Cattle-Receipts were 8.500 head, not a very liberal run for Wednesday. Corn-feds were slow at unevenly lower prices; a few choice yearlings at $17.75@18.25, were about steady, but heavy cattle were hard to sell at declines of 25c or more. Butcher stock continues in good demand and sold strong to a little higher again this morning. Feeders which closed lower than yesterday were slow to weak again today and have more than lost Monday's advance. Very little destrable western beef was here, and while the trade was a little slow years looked fully steady will little slow, values looked fully steady with yesterday.

Sheep—Today's receipts of sheep and lambs were estimated at 32.909 head but two or three train loads were late in getting in and supplies of good killers on the early market was limited. A responsive demand from packers featured the trade from the start and most of the good fat lambs sold at higher figsures, best grades brought $14.00@14.25 and better indicating an advance of 25@ 50c. Fat sheep ruled generally steady, good ewes moving around $7.59 with wethers claiming a limit of about $9.00. Feeder trade is still giving a good account of itself, prices paid this morning were relatively strong and desirable black face feeders sold readily around $13.75 @14.00, medium grades of feeder lambs are bringing $12.75@13.25.

GRAIN MARKET

Omaha Grain.

Omaha, Sept. 3, 1919.

Receipts of wheat today were moderately liberal, corn fair and osts light.

Arrivals of wheat were 174 cars, corn 50 cars and osts, 24 cars.

One of the stock exchange today ran mainly to specialities under control of powerful speculative interests, half a score of these contributing extensively to the very active and sensational operations of the session.
