way to three Omaha runs and the Rourkes took the second game of the series, 4 to 2.

The Sioux started in the first like winners. Moran and Goodwin singled in succession and Defate sac-riced, Meloan hit to Kopp and Moran was run down between third and the plate. Robinson popped to Hemmingway for the third out.

In the second Defate threw badly on Graham's bounder and booted Hazen's grounder. Williams hit to Hargrave and forced Graham. Brown, a catcher obtained from Logan, Ia., to relieve Spellman, whose second finger of his right hand was dislocated, singled to left and Hazen scored, Williams taking third. Kopp hit to Goodwin, who threw to the plate, but Williams was safe, Barbeau was out on a grounder to Moran but Brown scored, Jack-son singled but Lee was out.

Graham Doubles.

In the sixth Hemmingway was out and Graham doubled. Hazen singled and Graham took third. The squeeze play was attempted with Williams at bat. He missed the ball and Graham was caught at third on a fine play, Hargrave taking Eiffert's throw with his gloved hand while running toward third. Williams singled and Hazen scored. Williams stole, Brown singled and Williams was out at the plate on a throw from Robin-

Goodwin walked in the sixth, Barbeau muffed Defate's grounder, Meloan singled and the bases were filled. Townsend relieved Kopp, Robinson popped to Williams. Brokaw lifted a sacrifice fly to Haven and Goodwin scored. Eiffert singled but Hargrave was out.

Another run was scored by the Sioux in the seventh on Moran's hit, game in a pitchers' battle, 2 to 1. and dropping the second, 7 to 5, after obtaining a five-run lead. Score, first game:

77WO MO THAREE" WITH "BUGS" BAER

BIRD toting the treble end of a grand piano hasn't got his mitts any fuller than old Gus Government. The Gov is going to show the chow gangsters the difference between feeding the public and feeding on the public.

The Gov dopes that it will flatten the dizzy cost of cakes by selling feed at cost. That's wrong all over like a giraffe with a sare neck. Selling food at cost won't do. It's too much.

Before investing your smackers in war grub you want to state what branch of the service menu you think will fit your epiglotis. There is the food the marines scoffed. The chow the buddles gulped and also sailor food. You can have your pick of three different menus. The marine food was beans, buddie food was beans and sailor food was beans.

By going after the food yeggs, the government has swatted the Holstein in the monocle. By packing the cold storage hounds away in cold storage the government can make the works as merry as alimony bells. Lock 'em in a concrete jug and tie the key to a rabbit. If they squawk for food let 'em eat their way out.

When the trials of the profiteers rattle off, it will be impossible to pick an unbiased jury. Most everybody has either read about food, ate some at one time in his career or formed an opinion about a sirloin steak or the fat-chinned butcher who sold it. The fine for food swindling is 5,000 buttons, two years in the jail bungalow, or both. Two years in the house with the iron portieres may be the wrong sentence. Five thousand smackers may also be the wrong verdict. In order to appease justice and make certain that the little squint-eyed juror with the brown derby doesn't go home and beat his wife, the court gives you both out of Chicago the fullness of his heart and the emptiness of his stomach. Any last message to the folks?

It is impossible to pipe why the lawmakers wasted words about 5,000 berries' tax or two seasons in the vat, when or both covered the subject

It's time that the courts burned all the Blackstone bunk and got out a new book. When trying the food hawks, the judges could turn over the pages while the jury lamped the pretty pictures. They could pass up the 5,000 assessment page, rip out the two-year rest cure and turn to the nice curly page where it chirps, or both.

No jury needs a barge load of law books stuffed with double-jointed English. One book, one page, one paragraph with two words. Or both.

WISCONSIN MAN COULDN'T RIDE ON THE STREET CARS

Was Almost Nervous Wreck -Says Tanlac Is Worth Its Weight In Goid.

"I would not take one thousand dollars for the good Tanlac has done me," said Arthur Baars, employed by the Milwaukee Paper Box Co., and residing at 1207 Eighteenth St., Milwaukee, in telling the Tanlac representative of his improvement since taking the medicine.

"Yes, sir, this medicine has put won from Ord here Sunday, 5 to 4, me in shape so I can do more work in a most hotly contested game. A than I've been able to do before in crowd of over 2,000 people attended years, and you can just tell the the game, it being the largest crowd people I think it is worth its weight in gold," continued Mr. Baars, as in central Nebraska. Greeley plays he went on with his statement, at Scotia next Sunday, August 24. "My trouble started three years ago when I had a collapse caused by over-heat. I was down in bed three months from this spell, and it left me in an awful fix; in fact.

became almost a nervous wreck. I couldn't work regularly-was up one day and down the next. Actually, I was so nervous I couldn't ride on the street cars, and being in a crowd or amongst a little excitement would completely upset me, and I would shake like a leaf and it would take several days to get over it. I had such terrible headaches at times my head felt like iron bands were tied around it. Some nights I would have to sit up in bed and get my wife to bathe my head to get a little relief, and many times I couldn't get to sleep until 4 or 5 o'clock in the morning on account of these headaches and nervous spells. This is just the shape I was was in when one of the men at the shop suggested to me that I take Tanlac, and I agreed to do it, but I had little faith in it or any other medicine.

"By the time the first bottle was gone the headaches had disappeared, and my nerves began to get steady. To make a long story short, this Tanlac made me feel like a different man, and now I haven't a sign of nervousness or the other troubles that had been pulling me down for the past three years. I sleep fine, get up of mornings feeling refreshed and rested and ready for my day's work. I eat three hearty meals every day-something I couldn't do before-and what I eat agrees with me, and I am gaining in strength and weight every day. This Tanlac certainly beats anything I ever saw in my life."

Tanlac proved of great benefit to Mr. Baars because it contains certain medicinal properties which enrich the blood and promote healthy appetite for nourishing food. Tanlac has been very successful in overcoming nervousness and sleeplessness, not from a quieting effect on the nerves, for it has no such effect, but by strengthening the nerves and body and bringing the normal state of health through its effect on the appetite and nutrition of the body.

Tanlac is sold in Omaha at all Sherman & McConnell Drug Company's stores, Harvard Pharmacy and West End Pharmacy. Also For-rest and Meany Drug Company in South Omaha and the leading drug-DR. E. R. TARRY, 240 Bee Bldg., Omaha, Neb. gist in each city and town throughout the state of Nebraska.—Ada
