

Guilt is the source of sorrow. 'Tis the fiend, the avenging fiend, that follows us behind, with whips and stings.

Soul Kiss. Dear Miss Fairfax, Omaha Bee: Please print in The Bee what a soul kiss is? I am ANXIOUS TO KNOW. So am I.

A Wild Man. Dear Miss Fairfax, Omaha Bee: Am madly in love with a wonderfully beautiful girl. Have just seen her once and her beauty so completely stunned me that I lost an opportunity to speak to her. Instantly I knew that she was my ideal.

We met in front of the Sun theater and I lost her in the crowds of Brandeis Stores. Twice I thought I had found her in the balcony at the Sun, but was mistaken.

Now, I have hunted the world over for just such a girl and I can't sleep, eat or do anything for thinking of her wonderful beauty and magnetism. She was a very young miss, perhaps not more than 14, but I'm going to find her if I have to turn Omaha upside down.

Am 35, but my father was 37 and my dear mother 14 when they married.

If my married life could only be one-half as ideal as theirs was and is, no one could want more on this earth.

I have $200,000 in money and properties, and when I find this girl again I will make a desperate attempt to win her love, according to established rules, and if that fails I will carry her away and fight a thousand men for her if necessary.

You are a woman and giving advice on subjects of this kind. Can you suggest an idea that will enable me to meet her again? If so, I will pay you $1,000. I mean business in capital letters.

My home is at Los Angeles. Thanking you for any possible assistance, SIMPLY WILD.

Too bad about your appetite. Still, doctors are advocating diet for good health. The amount you offer for my advice is insufficient—a mere tip. What you need is (not advice), a cure of some kind.

Madge—I cannot meet you, but the matter which you wish to discuss is a grave one. Come to my office and I will be glad to advise you if possible without asking your name or address.

Heartbeats

By A. K.

Our bachelor maid is a self-made maid. Endowed with charm and womanly grace.

In the game of Life Many times she has faced The stock of the market. Of matrimony. Bargain counters. Found our daisies fair. Sitting and sorting. And sniffing around. But never a regular. Man she found. First class. And good for the price. On the over-full counter. Of real young men. She perceived many. Good looking chaps. But a second glance. Revealed the fact. That they all were. Too terribly green. For her lavender disposition.

One rare looking specimen. Of quality brand. While waiting for her. Decision. Broke a thread. Dropped a stitch. In his spun-silk brain. So his conversation. Began to run. On and on. Without intermission. Till his stocking. Of hope.

Was clocked to the toe. Of his unresourceful mind. One was solid. Substantial and gray. Guaranteed. To be good forever. But she wanted no gray. And who wants a thing. To last. Forever and ever. We wish her luck. On her "shopping" trip. And had anxiously waited. For her return.

We asked what she'd found. (She looked blase). In the way. Of a partner for life. "Nothing I wanted." She tossed her head. "Only shoddy. Undesirable. Miserable seconds."

There are heights. And depths. She may never reach. Happiness. And sorrow. She may never know. She might find a jewel. In a counter of junk. If this charming girl. Would just take a chance. SELAH!

Talley-Alexander Nuptials. One of the most spectacular weddings of the season took place at the Prettiest Mile club, Tuesday evening when Miss Dora Alexander became the bride of John R. Talley of Garland, Tex. Rev. B. F. Feldman read the marriage lines.

A striking feature was the entrance of the 18 bridesmaids, members of the Dora Alexander guard, who descended the broad stairway two by two, gowned in rainbow tinted frocks, and carried arm bouquets of roses. These attractive bridesmaids were Misses Ada Koeppel, Fannie Cahow, Nellie Church, Nina Stanbrough, Anita Wilson, Marie Sass, Ruth Holmes, Thelma Brison, Helen Lynch, Vera Turek, Melissa Schoening, Josephine Muff, Anna Slegl, Sophia Matcha, Mildred Swanson, Grace Stiles, Irene Tauchen and Lowene Schmidt. The matrons of honor followed the bridesmaids, Mrs. A. E. La Rocca, wore a white georgette gown over white satin and carried an arm bouquet of roses. Mrs. Orville Remington wore a light blue crepe meteor gown and carried roses. Mrs. Clyde Shugart was gowned in pale pink crepe meteor. Miss Florence Holden, who was maid of honor wore white georgette and carried a shower bouquet of roses.

The bridegroom was of white satin trimmed in Chantilly lace. The long tulle veil was caught with rosebuds and a shower bouquet of white roses was carried.

Before a bank of gladioli, ferns and palms, the ceremony was performed, the bridegroom attended by B. F. Thomas.

Two hundred guests attended the nuptials and the reception which followed. Mrs. Laura Thraikill of Creston, Ia., Mrs. R. A. McKelvy, Mrs. G. H. Henning and Mrs. Vereta Crane, were in the receiving line and the Misses Beulah Lamoreux, Blanche Eakin and Mrs. Winifred Claycomb presided at the punch bowl.

Mr. Talley and his bride will leave within a few days on an eastern trip and will make a tour of the lakes. Upon their return they will be at home at 611 South Thirty-sixth street.

LEMON JUICE TAKES OFF TAN. Girls! Make bleaching lotion if skin is sunburned, tanned or freckled.

Squeeze the juice of two lemons into a bottle containing three ounces of Orchard-White, shake well, and you have a quarter pint of the best freckle, sunburn and tan lotion, and complexion beautifier, at very, very small cost.

Your grocer has the lemons and any drug store or toilet counter will supply three ounces of Orchard White for a few cents. Massage this sweetly fragrant lotion into the face, neck, arms and hands each day, and see how freckles, sunburn, windburn and tan disappear and how clear, soft and white the skin becomes. Yes! It is harmless.—Adv.

Sanctuary

By FLORENCE K. MIXTER

How is it faith outstrips the doubting word, Leaving the skeptic brain in overthrow— And, swift as arrow from the archer's bow, Flies up, and ever upward, like a bird?

Today the heavy mists of doubt are stirred. By distant currents, winds that softly blow; As if a promise given long ago Were faintly whispered and as faintly heard.

I sometimes think that high above Earth's dome Our hopes from turret to dream-turret soar, And like gray pigeons build their nests and mate. There beauty harbors them when they return home From their wide, circling, and fervent evolutions. Their sanctuary is inviolate. —From Poetry.

Toilet Articles for Camping Trip.

Friday we arranged for sleeping on our long auto trip into the mountains. Today we shall consider the most compact cases and the most necessary toilet articles.

Scarcely anyone would forget a comb and brush for each member of the party, but when making up this list, why omit it? Then there is the tooth brush and paste or powder or whatever cleanser one is accustomed to using. In the stores there are compact manicure sets which make the care of the nails easy. While one is not keen about a super-polish, yet there is a certain amount of decency to clean nails. These cases roll into very small parcels and one may be used by the whole party if necessary.

Soap and a soap box, by all means. Then there are hot winds and cool winds to be considered. Any wind is apt to make one look weather beaten unless there is a generous quantity of cold cream applied.

Powder and rouge should be kept in screw-top jars or tightly covered cans. Tea cans are useful in camping trips. The covers fit well and even if they should be tumbled over, the contents are not greatly disturbed.

A generous quantity of towels should be provided. It is a great nuisance to bother with packing soiled linen and a far better plan is to purchase a roll of crepe paper toweling which may be thrown away when soiled.

A shoe brush should be added to the outfit and a box of pins, including safety pins, relieves many a strained button. Veils and nets take up almost no room and are as necessary as one's dress. A close-fitting hat should be worn and curlers enough to go around. Remember there are no curling irons on camping trips and if one must keep the locks curled, these "kid" and other patent curlers fill the need most gracefully.

Readers' Recipes

Canadian Date Bread (2 Loaves). 4 cups flour, 4 teaspoons baking powder, 1 cup sugar, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1 egg, 2 cups milk, 2 packages Dromedary dates, 1 cup walnut meats. (Use level measurements.)

Sift dry ingredients four times. Whip eggs thoroughly and add to milk. Mix dates and nuts in flour mixture. Gradually moisten with milk liquor until all the flour has been taken up. This will make quite a stiff batter. Grease and dust two bread pans and divide batter into them. Bake (after 15 or 20 minutes standing) for one hour in slow oven. —Mrs. Cyrus Mason.

Brown Stone Front Cake. 1 egg, 1 cup sugar, 1 cup sweet milk, 1 teaspoon soda.
