PASTOR HOLDS SALOON AS A DISTINCT NEED.

Grass Valley, Cal., Aug. 8.—Places must be opened where men may congregate on the same footing as the saloon, even if public or private money must be contributed toward supporting them, according to the Rev. C. E. Robinson, in a sermon in the Congregational church here. He said the saloons filled a distinct need for more than 300 years, and that the success of John Barleycorn could be attributed to his being "a good mixer, a maker of friends, who harbored no race prejudices and could not be induced to draw a color line."

MEN GROW SHORTER AND LIGHTER OUT IN CHICAGO.

Chicago, Ill., Aug. 8.—Men are cetting shorter and lighter, according to statistics, and the big, burly and large-footed policeman is soon to go. No longer will candidates for places on the Chicago police force be required to be taller, heavier or bulkier than the average. The Civil Service commission has changed the regulations from five feet eight inches to five feet seven inches and lowered the minimum weight from 145 to 140 pounds.

New York, Aug. 8.—"My hus-band's charge that I deserted him is absolutely absurd. There have been other influences at work, but until my case comes up in the Reno courts I do not care to say anything personally against Mr. Ralston."
Thus did Mrs. Georgia Grayson Ralston reply to the charge of her husband, William C. Ralston, former president of the Fulton Iron works of San Francisco, who has brought action against her for absolute divorce in the Reno courts.

Mr. Ralston, who was formerly president of the Miners' association of California; and defeated for governor of California by Hiram Johnson, charges his wife with knitting all the time and refusing to go about with him. He charges that afterward Mrs. Ralston deserted him.

SUSTAINS DEMURRER IN 2.75 PER CENT BEER CASE.

Los Angeles, Aug. 8.—Judge B. F. Bledsoe of the United States district court here, sustained a demurrer to an indictment against Joseph Baumgartner, an officer of the Bakersfield Brewing company, who was charged with selling 2.75 per cent beer in violation of the prohibition war measure. The demurrer was sustained on the ground that the indictment did not show that the beer was intoxicating.
