Reduce H. C. L.

Right now tomatoes are comparatively cheap—and canned goods are going up, up, up. Canned fruits, without warning jumped from 35 cents to 60 cents a can, and vegetables are their close seconds. Therefore, it behooves every housekeeper to take advantage of tomatoes, or any other vegetable in season. We give, herewith, recipes for tomato dishes:

Green Tomato Pie.

Peel enough green tomatoes to make one cupful and add one cupful of sugar, the grated rind and juice of one lemon, two crackers rolled fine, a quarter of a teaspoonful of salt, one lightly beaten egg, two tablespoonfuls of butter, a grating of nutmeg and a quarter cupful of chopped and seeded raisins. Use as a filling between two layers of pastry and bake in a quick oven.

Creole Tomatoes.

Cut in halves crosswise six large tomatoes. Place in a buttered baking dish and sprinkle over them two green peppers finely chopped, one teaspoonful of minced onion, two tablespoonfuls of oleo, cut in bits, and dust with salt and a little sugar. Let cook in the oven until tender. Lift the tomato slices on to rounds of buttered toast and add to the liquor in the dish a pinch of baking soda, one tablespoonful of browned flour blended with a tablespoonful of butter, a few drops of Worcestershire sauce and enough hot milk to make of the consistency of a good gravy. Pour over the tomatoes and toast and serve immediately.

Jellied Bouillon.

Place in a granite saucepan three cupfuls of sliced tomatoes and add two slices of onion, two stalks of parsley, four whole cloves, half a teaspoonful of salt, a rounding teaspoonful of sugar, one-quarter of a grain of cayenne (from seeds) one tablespoonful of chopped parsley and a bay leaf. Cover with a cupful of water and simmer after the vegetables begin to boil for 20 minutes. Then strain and add one ounce of gelatine, softened in half a cupful of cold water. Stir until the gelatine is dissolved and pour into a bowl. Chill on the ice and arrange by the spoonful, irregularly, in bouillon cups.

Stuffed Beef Heart

By CONSTANCE CLARKE.

Remove all the pipe from a beef heart, and fill it full with herb farce, fasten it with a needle and string, rub the heart well over with warm butter, fold it up in buttered paper, tie it securely, and bake or roast for three to four hours; then remove the paper and string, dish up on a hot dish. Garnish with parsley, and serve with mustard sauce. Herb Farce—Make a herb farce with one cup of freshly made white bread crumbs, one tablespoonful of freshly chopped herbs (parsley and thyme), one and a half ounces of finely chopped beef suet, and a little pepper and salt; mix well together with two whole eggs, and use.

Mustard Sauce—Fry two tablespoonfuls of flour and butter, or shortening together, and mix with a cup of water. Stir until it boils, add a teaspoonful of vinegar, a little pepper, a teaspoonful of thick mustard, two tablespoonfuls of cream, strain, make hot, and use.

Boiled Dressing.

Mrs. G. C. Kent, Fremont.
1/4 teaspoon salt, 2 egg yolks.
1 teaspoon dry mustard, 1/4 cup butter.
1/4 teaspoon sugar, 1/4 cup milk.
1 tablespoon flour, 1/4 cup vinegar.
Few grains red paprika.
Mix the dry materials and add the slightly beaten egg yolks. Then add the vinegar and mix well. Add the milk slowly and cook over hot water until the mixture thickens. Remove from the fire and beat in the melted butter. Strain through a fine strainer and cool.

Spanish Chicken.

Mrs. A. W. Sydney, Omaha.
1 chicken cut to stew, 1/2 green pepper
1 lb. salt pork cut in small pieces, 1 chopped fine.
1 can tomatoes, 1 onion.
Cook all together with sufficient water to cover. When chicken is tender, add one can mushrooms. Let liquor boil down and thicken with flour thinned with cream.

Launching the Baby.

We feel that we really must publish the following incident told by the Fore River "Log," a shipyard publication:

There was a man
And all his life
He worked in a shipyard,
And his wife had a baby
And it was going to be christened,
And for a week
He couldn't sleep nights
Because he was worried
For fear the minister
Would hurt the baby
When he hit it with the bottle.
