We are such stuff
As dreams are made on; and our little life
Is rounded with a sleep.
—Shakespeare.

Now the New Year reviving old Desires,
The thoughtful Soul to Solitude retires,
Where the White Hand of Moses on the Bough
Puts out, and Jesus from the ground ascends.

TRUE!—every word of it!

"I know it is, because I have tried it! If you are suffering—as I did—with a skin-trouble that itches and burns like mad, and is so unsightly that you dread to be seen; if you are trying—as I did—treatment after treatment without real help, then you can imagine how I felt when Resinol gave me instant relief and soon healed the eruption completely. My doctor prescribed it.

September Wedding.

The marriage of Miss Irene Palmquist, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Palmquist, and Mr. Ralph Lundahl of Madrid, Ia., took place Wednesday evening at the home of the bride's parents. The Rev. Theodore Lorimer officiated and the ceremony will be performed before a bank of palms and gladioli. Dorothy Fisher, the ringbearer, will wear a frock of white. Miss Amy Palmquist, sister of the bride, wore a frock of white. Miss Amy Palmquist, sister of the bride, and her only attendant, was gowned in pink georgette and carried an arm bouquet of pink roses. The bride was attractively gowned in embroidered and beaded georgette over white satin. Her veil was made in cap effect and she carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses and sweet peas.

Mr. Walter Lundahl of Madrid, Ia., brother of the bridegroom, acted as best man. Following the ceremony a reception was held for the relatives and friends of the young couple. Mr. Lundahl and his bride will motor westward on their honeymoon trip. They will be at home after November 1 at Madrid.

Luncheon Parties.
Miss Elizabeth Robertson entertained at a delightful luncheon party at the Athletic club Wednesday. Miss Esther McMann of Washington, D. C., who is visiting Miss Willow O'Brien, was the honoree. Purple asters and pink roses formed the centerpiece for this attractive table. Covers were laid for Mrs. T. H. Maenner, Misses Catherine Hastings, Dorothy Balbach, Willow O'Brien and Catherine Goss. Miss Dorothy Judson will entertain at luncheon at her home Thursday for Miss McMann.

Bridal Dinner.
Mrs. J. Frank Carpenter entertained at a bridal dinner at her home Wednesday evening, in honor of her daughter, Miss Marion Carpenter, and Mr. Marvin L. Frederick of Elkhart, Ind., whose marriage will take place Thursday. The dinner was followed by a rehearsal. The guests included the members of the bridal party and a few intimate friends.

Echo Etiquette.
"What do you mean by the expression in your story 'as sociable as an echo'?"
"Why, an echo, you know, always returns your call."—Boston Transcript.

Lift off Corns!

Doesn't hurt a bit and Freezezone costs only a few cents.

With your fingers! You can lift off any hard corn, soft corn, or corn between the toes, and the hard skin calluses from bottom of feet. A tiny bottle of "Freezone" costs little at any drug store; apply a few drops upon the corn or callus. Instantly it stops hurting, then shortly you lift that bothersome corn or callus right off, root and all, without one bit of pain or soreness. Truly! No humbug!—Adv.

Italian Women to Sail for U. S. as Workers

Port work for Italian women emigrating to the United States is one of the latest developments in work overseas.

Large numbers of Italian women are emigrating to the United States. Some of them have recently married American soldiers in Italy. Others are the wives of Italian men who have been in this country working for some time and who have fought in American armies during the world war. These women and their children are now coming over to join their husbands.

These Italian wives of American soldiers are being transported by the United States government. They sail from Naples and Genoa. According to the American Y. W. C. A. has taken over a large hotel in one of the central squares in Genoa which serves as a hostess house, as a home for industrial girls in the city and as a general recreation center for women. Information about America is given to the brides and they are given all possible help and assistance while waiting for the transport which is to take them to their new homes. The same sort of work has opened in Naples. It is modeled after the work for French and English brides.

In addition to the port work, there has been opened a summer camp in the Tuscan hills, just outside of Florence, where anaemic girls may go for summer vacations. Many of the girls in the camp have not had a summer vacation in the country since 1914. They have been underfed and have not had proper living conditions at any time during the war.

Recreation centers for industrial girls have been opened in Rome, Naples, Florence, Bologna, Venice, Genoa, Spezia, Palermo and Trieste. The center in Rome has as its headquarters the Gould house, which was presented to the association some time ago, but which had not been operated for several years because of lack of funds.

Headquarters of the Y. W. C. A. in Italy are in Genoa. Miss Lillian Hull, formerly in charge of the community house at Camp Sherman, Chillicothe, O., is director.

Esquimo women and children catch most of the birds and fish to be stored away for six months' winter food supply, while the men hunt walrus and polar bear.

Field Club

Mrs. David Cole entertained 16 guests at luncheon Wednesday at the Field club in honor of her visitor, Mrs. James Wilson of Buffalo, N. Y.

Bucholz-Towle.
The marriage of Miss Naomi Towle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Webster Towle, and Mr. Frederick Bucholz, son of Mrs. W. H. Bucholz took place Wednesday evening at the home of the bride's parents. This date was the silver wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Towle.

Following the ceremony there was a wedding supper and a reception. Only relatives and intimate friends were invited.

Miss Marion Towle, sister of the bride, and Mr. Arden Bucholz, brother of the groom, were the only attendants. Mr. John Caldwell and Mr. Robert Byrne acted as ushers. Mr. Bucholz and his bride will motor west on their honeymoon trip.

Distance Lends Safety.

Mr. McJones was driving through the country trying to buy a mule. He was directed to a colored man who had one for sale.
"Do you want to sell a mule?" asked Mr. McJones.
"Yaas, sah," replied the owner.
"May I ask where you live, sah?"
"What has that got to do with it?" queried McJones.
"Well," explained the negro, "I ain't gwine ter transfer dat mule to nobody dat lives less dan 200 miles away from here. When I sells dat mule I wants to get rid not only of de mule, but of all conversation appertaining to him."—Harper's Magazine.

Happy Hollow

Miss Marguerite Fallon will entertain a number of the school set at luncheon and the maine dance Thursday at the Happy Hollow club.

Many parties will be given for the children's matinee dance at Happy Hollow club Thursday afternoon. Mrs. R. B. Weller will have a party of 30 guests, Mrs. R. C. Peters will have 20 and Mrs. W. D. Dox five.

Country Club

F. W. Clarke had eight guests at dinner Wednesday evening at the Country club.

Wedding Plans.
The autumn rather than Juneteime seems to have won the approval of our pretty maids for wedding days as the fall brides are to be so very many. Miss Arline McCreary, who is betrothed to Mr. Clarence Heider, has set the date of her nuptials for September 22. The ceremony will take place at the Sacred Heart church. No other plans for the marriage have been made.

D. T. A. Club.

The D. T. A. unit of the war camp community service will hold the regular meeting and club supper at the Girls' Community house, Thursday evening, September 4. They will entertain the Joan of Arc club and Lafayette club during the evening. Those taking part in the program will be Blanche Holman, Bessie Rhyno, Edna Kahre, Harry Getrost and Vlasta Sterba.

Heartbeats

By A. K.

The crowds!
I hate them!
Dirty
Sweating
Panting
Puffing
Crowds—
Vulgar and ignorant—
Selfish and sensual—
Bleary-eyed monsters
In coarse human form.
Crowding
Pushing
Coughing
Spitting
Reptiles
Sneaking and snake-like.
Blustering hotspots—
Gouging and glaring
Madcaps in flesh.
How the very
Sight of them
Wholly unnerves me—
Riles me to tears.
Their voices
Their harshness
Their lewdness
Their repulsiveness
Irritates and maddens me
To paroxysms of "nerves"
And yet—
There are so many
Dear
Wholesome
Calm
Lovely souls—
Dainty and refined—
Intelligent—
Generous and smart
Rare spirits
Among us
That I sometimes wonder
From whence come the crowds.
My friends I can count
By dozens or more
Who are unique and clever
With sympathetic senses—
Such charming individuals
That I cannot
Reconcile myself
(When hating the crowds)
With God's finely laid plan
After all
Who am I
And my friends
But a part—a small part
Of this crowd.

SELAH!

Heart of the Countless Years

By ARLEEN HACKETT.

Heart of the countless years
That gave a faintest throbb
When the world first drew breath,
Swelling as life grew strong,
Catching and marking beat;
Timed to the wondrous whole,
Rhythm on rhythm sweet,
Marvel on marvel stole—
Till out of thought Divine,
Clear in the dawn's soft light,
Agh on a foam-capped wave—
Shimmering radiant,
All of the rainbow's hue,
Wang of the salt, salt sea—
Man in Your image grew,
Man by Your love made free.

Love that included all—
Me with his brother man
Walked o'er the earth in peace,
Sorrow he did not know,
Cain was a myth as well,
Good were his thoughts and deeds
What was it broke the spell,
Why came the hates and creeds?

Is it through some mistake,
Is it for wrongs we did
Back in the Shadow Time,
Muddled the memory so,
That we lie now in tears,
Aching and bleeding, oh—
Heart of the countless years?

At The Blackstone.
Mrs. Jules Dan entertained at cards at the Blackstone Thursday evening followed by supper. Twenty guests were included in the party.
Mrs. H. L. Helfrich will entertain a party of 24 guests at dinner Thursday evening.

Personals

Mrs. O. M. Smith has returned from Chicago, accompanied by her son, Robert, who has been attending a boys' camp in Wisconsin.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Rosenblum returned Sunday from a trip through Iowa. They spent two weeks at Lake Okoboji.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Warren arrived Tuesday evening from Kansas City.

Mrs. J. J. Brown has taken an apartment at the Blackstone.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Stewart have returned from Wyoming, where they spent the summer.

They were accompanied on their return by Mrs. James Wilson of Buffalo, N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Fallon and daughter, Marguerite, have returned from a motor trip to Lake Okoboji.

Dancing Party.

With the passing of the summer days, the informal parties which have been so much in vogue are ending and the formal party will again be in vogue. One very large affair for the school set has been planned by one of the charming maids who is leaving in the near future for an eastern school. Invitations have been issued by Miss Ruth Hamilton for a large dancing party to be given September 13 at the Blackstone. It will be formal and will be the first affair of its kind this autumn. Fifty couples will attend. Many other formal affairs have been planned by members of the school set, but as yet no dates have been decided upon.

Table Doilies.

Doilies for the breakfast table are made of plain linen simply scalloped with white cotton and marked with a single initial or with three initials in blue. When the three initials are used the center one is twice as large as the others and the three are arranged, with the addition of small embroidered triangles, in the form of a diamond.

Gasoline will effectually exterminate vermin from beds and couches if applied with a small brush to every crack and crevice of the bed and surrounding wood work. If this is done immediately after breakfast there will be no offensive odor by bed time.

Miss Mayme Hutchinson, who has been spending the summer in Quebec, Bretton Woods and Maine, has returned.

When purchasing bacon select that with a thin rind. The fat should be of a pinkish white.

Mr. Randall K. Brown, who is in the east will return Thursday.

Ethel Clayton's Beautiful Complexion

That splendid actress now appearing under the Paramount banner is famous for her beautiful complexion. She attributes her wonderful skin to the use of a simple toilet article called Derwillo. There is nothing like it for tan, freckles, shiny nose, sallowness, dark, rough skin. It takes the place of face powder, stays on better, as perspiration does not affect it, and it instantly beautifies the complexion. One application proves it. If you want a nice lily-white skin with rosy cheeks get a bottle of Derwillo today. It is sold at all up-to-date toilet counters. Miss Clayton's soon to appear in this paper. It tells how to instantly have a beautiful complexion and a lovely, white, velvety skin everyone "just loves" to touch.—Advertisement.
