Bishop Brent of Buffalo, formerly of of the missionaries and asked that if anybody is to be officially blamed, let him be blamed.

The three priests or fathers threaten to leave their posts if they are not permitted to have their way, and the low church people at home ask why they do not obey the laws of their church and stick to their work. The official board of missions must decide, but it is made up in part of bishops who, in their own dioceses, permit the same teaching complained of in the Philippines, for example, in Boston, New York, Philadelphia, Chicago, Fond du Lac. It is said that something of the same unrest found in political and labor worlds obtains in the Episcopal and perhaps some other hurches, and it is known that the piscopal high church leaders are ringing forward at this time almost all of their pet propositions and demanding decisions.
