WITH BILL BACK ROURKES TAKE HEART AND WIN

Manager Jackson Gets Into Game Again and Leads Team to 2-1 Victory Over Indians.

in the game at his old position at first base, the Rourkes tore the roof off and won from the Indians in the Boston off and won from the Indians in the final game of the series. The count was two to one, but if hits were worth anything in a ball game, the worth anything in a ball game, the core should have been larger. The the visitors have been larger. The score should have been larger. The core should have been larger. The core should have been larger. The core should have been larger. The country is the core of the country in the country in the country is the country in the cou four. Two Rourkes made bobbles, one each and one Indian booted one.

There were four extra-base hits made, two by visiting players and two by Omaha batters. Barbeau and Jackson made two-baggers on the local club and Griffith doubled for the Oklahoma City crew. Griffith hit his two-base wallop to right field and it hit the wall on the bounce. He depended on the coacher for instructions and was told to stop at second, but foxy Bill Jackson shouted louder than the coacher and told him to "Go on." Griff did so and was caught at third, Graham relaying the ball in, Hemingway to laying the ball in, Hemingway to Barbeau. It showed some real inside base ball on Jackson's part. The Indians made their score in the seventh frame, Faulk leading off with a double and scoring on Tanner's single. The latter died on second, Lindemore grounding out to Jackson, Griffin going out, Williams to Jackson, and Benson the eighth. They were held hitless tossed Williams out at second. for five innings by Sandy Burk, who never passed a man and fanned

The Rourkes started in the first.

Barbeau smacking a two-bagger on the second ball pitched. Graham sacrificed him to second. Lee popped out to short and Hemmingway brought Barbeau in with a single. Spellman lifted to right field. The other run was made in the third, Graham singling past second, Lee getting a free pass to first and Hem-mingway and Spellman each cloutmingway and Spellman each clouting out a single. With three on bases and none out, the Rourkes could not get another run across. Jackson and Williams each flied out and Hazen went out I will be said the said that and Hazen went out, Hazen to

With three men on in the eighth, with only one out, the Indians again prevented the locals from pushing a score over. Spellman was sate on Tanner's boot and Jack-Time: 1:25. With three men on in the eighth,

Mrs. Bryant Wants Others to Know the Good Work Tanlac Is Doing.

"Others helped me by telling what Tanlac did for them and now I want to help someone else by telling what it has done for me," said Mrs. Margarite Bryant, of 703 Olive street, Kansas City, Mo., to a Tanlac reresentative, recently.

"I suffered with stomach trouble and nervous indigestion for something like 10 years," continued Mrs. Bryant. "I hardly had any appetite at all and practically everything I ate just seemed to sour on my stomach and form gas that pressed so badly against my heart sometimes that I felt like it would surely stop beating. I was troubled a great deal with shortness of breath and if I exerted myself the least bit I was sure to get so weak I could hardly stand up and, at times, I was so awfully nervous that any little noise out of the ordinary would upset me com-pletely. Wichita, Surprise of Western League, to Be Here for Series Today

The new-lived Wichita club will open their series with the Rourkes night long and when I got up in the at the local ball park this afternoon morning I actually felt as tired, or at 3:30. The Wiches are the real trouble, too, and when one of these fought their way to a position that aftacks came on me I just had to commands great respect from the earch hold of something to keep leaders. They are now in such poproviding the team above them loses, will place them in front.

Today's game will be the first of a series of three. With Manager of the 46 games went to deuce. Williams and Washburn won from Ichiva Kumagae of Japan and Harold Throckmorton of Elizabeth, N. J., who hold the middle states sec-ional championship, 6-4, 3-6, 6-1, 8-6, Throughout the match with Mc-Loughlin and Bundy, Davis' work was superior to that of his partner. Bundy, who although less spectacular than McLoughlin, was steadier. The "comet" was in somewhat better form than at Newport last week and seemed to get over the court faster. The points scored in the four sets totalled 150 for the winners and 140 for the losers.

In the Williams-Washburn-Kumagae-Throckmorton match the play was brilliant throughout. This was particularly true of Kumagae as some of his "gets" seemed almost impossible. Williams has not yet achieved the form he showed before he entered the army and made a majority of the errors charged to his team. The point total for the four sets showed 136 for Williams and Washburn and 126 for Kumagae and Throckmorton.

Tomorrow's play will bring the Australians, Norman E. Brookes and Gerald Patterson and Williams and Washburn together in the feature match.
