

The Sun

The Muse

The World Realty Company, owners of the Sun and Muse Theaters submits for the Publics approval their newest—The MOON Theater.

HARGBACH

SUN

TAKES PLEASURE IN PRESENTING for One Week
The Incomparable
Nazimova
in
The triumph of her screen career
The Brat

A picture that is absolutely different. Adapted from Maude Fulton's sensational stage success and presented in seven bubbling acts.

—ADMISSION PRICES—
Children—Balcony . . . 15¢
Main Floor . . . . . 25¢
Lodges . . . . . 35¢

NORDIN'S SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA

TODAY
MONDAY
TUESDAY
WEDNESDAY

Sessie Hayakawa
in
The "GRAY HORIZON"
MOON

Betrayed and deserted by an American husband, the frail Japanese maiden came to her brother in America for solace and help.

The young Japanese artist squared things by oriental code, but when it came to the ultimate settlement he accepted guilt without flinching because the evidence which would save him would cause a woman sorrow.

ANY SEAT
15¢
ANY TIME

MUSE

7 DAYS STARTING Today

Turn 'er over
Throw 'er into high and
LET'S GO!

BETTER TIMES

Greets you here this week. "Better Times" is one of those "better pictures" you hear about, but seldom encounter. As sweet and sunny as an old-fashioned garden—a drama of Optimism, full of rural comedy and pathos that makes you chuckle rather than laugh and after you've seen it you don't think life is just one d— thing after another, but brimfull of fun and "better times."

BY SPECIAL ARRANGEMENT WITH THE OMAHA CHAMBER OF COMMERCE.
"OMAHA BOOSTER MOVIE"

Taken on the last trade excursion trip through Western Nebraska, Colorado, Wyoming, Montana and South Dakota. Pictures of Omaha's big fellows putting it over big, and convincing the rest of the country that Omaha is the only real city on the map.
Don't miss it—Only and Exclusive showing in Omaha.

Robert Cusaden and His Concert Five Every Afternoon and Evening.
Prices—Balcony, 15¢; Main Floor, 25¢; Lodges, 35¢.