By fearing to attempt.

SUMMER days have fled and with the coming of fall many of our vacationists are returning. Estes Park seemed to be the favorite resort with Omahans, as so many took western trips. Indeed, several prominent folk spent their entire summer at this very popular spot. Yellowstone and Glacier parks also came in for their share of praise, but for some reason Estes park has won the hearts of our travelers.

Miss Esther Wilhelm, who with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Wilhelm, spent the summer in the west, returned to Omaha Thursday. Mr. and Mrs. Wilhelm will return shortly after the first of September. Miss Olga Metz, another western tourist, returned just a few days ago. Mrs. Charles Offutt and Miss Virginia returned some time ago from a trip through the west. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Garrett are others who have but recently arrived home, following an extended tour of the west.

Advice to the Lovelorn

Love Comes Unbidden and, "To Love or Not We Are No More Free Than the Ripple to Rise and Leave the Sea."

By BEATRICE FAIRFAX

Widow Wants Husband.
Dear Miss Fairfax, Omaha Bee: I am a lonely widow of 30. I have four children, am a good cook and considered good looking. I am looking for a farmer, either bachelor or widower, that has a home and who is good and kind to children. I do not like it in town and think it is no place to raise children. My children can do lots of things around the farm to help earn their living. They have always lived on the farm. If any one cares to write to me they can get my address from Miss Fairfax.

A Question.

Dear Miss Fairfax, Omaha Bee: You have answered some questions in the past for me, but I now wish to ask you some questions which I do not wish to have put in the advice column for reasons I do not like to mention now.

Will you please just put the answer in? If you will, I will be very thankful, and will write you as soon as I see this, accompanied by the answer in your advice column. Hoping to see this in print soon, I am, yours truly, BLUE EYES.

Her Mother's Home.

Dear Miss Fairfax, Omaha Bee: I am a business woman and earn a salary of $140 per month. I am engaged to marry a man who is fairly well-to-do. Do you think it is his duty to provide for my mother, who is dependent upon me, after our marriage? Would you consider it unwise to discuss the matter with him? He has said he thinks it better for young people to live alone. Sincerely, ADA.

Enlarged Pores.
Dear Miss Fairfax, Omaha Bee: I have enlarged pores on my face. Will alcohol remedy same? Thanking you for any information you can give me, I am very truly, BETTY JANE.

Witch hazel is much better than alcohol as an astringent. You should first use a good blackhead soap. This takes away all foreign matter from the pores.

Tattooing.

Dear Miss Fairfax, Omaha Bee: Where is tattooing done in Omaha? On the arms, from what I can see.

Heartbeats

By A. K.

When climbing a hill
We shift to low—
The upward pull
Is a taxing grind.
The climber gives out
In strength
And breath—
The head goes wrong
And the blood
In the body—
As water in the tank—
Boils hot
And retards the speed
Of women
Men and machine.
Peaks of mountains
Mock and laugh
At me
And you
And other climbers.
The road is steep
And narrow the track
That leads
To the phantom
"Far City
Of Heart's Desire"
Atop of some
Insurmountable peak.
We tire
And fret
And slacken our speed—
We may try over again.
But one class
Of climbers
Never grow tired
Nor weary of the battle
They climb
And climb
And keep going on "high"—
Indefatigable strugglers they—
Scheming and planning
Their "staff" aright
To gain just another
A better foothold.
They smile and wink
As they look ahead—
They frown if ever
They chance to look down
You all know them well
I know them too—
For they are
Forever among us—
Those cheerful
Tireless
"Tagged and numbered"
Persistent
Social Climbers.

ANXIOUS TO KNOW.

Webster Campbell was born in Kansas City, educated at Ann Arbor, and has worked in several pictures. I am unable to tell you whether or not he is married, but believe that Webster Campbell is his right name.

Anxious—You are a little heavy for your age, but not too tall. Your parents are very wise and you will enjoy the companionship of boy friends all the more because you waited a few years.

Wanted: A Cave Man.

Dear Miss Fairfax, Omaha Bee: I am a young girl, 18 years old, and considered quite pretty. I have been going with a young man who is very much in love with me and wants to marry me. He parts his hair in the middle, is a classy dresser and is a regular Apollo when it comes to good looks; in fact, a fellow whom any girl could be proud of.

He has a car, lots of money and is just wonderful to me.

But, somehow, his disposition is always the same; he never gets angry or shows his feelings, regardless of what happens, and I sometimes wish he would.

I have tried to make him jealous, as many people advise me, but he doesn't seem to mind it, therefore I doubt his love for me, although he has always been true to me.

Possibly I am spoiled, being an only child, but how can I test his love for me? C. E. Z.

Help! Wanted, a cave man! The "jealousy" trick is getting a bit rusty, and if your friend is meek and mild be thankful for the gift of the gods and say no more. If he loves you he will tell you, never fear, the dear man need no assistance or encouragement in that line.
