Lanky Center Fielder Clouts on Third Time at Bat and Scores Runners; Gets Another in Seventh.

Center Fielder Joe Wilhoit of the Wichita Base Ball club made his 61st consecutive game hit in the fifth inning of yesterday's game, scoring two runners and later scoring himself. In the seventh inning with Pitcher Bowman on second. where he roosted after a tw base clout, Wilhoit smacked another single, bringing in another run.

The three runs in the fifth inning gave Wichita a commanding lead, Omaha having only one run at this stage or the game. The sixth in ning was a scoring frame for both clubs, the Wiches making one, Mueller walking and scoring on Berger's getting a single and Bert Graham smacking the pill over the right field wall for a home run. This was the finish of the Omaha scoring. The locals had two men on the seventh, but couldn't bring them home. In the eighth and ninth they went out double. Omaha made two. Barbeau the eighth and ninth they went out in one-two-three order.

When Wilhoit scored in the fifth inning he and Washburn, who was on first after a single, which had advanced Joe to third, pulled off a double steal. Washburn started for second and stopped, when Spellman threw to Williams at second. Wilhoit started home and beat the throw, which was low, and Washburn finished the trip to second. Wins Shootoff With Washing- American Fighting Men Back Their Champ's Claim to Honors In Heavyweght Boxing Division.

By JACK VEIOCK.

New York, Aug. 13.-Bob Martin of Akron, Ohio, who fought his way through the ranks of heavyweights to the championship of the allied armies at the inter-allied games in France, stands in the way of Jack Dempsey's claim to the world's heavyweight championship.

Martin's boosters believe-and he has the backing of 2,000,000 American soldiers and some 10,000,000 fighting men of the allies, according to reports-that he has a better claim than Dempsey to the title of world's champion.

General Pershing has placed the stamp of approval on Martin. The American commander praised the Akron boy highly for his success and predicted great things for him after having seen him dispose of the pick of the huskiest scrappers of 15 allied armies. Capt. H. O. Ware of the United States cavalry is one of Martin's most enthusiastic boosters. In a letter to the sporting editor of a Philadelphia newspaper, Captain Ware declares that if Jack Dempsev wants to prove his claims to the world's title he must seek Bob Marin and defeat him. Ware is responsible for the statement that the army champion has the unanimous vote of 2,000,000 American soldiers who look upon him as the real heavyweight champion. Captain Ware is perhaps a trifle over-enthusiastic about Martin, but his enthusiasm is prompted by hon-est conviction. He points out that Martin as a fighting man, having defeated the best fighters that could be dug from the ranks of the allied armies, without the guidance of a manager or the lure of a rich purse to spur him on, deserves more credit than Jack Dempsey because he has met and defeated men from various parts of the world, whereas Dempsey's activities have been confined to the United States alone.

If Ware speaks for the majority of American soldiers, as he says, the popular demand for a match between Martin and Dempsey should bring the two together in the not far distant future. At any rate, the bout would be bound to attract wide interest.

In speaking of the activities of American boxers in the big tournament in France, Captain Ware does not confine himself to the heavyweight division alone. He presents Martin, heavyweight; Eddie Eagan, Denver, middleweight, and Benny McNeill, Philadelphia, lightweight, as "our champions"—champions of rest of it, Jack Dempsey, Mike excepted. The spirit and the enthusiasm of Captain Ware and other American fighting men in boosting the A. E. F. champions is admirable. It shows the kind of spirit that made the Americans invincible at Chateau Thierry, St. Mihiel and the Argonne. It is their right to think as they lease of their champions and boost them as high as they please, and though they may step on the toes of some of our generally recognized champions in doing so, the action is
