OILERS BAT TWO OMAHA PITCHERS HARD AND WIN

Knock Townsend Off Mound in Couple of Innings and Kopp Some Rough Treatmet.

Tulsa, Okl., Sept. 4.—(Special Telegram.)—Hard luck that trailed Bill Jackson's Omaha aggregation the season did not desert them when they ran into the Tulsa Oilers at McNully park this afternoon. It was just their luck to find the oilers apparently recorded from a batting apparently recorded from a batting standpoint and Joe Bennet feeling right, as they were forced to take the consolation end of an 8 to 2

Just a little more caution in the closing round would have given Bennett a shutout. But with the bases loaded through a single, a base on balls and a hit batsman, he by Mr. Umpire Dailey, exceedingly rough. They drove Mr. Townsend to the shower in the second inning after scoring once in the first and thrice in the second, and then, after fooling along with Mr. Kopp's offerings for three resultless rounds, they battered him hard in the sixth, five hits, assisted by a wild pitch, and an error result in three markers. They eased up somewhat in the seventh and then gave him a farewell salute in the eighth, which produced Tulsa's eighth tally.

Game From Joplin Miners

Wednesday night by the court house aggregation with the barbers as opponents. By means of heavy coaching and unsually fantastic gestures in attempting to hit the ball and aided by unusually good luck, the court house employes succeeded in combing the tonsorial artists to the tune of 5 to 1. Both factions are going around town with blood in their eyes and the citizens of Wahoo are promised a ball game in the near future that will be full of thrills from start to finish.

President Johnson on Witness Stand in Pitcher Mays Case

New York, Sept. 4.—Efforts to ascertain whether Ban Johnson, president of the American league, knew that Pitcher Carl Mays had been traded by the Boston cl..b to New York when he ordered his suspension as "disciplinary action," failed at the hearing before trial of the New York club's suit against Johnson for damages alleged to have been suffered because of the Mays

September 11, to which date adjournment was taken. Col. Jacob Ruppert and Col. T. L. Huston of the New York club attended the examination of Johnson.

Control of the American league is said to depend on the result of Johnson's trial, and the hearing today was regarded as the opening gun in the battle for supremacy between club owners and Johnson.

Johnson was asked more than 100 questions touching on his knowledge of Mays' conduct while with the Boston club and the action Johnson took regarding it. His first knowledge of Mays' "desertion of the Boston club" was a verbal reby the umpire, he said. He said that he waited for the Boston club to suspend Mays, "as primary jurisdiction was vested in the local club," but stated he had no intention at that time of suspending Mays if Boston did not do so.

Johnson admitted that he issued the order suspending Mays two days after the New York club had acquired the pitcher, adding that he "notified Mr. Barrow, manager of
