STARTS MONDAY

Continues

WITH the planning of our eight-story building where the Boyd Theater now stands, our minds turned toward the question, "What shall we do with the merchandise now stored in the Boyd Theater?"

Our shelves and counters, as well as all storage space available, is filled to overflowing. There was only one thing to do. Dispose of all surplus merchandise.

Therefore, it was decided to give our customers the benefit of great price reductions on stocks of fresh merchandise, carefully selected and bought to sell at much higher prices.
