Favorites Fall in the Women's Western Golf

Detroit, Aug. 26.—Two favorites, Mrs. Melvin Jones, Chicago, medal-ist, and Miss Elizabeth Klotz, Chicago city champion, fell in the first round matches of the women's western golf tournament here today. Mrs. Jones was defeated by Miss Francis Hadfield, the 17-year-old Milwaukee girl, holder of the Wis-consin title, 3 and 1, while Miss Klotz was eliminated by Miss Dorothy Higbie of Chicago.

Mrs. Harnold Jackson, twice former national champion, advanced another round nearer the final by defeating Mrs. K. Duffield, Mem-phis, 3 and 2. Mrs. Jackson's 93 was the best card of the day.

Mrs. Davis Gaut of Memphis came through by defeating Mrs. T. Ellis of Chicago, 7 and 6, Mrs. Gaut is the south's only remaining contender.

The hardest fought match of the day was that between Miss J. Kinney, Cleveland, and Mrs. H. Landauer, Milwaukee, a former Wiscon-sin champion. Miss Kinney won on the 20th green after squaring the match on the 18th by winning the last three holes. Miss Madge Miller, Grand Rapids, had to go to the 19th green before defeating Mrs. W.

Mrs. F. C. Letts, jr., winner of the 1916 and 1917 western titles, reached the second round by defeating Mrs. R. P. Towner, Mem-phis, 7 and 6

TAD'S TID-BITS

Dempsey Will Not Fight Soon.

For some time we had an idea that Jack Dempsey might appear in the east against some strong young man, but now our hopes are blasted. Larney Lichtenstein, the old fight manager, is now advance man for the de luxe vaudeville show which Dempsey heads and says that Jack will be here very soon with the layout.

It's tough that New Yorkers won't have a chance to see the great Dempsey fight, but then again he may tire of the John Drew thing and start in the socking game again.

Gussie Flannagan writes in to say that he has a favorite poem.

Gussie reed bales of them, but none of them struck him like this one:

His girl is rich and bandsom.

The Irish Lead Again.

Did you know that the Irish have the upper hand in the fight game again? Yes, sir, once again! There was a time years ago when the Germans had Wolgast and Papke helping them, and later the Hebrews, with Lewis, Leonard, Attell and Al McCoy, led the race; but it's all changed again. Today the Irish lead in four classes. We have Johnny Kilbane, featherweight champion; Jack Britton, welterweight champion; Mike O'Dowd, middleweight champion, and Jack Dempsey, heavyweight champion. We almost had Joe Lynch, bantamweight champ, but Wilde sort of

Rattles Fairbury; Wins, 8-0

Wilber, Neb., Aug. 26.—(Special.)
—The Wilber Base Ball club played rings around the Fairbury aggregation last Sunday on the home grounds and beat them by the score of 8 to 0. Wilber bunted all the way and had the visitors heaving the pill all over the lot. Hubka, for the visitors, pitched good ball, but his wildness spelled defeat. The first three batters up in the first inning got hits off of Caldwell, the Wilber pitcher, but failed to score, Cald

WAS WORTH A FORTUNE TO HER SHE DECLARES

Mrs. Trinder Was Told an Operation Was Her Only Hope -Gains Twenty Pounds Since Taking Tanlac.

"I wouldn't take a fortune for the good Tanlac has done me." said Mrs. Grace E. Trinder, who lives at 511 West 33d street, Kansas City, Mo., while talking with a Tanlac representative the other years ago," continued Mrs. Trinder, and although I have been under the best of treatment, and have taken a great many different kinds of medicine, my condition grad-ually grew worse all the time. My stomach was in such bad condition that everything I ate disagreed with Golf Tournament suffer terribly with indigestion and sour stomach. I was very nervous and never knew what it was to get annual golf tournament of U. P. R. a good night's sleep. In fact, 1 finally got so weak and run down that I was miserable all the time, and was not able to do my housework at all. Then they told me that the only thing left was an operation, and that I must go to the hospital and have it done.

"Well, all arrangements had been made at the hospital for me, and I was all ready to go, and just the day before I was to leave home I saw a statement in the paper about Tanlac. The party who gave the statement seemed to have suffered just exactly as I did, and Tanlac had been a great help to him. I showed the statement to my folks, the second flight title Sunday, 3 up and persuaded them to let me put off the operation a few days, and give Tanlac a trial. They were not much in favor of it, but finally consented, and I commenced taking Tanlac that very day. Now, the first bottle of this medicine didn't seem to do me very much good, but bought the second, for I was determined to give it a fair trial, and by the time I had finished that second bottle I could see that it was helping me a whole lot. I just continued to take Tanlac, and it finally overcame my troubles completely. Why, I have actually gained twenty pounds already, and am so well and strong that I can do all my housework without the least trouble. I sleep just fine every night, and am never bothered the least bit with indigestion or any kind of stomach troubles. I will never lose an opportunity to praise Tanlac for the good it has done me.'
