting Tuesday evening, August 5, with a picnic dinner and games at Elmwood park. Hawaiian music was a popular feature of the evening. Those present were:

Pearl Scorda, Anna Balub, Fern Wright, Agnes Elliott, Evelyn Wright, Mrs. W. C. Jones, W. C. S. S., Mary Key, Mrs. Hallock, Edythe Nelson, Anna Vagner, Ethel Harvey.

The club will meet next Tuesday evening for a picnic in Miller park.

Wants Husband.

Dear Miss Fairfax, Omaha Bee: Will you please help me land a husband, just a good old-fashioned every-day man. I am 30 years old and have never been married, but would I could find one. I am lonely. Do you think I would be better off with some one to love and care for me? I work out most all the time and earn my own living. Please let me know through the columns of The Bee.

PEARL.

Although I have no good husbands for release today, I sincerely hope that you find one real soon.

Wants Correspondent.

Dear Miss Fairfax, Omaha Bee: I am a daily reader of your column, so I thought I would drop you this letter to see if you can help me. I am a lover of correspondence, so am asking if you could print this.

for perhaps there's some boy friend that could exchange letters with me. I will write to all, but I'd like some boy from 18 to 21. You will find my address is given, so there will be no difficulties about this. Do not print my address. The one that will want to write can get it from you.

How is my writing? I'm trying to write Palmer. I will close, lovingly. NOBODY'S SWEETIE. Your writing is all right, and I hope you find some pleasant correspondents.

RHUBARB AND RAISIN PIE

Blend and measure three cups of rhubarb, with a teaspoon of baking powder. Measure one cup of butter. Have cold and cut into four in fine bits, then chop it fine. When rolled out, fold in the rhubarb and lay in a cold dish. Roll out one-half of it to the desired thickness and cut in half inch pieces. Measure of rhubarb, mix a little with a tablespoon of sugar. Fill in the rhubarb, prepare enough to fill the pie, turn it with remainder of the cup of sugar mixed with a very little more flour, mixing well together, roll out remainder of pastry and cover the pie. Bake in a quick oven.

BREAD

Blend a quarter to a half cake of compressed yeast, or four tablespoons of liquid yeast with one cup lukewarm liquid in which has been dissolved one teaspoon of sugar. Add to this one and one-half cups of flour, mix carefully to avoid lumps. Beat thoroughly until smooth. Cover and let rise in a moderate warm place. When thoroughly light beat up the sponge. Add the required amount of sugar, salt and a dash of the required consistency. Knead the dough until smooth and elastic, allow to rise again, mould into a loaf, set rise again and bake.

VELVET CAKE

4 eggs, 1/4 cup of milk, 1/4 cup of butter, 1 teaspoon baking powder, 8 cups of sugar, 1/4 cup sugar, 2 tablespoons water, 1/4 teaspoon preferred extract. Sift flour, measure into sifter, add baking powder and sift. Cream butter and sugar until frothy. Beat egg yolks until thick and lemon colored then beat in all into creamed butter and sugar. Whip white of eggs until stiff then whip into mixture. Pour in milk and water, stir in flour, add the extract and beat all until smooth. Bake in a small loaf pan about three quarters of an hour. Bake in a slow heat at first that will permit the mixture to rise to its full height before browning over the top.

Try these on your family

Omar

And there will be no trouble in getting them home on time to meals. Omar bread is creamy white—wholesome—of even texture—satisfying—and stays fresh longer.

Cake baked with Omar flour is more delicious and palatable than any made from any other flour can be because no other flour has the qualities of Omar.

And as for Omar flour pies, well, even your lingering remembrance of the kind "mother used to make," will vanish, once you have finished a quarter of an Omar pie. I say quarter, because nothing less will satisfy you—you just can't quit until you are forced to because you're "full up."

Most good grocers sell Omar flour and every bag is covered by this guarantee:

"If Omar doesn't bake the best bread you ever baked, simply take the empty sack to your grocer, and get your money."
