Migr. Jackson Takes Mound in Seventh Inning; Catcher Spellman Injured.

Sioux City, Ia., Aug. 18 .- (Special Telegram.)-Sioux City won the first game of the series from Omaha today, 11 to 0, in a game which turned out to be a farce after Spellman's right hand had been Boston ... St. Louis badly injured by a pitched ball. Fuhr and Lyons started a nifty pitching duel and it lasted until the third inning when Graham let Defate's grounder roll off his glove to the fence and two runs scored His error came after another bobble by Hemmingway and the side should have been retired scoreless. Meloan followed Defate with a double and Defate scored the third run of the inning. The duel then grew tight and it looked as it the lead of three runs would be a mighty big handicap. There seemed little chance of the Sioux increasing it or the Rourkes to overtake the Sioux.

In the sixth Meloan bunted vigorcusly towards Williams, who was playing deep and allowed Meloan to reach first even before the ball had been fielded. Brokaw flied to Lee. While Robinson was at bat Meloan stole second and took third when Hemmingway let the throw roll to center field. Robinson walked, Eiffert struck out, Hargrave singled and Meloan scored. Lyons doubled and Robinson and Hargrave scored. Moran was safe on Hemmingway's error. While Goodwin was at bat a fast high ball struck Spellman on the right hand and badly injured it.

After the injury to Spellman the Sioux ran wild on the bases and Jackson relieved Fuhr, the latter taking Jackson's place at first.
