My mind to me a kingdom is; Such present joys therein I find. That it excels all other bliss, That earth affords or grows by kind. —Dyer.

I know not what the future hath Of marvel or surprise, Assured alone that life and death God's mercy underlies. —Whittier.

Society

MISTS from dreamland seemed to float before our eyes bringing with them the dainty fairy creatures known as the Marion Morgan dancers. Who could have believed that they were anything but creatures of the realm of Pan? Their beauty and grace was that of the naiads and the nymphs, who disported themselves on the banks of the Tiber before the temples of the night gods.

Henrietta Rees Entertainers. Miss Henrietta Rees entertained at an attractive tea Monday afternoon at her home, in South Twenty-second street, from 4 until 6 o'clock, in honor of her aunt, Mrs. Thomas Rees, of Springfield, Ill., who is her guest.

Heartbeats

Today The world is gray A sad and sorry place For us to live. I often question The "idea" in sending me To earth To suffer and to sin. Good I have done Amounts to naught—Fame has been A sorry jest— A hollow mockery A grinning skull Through whose picked bones There lurks Another tale to tell About success. The world would not listen Even if I told the truth That after all Its happiness And not applause That leads the fight And wins fat Cupid's Croix de Guerre. Happiness! Ah me! And what have I— I who work and struggle Toward The rainbow's end Whereat there hangs No pot of gold Or even consolation. I know that Life Is hardly worth the living— That victory is—at best But half-pay for the strife. Why be such fools as we Who fight and starve For spiritual blessings! There are none— Sometimes I think The dead all live. Such foolishness! Some say that suicide Is sin. What sin is there To end one's earthly Misery. Tonight I shall take poison. No—not that. Poison is so hideous. I'll place my tiny pistol To my head. And stop its beating. No—this is better. I'll fling myself Into the rapids. Just below the falls That's it—The Falls! Although On second thought I'd better wait A day or two For tomorrow Henrietta's having tea This is a sad old world! And we have such fun— (There are no Blue Devils) At Henrietta's teas. SELAHI

Eugenie Patterson Home After Two Years' Service

Miss Eugenie Patterson, daughter of D. C. Patterson, returned to Omaha Tuesday morning after two years spent with the Red Cross as a nurse in the Philippines, Siberia and Czechoslovakia. Two months ago she arrived in New York, and there, as she spoke the language of the Czechs and Slovaks, she was put in charge of a War Camp Community center, where 100 men from that foreign land were being fitted with new limbs by the American Red Cross. Following her release she went to Chicago, where she visited her sister, Mrs. Livingston Fairbanks, for five weeks.

While with the Red Cross Miss Patterson was stationed in many countries, thus having the opportunity to travel. She has visited in Russia, Japan, China, India, Egypt and Italy. At each place Miss Patterson was given leave to see objects which are of interest to the tourist.

Although Miss Patterson has just returned to Omaha, she has already made plans to continue in reconstruction work, having been accepted by the Y. M. C. A. a short time ago. At the present time it is not known whether or not women will be allowed to do this work. If they are she may be called within a month.

Miss Patterson is very enthusiastic over her work and plans to continue it indefinitely.

John Lynn, of Boston and Mrs. Louise Zabrieski, of Chicago, were assisted by Mrs. R. M. Switzer, Mrs. Ralph West and Miss Margaret McShane. About 100 guests called during the afternoon.

Advice to the Lovelorn

Love Comes Unbidden and, "To Love or Not We Are No More Free Than the Ripple to Rise and Leave the Sea."

By BEATRICE FAIRFAX

Wants Work. Dear Miss Fairfax, Omaha Bee: I am now just like the rest coming to you for advice. Some time ago I had the greatest misfortune of all my life when I lost my mother. I am 18 years old and have been doing house duties for the last four or five years. Now, Miss Fairfax, what I would like to know is this: Do you think it is possible for me to secure a position in which I could work at home after my house duties are done? In the hope that you can give me some advice, I am as ever and will be, A MOTHERLESS CHILD. You haven't told me just what you can do beside housework. If you knit well you might be able to take orders for sweaters, or if you are a good needlewoman there are many avenues open to you. Why don't you learn to make pretty bags, everyone carries them and I am sure you could receive many orders if you would just ask your friends. Sometimes scraps of ribbon and silk that you have on hand with the addition of an ivory top and a silk tassel make the loveliest of bags.

Pawn Shops. Dear Miss Fairfax, Omaha Bee: I have written you a letter before and was terribly disappointed in not seeing it in print. If you will only have the answer in print I will be satisfied, therefore you will not have to have this letter in print. Is there any jewelry or pawn shop here in Omaha where one can sell second-hand rings at a reasonable price? Also are there any music stores where one can sell music that has never been used? I don't mean 10-cent sheet music, but high grade music books. I bought these books, but have never used them and they are good as new. Sincerely, C. C.

Any pawn shop will purchase second-hand jewelry, and if your music is in good condition Mr. Ed Patton, head of the music department at Carter Lake

Wants to Adopt Child. Dear Miss Fairfax, Omaha Bee: I always read your columns and think it just splendid, so here I come for a little assistance, although mine is not a love affair. I want to adopt a baby boy anywhere from the age of 1 day to 6 or 8 months or so old. I have been to all the places, both in Omaha and the Bluffs, and also wrote to Milford, Neb., but of no avail. They did not none of them, have a thing, so I thought perhaps you may know of some one personally who would have a child they would like to adopt out. We live in the Bluffs. My husband is a railroad man and is away a great deal, which makes it pretty lonesome for me. We have no children of our own. He makes good money and we have a nice place here. We are buying our own home. We are just a young couple, 27 and 29 years old. I am sure the baby would have a nice home and I will give it the best of care, as I just dearly love babies. Hoping that some one will see this and help me out, I am respectfully yours, MRS. A. R. C., 805 South Thirteenth Street, Council Bluffs, Ia.

P. S.—My telephone number is Red 2637. Address the Salvation Army Rescue Home, Twenty-fourth and Spalding streets. They may be able to help you.

In Korea widows never remarry. Even though they have been married only a month, they must not take a second husband.

Squeeze the juice of two lemons into a bottle containing three ounces of orchard white, shake well, and you have a quarter pint of the best freckle and tan lotion, and complexion beautifier, at very, very small cost.

Your grocer has the lemons and any drug store or toilet counter will supply three ounces of orchard white for a few cents. Massage this sweetly fragrant lotion into the face, neck, arms and hands each day and see how freckles and blemishes disappear and how clear, soft and rosy white the skin becomes. Yes! It is harmless and never irritates.—Adv.
