Constance Talmadge

H. B. Warner

(MUSE)

On the Screen in Omaha

Warren Kerrigan -

Anne Luther

DROPS KHAKI

DORIS BLUE

THE first American officer to enter the "redeemed" city of Strassbourg was a motion picture actor, Robert Warwick, who was with the American expeditionary forces, and has since been promoted as major in the United States army reserve. Major Warwick plays the leading role of "Secret Service," William Gillette's great war play, which has been picturized is a Paramount-Arteraft special and which is to be shown at the Rialto

Major Warwick was at the front brought back an imposing array of trophies-trench dress" helmets, battered by hard e-vice; rifles and revolvers the Gernans used. He was in all the "big hows"-real fights, this time-during his term of frontier service before he was transferred back to this country for some special work in May. Going over, a ship in front of his transport was sunk by a German submarine, and coming back his own vessel sank a U-boat. He was on the general staff for a long term of work. He hadn't missed a thing, he reported gayly, when he got back. "I want to say." Major Warwick went on, "that the bravery of the motion picture cameramen was a credit to the movies. Those boys stuck to their cameras through the worst of it, just as if they were, back at the studio filming a staged battle scene. Many brave 'grinders' will never turn a camera crank again. One boy was found draghimself through No-man'sland and several hours after a big show' had ended, tugging his camera, which contained some 'great shots', and faint from the loss of blood in his three wounds." "Secret Service" is not a war play in the strict sense of the word. There are no pitched battles, no booming of cannon and bursting of shrapnel. The tremendous drama of the play is laid largely in the arney home in Richmond, at a time when the southern capital was besieged by the federal forces.

Omaha Bee's Universal Screen Magazine No. 27, which starts at the Muse theater today, contains a series of eight interesting items. 1-A Moment With an Old "Injun" Fighter. Remember those old hair-raising tales of your kid days when in fond dreams you lived and fought redskins with Daniel Boone?

2-Did You Know-Uncle Sam

Pays a Woman to Conduct a "Boarding House" for Bugs and Microbes? She is Miss Agnes Quirk, bureau of plant pathology, U. S. Department of Agriculture and this is her

3-The Sea Horse. There are more than 30 kinds of sea horses. They are commonly found in all tropical and temperate seas and were known to the ancients.

The Near Great. The man

makes the Charlie Chaplin

5—The Correct Form for the Engaged, by Dame Curtsy. "Courtship should be dignified, sensible and 6-How the Cricket "Serenades"

His Lady Love. The male gryllus campestris (or common ground cricket) makes a sound pleasant to the female.

7—Use Your Hands to Charm, by Lillian Russell. "There can be grace and beauty in raising teacup." 8-Futurist Movies. Introducing loe Cannon, one of America's states-

To recover from the wounds of the Hunnish bullets and the nauseating Teuton gasses only to become a prisoner for life through the darts of one Dan Cupid, was the experience of Ted Brooks, a daring cowboy, who supports Harry Carey. In the early days of the war

Brooks enlisted with the Canadian forces and within a few weeks saw Vimy Ridge. There he fell a victim of a German sniper. He was sent back to a Canadian hospital and was tenderly nursed back to health by Miss Ethel Morrison, an Maskan girl, who volunteered as a Red Cross nurse.

Last week Miss Morrison arrived at Universal City after completing a long journey from the cold north many miles of which was covered by dog teams.

The life knot was tied and as a wedding present Harry Carey presented the couple with a plot of ground on his ranch as a home site. and Ted's cowboy pals, not to be outdone, bunched together and in a single day built a modest home or the happy couple.

William S. Hart has completed his last production for Paramounterteraft on his present contract, which has been in effect during the last two years. The title of his latest creation is "John Petticoats," a weird subject that takes Hart from the backwoods of Oregon to New Orleans French quarter. Hart will shortly announce his future plans, and it is understood that he has definitely decided not to retire, as was reported several months ago.

Announcement of coming attractions in Omaha include Cecil B. deMille's "The Admirable Critchton" with Thomas Meighan, Glovia Swanson, Lila Lee and Theodore Roberts in the cast.

Bryant Washburn will be seen in 'Love Insurance," and there is coming "Huckleberry Finn", a screen story of Mark Twain's great book.
"Peg O' My Heart," the famous tage play, will star Wanda Hawley. Ethel Clayton, returned recently from a vacation in Japan, will be seen in "Miss Hobbs."

Wallace Reid's picture is "The Lottery Man," and Marguerite Clark will appear in "A Widow by Charles Ray learns from a film ian that the influenza is having its session in Australia.

Corrine Griffith has completed Thin Ice," and is hard at work on her newest one, "A Girl at Bay"

"Yankee Doodle in Berlin," and the famous bathing beauties of Mack Sennett fame, are on the way from New York, to this city, and when they arrive, we may find that as soon as Director Ince finishes some of the boys will lose their "Sealed Hearts," Eugene O'Brien's hearts, as they are simply stunning. They are all westerners, and, say, we can claim that we have some beauties in the west, and these are the pick. You'll all go and just sit and admire them. I'll be there too, to feast my eyes on the smart and pretty girls from the Pacific coast.

will be the screen version of "The Country Cousin" from the well-Mary MacLauren is one of the known stage success by Booth Tarkington and Julian Street, in which prize raconteurs of Universal City, her favorite type of stories being kiddie jokes that deal with the films Elaine Hammerstein will make her

Robert Warwick

Wallace Reed

Wellington Cafe

C. F. REIMER, Proprietor

$1.25—SPECIAL SUNDAY

DINNER-$1.25

(RIALTO)

Here is her latest:

"You shall have it, dear. And who is the lame man?" asked his mother.
"Oh, he's the doorkeeper at the which is her favorite diversion between films.
"And who is Hammerstein is now enjoying a brief vacation "roughing it," which is her favorite diversion between films.

Release of Louise Glaum's great- Sunday

Jack Mower is resting, not be-cause he is without job or salary, but because he is waiting for the next Wayne Mack comedy-drama to commence. Mower will be placed under contract by Mr. Mack, it is with the one and only Mary Pickford. It is a story of stage life, with its pleasures and sadness, very beautifully played. An added attraction is a Larry Semon Vitagraph comedy. Saturday, John Barrymore in "Here Comes the Bride." Mr. Barrymore at his best, that is sure to be good of Intrigue," an Arbuckle comedy, and of Intrigue," an Arbuckle comedy, also a Chester Outing Scenic, "Getting Gay Vith Neptune," is a most amusing travelogue. Wednesday and Thursday Jack Pickford in "Bill Apperson's Boy," lie a good demestic drama full of heart interest. Friday and Saturday the famous comedian, Charlie Chaplin, in his latest connedy, "Sunnyside," along with this attraction is Enid Bennet in "Happy though Married," which is a Paramount, and most amusing. Apollo—Sunday, Ethel Clayton, in "Pettigrew's Girl." The star has a part that appeals to you and soon gets the sympathy of the audience. Monday and Tuesday, Douglas Fairbanks in "Arizona," a picture in which the part absolutely fits the star; it was one of the biggest successes of the stage. Wednesday and Thursday, Constance Talmadge in "A Veiled Adventure," a domestic drama, strong and gripping. Miss Talmadge has excellent support. This picture has proved to be one of the star's best. Friday, "Here Comes the Bride," with John Barrymore. The play was one of the big successes of last season and should prove a drawing card with this excellent actor in the lead. Saturday, a World attraction, "The Dust of Desire."

> LOTHROP 24th and Lothrop WALLACE REID in "THE DUB" HAROLD LLOYD COMEDY

APOLLO 29th and Leavenworth

ETHEL CLAYTON, in
"PETTIGREW'S GIRL"
MONDAY and TUESDAY
An Arteraft Special.
DOUGLAS FAIRBANKS in "ARIZONA"
Prices 11c and 17c

Constance Talmadge

DIAMOND 24th and Lake NORMA TALMADGE

'RIGHT OF PURCHASE"

Close-Ups and Cut-Outs

bow as a Selznick star. The cast days. Miss Hammerstein is now en-

HARRY Graham of ye olde and ancient exchange of Pathe, is all smiles when one mentions was James Young, the director. The 'The Great Gamble," the newest of scenes were being made for Elsie their serials. It is now playing at Janis' first Selznick-Picture, "Every-13 suburban houses. He's not superstitious in the least, in fact it is his lucky number. They do say on the Rialto that he is getting big booking for the latest Creighton Hale picture, "The Thirteenth Chair."

Janis' first Selznick-Picture, "Everybody's Sweeheart." The players used the "shoots" and a large number of the side shows, also half a two of peanuts in the course of their work.

Myron Selznick appounces that Myron Selznick announces that

Olive Thomas' fourth Selznick production will be directed by Ralph Ince. Miss Thomas, who has been enjoying a vacation, is back home again, and ready to start to work second starring vehicle. The fourth Olive Thomas production will be a screen version of a big stage success, the title of which will be announced later. The first production to be made in Selznick's new Fort Lee studio

A little boy said to his mother:

"I want a dime to give a lame will be announced within a few

movie show," was the youngster's

est photodrama "Sahara," has been

Visitors at Luna Park, Coney Island, were given an unusual treat when they had a chance to watch Elsie Janis, now a Selznick-Pictures star, and her supporting company, being filmed in a series of

Bills for the Current Week

Sun—"A White Man's Chance," with J. Warren Kerrigan in the lead. A dramm of great interest, laid in Mexico. Donaid Joseph Blenhorn, junior partner of a Boston legal firm, is sent to Mexico to investigated the man whom their client, be is now in the disguise of a Spanish nobleman, Don Jose Alvarez, He incurs the enmity of Lopez and Gonzales, Mexican ranch hands, wins the regard of the girl, discovers that her suitor, Hugh Hamitus, is not a particularly desirable person and falls in love with the girl, all in a few days. Lopez and Gonzales try to assassinate Don Jose, murder a store keeper instead, and Don Jose is suspected of the murder. With a supercondition of the principle of the murder with the captain, she, too, would like, and the captain size, for Fanina loved in a fierce and primitive way. The Orkin are fierce, and primitive way. The Orkin are fierce and primitive way. The Orkin like, and the captain size, for Fanina loved in a fierce and primitive way. The Orkin like, and the captain size, for Fanina loved in a fierce and primitive way. The Orkin like, and the captain size, for Fanina loved in a fierce and primitive way. The Orkin like, and the captain size, for Fanina loved in a fierce and primitive way. The Orkin like, and the captain size, for Fanina loved in a fierce and primitive way. The Orkin like, and the captain size, for Fanina loved in a fierce and primitive way. The Orkin like, and the captain size, for Fanina loved in a fierce and primitive way. The Orkin like and the captain size, for Fanina loved in the captain size, for Fanina loved in the captain size, for Fanina loved in a fierce and primitive way. The Orkin like, and the captain size, for Fanina loved in a fierce and primitive way. The Orkin like, and the captain size in a fierce and primitive way. The Orkin like and the captain of the best action in "The Right of Purchase." Norma is at her best, it is a gripping story, also a ground a Captain like.

Diamond—Sunday Norma Talmadge in "The Right of Purchase."

PATHE NEWS

GRAND

"THE ROMANCE OF ARABELLA"

A Good Western and a Comedy

Give Kaiser to Vampire. Theda Bara's Suggestion. BY THEDA BARA.

Everything from depopulating Hades by sending the kaiser there has been suggested as the most fitting judgment the world could pronounce on its greatest But I believe there is a better solution of this interesting case. Mr. Hohenzollern should have a lingering death. He should be made the prey of a full-fledged 1919 vampire. Strange, isn't it, that when the demon who so long terrorized mankind finally was forced to flee his throne and country, he took refuge in a land over which a queen rules? Shall we call it hiding behind petticoats? Men have put the forme kaiser temporarily out of the way. Then why not let a woman -a real artist in shaping men's destinies, finish the job? I would suggest placing him on a remote island with another man and a vampire. That's all that would be necessary. The kaiser himself would do the rest

-and society would have nothing

Opportunity knocks at your door

with which to reproach itself.

Y. W. C. A. Mission to Czecho-Slovakia Now Working in Prague

New York, Aug. 16 .- The compilation of a directory covering all welfare and social agencies in Prague is the first task of importance which the Y. W. C. A. mission to Czecho-Slovakia has been called upon to perform, according to word received here today.

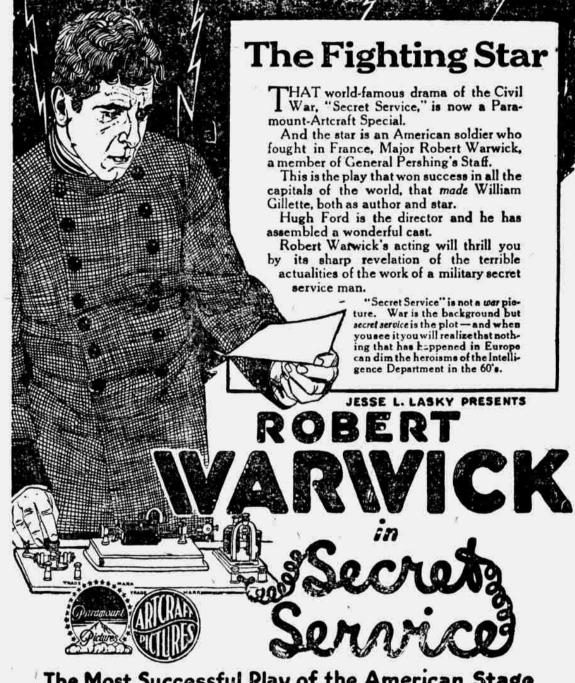

The commission which was sent to Czecho-Slovakia by Dr. Alice Masaryk, daughter of the president of the republic and president of the National Red Cross society, has also opened a summer camp for training women as social workers and recreation leaders to begin such work among their own people during the winter.

The school, which is located in the palace of the governor in the Stromevka park, has 30 students, who were carefully selected for this work and presented with scholar-ships. Miss Mary Hurlbutt of Stamford, Conn., is in charge. Miss Ruth Crawford, who has been assistant executive of the division on foreign-born women of the National War Work Council of the Y. W. C. A., is directing the survey of social conditions in Prague, for which Miss Masaryk asked that the commission be sent over.

Monday Tuesday Wednesday Mack Sennett Comedy

"Treating 'Em Rough"

The Most Successful Play of the American Stage By William Gillette Scenario by Beulah Marie Dix Directed by HUGH FORD a Chammount arteraft Special

