

Nonpartisans Urge Removal of Beatrice Officers at Meeting

Beatrice, Neb., Aug. 29.—(Special Telegram.)—Nearly 1,000 people attended the free speech meeting of the Nonpartisan league in Cornelius grove, near Pickrell, Friday, and a committee was appointed to confer with Governor McKelvie relative to the disturbance here a few weeks ago which resulted in the league meeting being broken up by a mob. Resolutions were passed asking Governor McKelvie to remove the mayor, chief of police, chief of the fire department and Sheriff Schiek of Beatrice for failure to put down the disturbance when called upon. The speakers at the meeting were Cecil Matthews of Blue Hill, J. L. Smith of Wahoo and E. L. Wetherley of Lincoln.

EXHIBITS WILL BE BIGGEST IN ANNALS OF FAIR

Attractive Program of Races Arranged for Omaha Day—Other Fairs to Be Held in State.

By a Staff Correspondent.

Lincoln, Aug. 29.—Everything is now ready for the big Nebraska exposition of 1919, the big Victory fair. The buildings have been finished, the streets cleared of the building material and the largest display in all lines will be on exhibit when the gates are thrown open next Monday.

"Never in my many years connection with the Nebraska State fair," said Secretary E. R. Danielson this morning, "has there been such a wonderful prospect for a big show. We had to erect 120 temporary swine pens near the swine barn to take care of the exhibit of hogs. This will be under canvas." What is true regarding swine appears in every department, according to the secretary.

Lieutenants Elliott and Short, drivers of the airplanes from which Lieutenant Locklear does his vaudeville stunts in the air, arrived this morning.

Every race has been filled but the 2:10 trot. The 2:18 trot has been moved up from Friday to Thursday in order that Omaha people who come to the fair on Omaha day may have an especially attractive bunch of races to witness.

Retail Grocers Show

Wholesale Invoices at State Food Probe

Lincoln, Aug. 29.—Retail grocers of the city appeared at the state food probe, Friday, loaded down with invoices of goods purchased of Grainger Bros. and Stacey Bros., which showed that for the past three years prices on goods sold to retailers by both of these firms were identically the same. The prices were identical in most instances down to the fraction of a cent.

Those who testified were H. L. Dalton, J. W. Moore, W. J. Byer and George Bauer. Byer said that he occasionally purchased goods from a small firm known as Demma Bros. which purchased its goods partly in Omaha, but they were unable to furnish goods he wanted all the time. Mr. Byer said that he had purchased oranges on one day of Demma Bros. at $6.40 a crate. Grainger and Stacey's price was $7. Grocers testified that they tried to do business on a gross profit of 25 per cent on the selling price.

House Refused Copy of Report in Mooney Case

Washington, Aug. 29.—On the ground that publication of such information would be incompatible with the public interest, Secretary Wilson today refused to furnish the house a report on the present activities of the labor department in the case of Thomas J. Mooney, who is serving a life sentence after conviction in connection with the preparedness day bomb explosion in San Francisco in 1916. The report was requested in a resolution offered by Representative Blanton, democrat, Texas.

In reply to a question about department activities since Mooney's sentence was commuted to life imprisonment, the secretary said investigations of alien anarchists "have developed clues that lead to the Mooney case," and that these inquiries were being continued. He refused, however, to disclose the information thus far obtained.
