

PERSECUTION OF PERRUCCELLOS IS CONTINUED

Detectives Thestrup and Herdzina Call at Home to Arrest Woman, But Get "Cold Feet."

Mrs. Tony Perruccello, who was assaulted in her home, 804 Pierce street, July 6, by Detective Thestrup and Herdzina and who was forced to see her husband beaten and her 14-year-old boy felled with a club by the same policemen, is being subjected to further persecution and indignities at the hands of these two officers.

Thestrup and Herdzina called at the Perruccello residence Friday to arrest the woman on an old charge of resisting an officer, which Prosecutor Murray weeks ago moved to have thrown out of court.

Thestrup and Herdzina, however, are said to have weakened when they got to the house. Although they were invited in to serve the warrant, for some reason they were unwilling to cross the threshold of the home they invaded six weeks ago. They failed to return to the station with their prisoner.

John F. Moriarty, Mrs. Perruccello's attorney, appeared in police court yesterday, denounced the high handed methods of persecution employed by Detectives Thestrup and Herdzina and furnished an appearance bond for his client.

"This is the most disgraceful thing I ever heard of," declared the attorney. "These law-ignorant detectives are being sued for their brutal behavior in this woman's home last July, and this is their plan to intimidate her. It is a disgrace to the entire community."

Dragged from Sick Bed.

Mrs. Perruccello was dragged from a sick bed by Thestrup and Herdzina and severely injured, she charges when the officers came to her home to arrest her husband on a charge of selling liquor.

The Perruccellos were dismissed on charges of bootlegging in police court. Later suit was filed against the detectives and Mayor Smith and Commissioner Ringer endorsed a proposition to collect from the other individual members of the police department enough money to pay Thestrup's and Herdzina's attorney fees and court costs. Many of the policemen have refused point blank to contribute to such a fund. Others have donated out of fear that they would be discharged in the event they incurred the disfavor of the police commissioner.

George Brandeis Treasurer
Of Drive for War Sufferers

George Brandeis and W. L. Holzman are announced as additional officers of the organization for the Nebraska campaign for the relief of Jewish war sufferers abroad.

Mr. Brandeis is to be treasurer of both the Omaha local committee and the Nebraska state committee. Mr. Holzman is to head the campaign among the Omaha Jews. Organization of the non-Jewish committee, to direct the nonsectarian campaign among Nebraskans of all creeds, has not been completed.

The drive is for $400,000 and is to be during the week of September 15 to 22.

Thirty Motorists Face
Judge in Police Court

Thirty persons were arraigned in police court yesterday for violation of the parking ordinance, the use of glaring headlights, and speeding. Sixteen violators of the parking ordinance were discharged, and 12 were fined $1 and costs for glaring headlights. Two were fined for speeding.

Most of the arrests were made by the four special officers working out of the parks. They have been ordered to arrest all persons violating the auto laws.

Check Forger Held

A man giving his name as Roy Young, Kansas City, Mo., was arrested yesterday by Detective Larry Finn, when he tried to pass a forged check for $15 on the Brandeis Stores bank. The name of Guy L. Smith, automobile man, had been endorsed on the check. In a written confession to Detective Finn, Young said he "didn't know what to do in life, so he made out the check."

Resume Ticket Sale

Tickets to Los Angeles and other points in California affected by the recent railroad strike may again be purchased at the consolidated ticket office in the Union Pacific headquarters building. During the past week no tickets were sold to these points due to the uncertain condition of transportation, and as a result there were a large number of people on hand yesterday to secure transportation.

ARRESTS 2 OF HIS EX-FRIENDS WHO SIGNED RECALL

Detective Paul Sutton Reprimanded by Judge for His Actions.

In his efforts to rid the city of signers of the petition for the recall of Mayor Smith and City Commissioners Ringer, Ure and Towl, Paul Sutton, newly appointed head of the day morals squad, Sunday afternoon arrested two of his former friends, pals of his for 26 years. The two men, Dave J. Yousen, electrician, 2765 Cumming street, and Daniel McNeal, 2519 St. Mary's avenue, were booked at the station for vagrancy.

"I'll get you signers out of town if it takes me a year," Sutton is said to have yelled at his former pals. Yesterday morning in police court, Police Judge Fitzgerald reprimanded Sutton. The case was set over for a week.

Mr. Yousen and Mr. McNeal sought the aid of attorneys in attempting to refrain Sutton and his squad from molesting them. "I don't know what's got into that fellow's head," Mr. McNeal said in regard to Sutton's action against them. "He's lived next to me for 15 years, and just because I signed the recall petition, he says he wants to run me out of town."

Mr. Yousen and Mr. McNeal are both established in the electrical business on Cumming street.

Crashes Into Car Headlight

Theodore Graham, 23 years old, living at the Dietz club; Carter lake, cut an artery on his left wrist when, according to eyewitnesses, he bumped into the headlight of an automobile driven by M. Alpine, 402 North Twenty-second street, at the intersection of Fourteenth and Farnam streets.

Graham is said to have walked through the space between two standing automobiles into Alpine's car. His body was thrown on top of the radiator of the machine, while his hand and wrist crashed through the headlight. He was taken to Central police station and his injuries dressed.
