Ladies' Day Double-Header, Rourke Park, Omaha vs. Sioux City, 2 P. M. Today

ROURKES DIVIDE DOUBLE-HEADER WITH SIOUX SITY

Visitors Take the First Game by Four to One Score and Locals Capture Second, Five to Four.

The Rourkes divided a double bill with the Sioux City club at Rourke park yesterday afternoon, losing a listless game and winning the second contest, which was by far a better one, though slower by a full half

Pitcher Fuhr threw a fine game in the opening contest, but practically gave it away. He held the ball on a quick throw from the catcher, when he would probably have re- homer in the 8th. tired the side by a toss to second base. Following this faux pas, the Soo bunch snaked over two runs.

Two singles, a three-bagger and a sacrifice netted them two more in the ninth inning and cinched the game for them. The locals made a valiant effort to retrieve the game in the final frame, but all they could do was make one longly pearly.

Although the turf courts were heavy as a result of the early afternoon showers. several of the contests developed tennis of a spectacular nature, the present title holder, R. Lindley Murray of Niagara Falls and former champion, R. Norris Williams, II, of Boston, figuring prominent ly in such matches.

Murray won the hardest and most Boston, Aug. 27.—Three heats were decided in the rain in the Grand Circuit races at the Readhe forced Murray to play super tennis in order to win the third 2 and decisive set after 18 games during which each man in turn wor on his service until the 17th was reached.

Mathey repeatedly gained the net and from that point of advantage was able to check most of Murray's drives and force the latter to play along the very edge of the court in order to pass him. It was not until Murray unlimbered every ounce of his smashing and serving power and speed that Mathey would concede defeat in the most spec tacular match of the day and that kept the gallery in constant rounds of applause.
