War Camp

The carnival picnic and dance held at Fort Omaha Labor day, September 1, was a huge success. Those attending reported an excellent time. The organizations assisting were the Knights of Columbus, the Y. M. C. A., the War Camp Community Service, with the co-operation of the commanding officers of both forts. Special stunts were featured both afternoon and evening. During the ball game between Fort Omaha and Fort Crook Farmer Cortantassel and family, Mr. Fisher being the farmer; Miss Emily Lear, Mrs. Cortantassel; Kennedy as Susie Cortantassel; Miss Delma Meek as Mary Jane Cortantassel; the two boys, Johnny and Jimmy, Sergeant Mansfield, and Mr. Mahoney, added much amusement to the game. The two comedians, Sergeant Leuper and Mr. Squires, and Miss Loretta Ryan as Dinah, were exceptionally clever. Following the ball game came the famous Russian tumbler, Mr. Worley and Mr. Rodewald of Fort Omaha. The three-legged race was run by Miss Edna Kahre, Miss Frances Rohnen, Miss Eleanor Lear, Miss Eleanor O'Toole and Miss Rosemary Antin. Supper was served army style at 6 p. m. to 500 people, mothers of the Community Service league girls assisting. Wines and coffee were served piping hot from the army field kitchen, men from Fort Omaha in charge. A boxing match was staged just before the dance, with Mr. C. E. Levings, director of Army and Navy club, as referee. When one of the boxers was knocked out Dr. J. Morley Young was called to administer a hypodermic and to perform an operation to save the patient's life. The incision was made with a carving knife and meat saw, after which a string of a dozen weinies were removed from his anatomy. This operation proved very successful, the patient recovering fully. The officers in charge had stretched tarpaulin over the tennis courts for the dance in the evening, the courts being lighted with Japanese lanterns. Miss Mary Kane of the Bent Hur dancing academy entertained with a "buck and wing" solo dance, and a bear dance by Dorabee Jones of War Camp Community Service, and Mr. Rabe of Fort Omaha. Music during the afternoon and evening was furnished by the Fort Crook military band. Lieutenant and Mrs. Hall of Fort Omaha had charge of all the stunts and helped to make the day a success. The D. T. A. club was hostess at a party at the Girls' Community House Thursday evening, September 4, when they had as their guests members of the Lafayette and Joan of Arc clubs. Six o'clock supper was served and an excellent program under the direction of Miss Polly Rhyho, president of the D. T. A. club, followed. Those contributing to the evening entertainment were Miss Vlasta Sterba, director of municipal playground, giving a gypsy dance in costume, accompanied by Mrs. Charles Thimes at the piano. A reading by Miss Edna Kahre, a vocal solo by Miss Blanche Rhyho, a reading by Miss Blanche Holman, a clarinet solo by Mr. Howard Gestrot. Mrs. Reno Stevens, director of girls' work, War Camp Community Service, gave a short talk on the spirit of community service. Mrs. Ethel Wallace, hostess of the Girls' Community House, was hostess for the musical numbers. The later part of the evening was given over to games and dancing and general jollification. Invitations have been issued for get-together evening at the Girls' Community House Wednesday, September 17, girls' division of the War Camp Community Service. Miss Lucile Craven and Miss Alta Smith, members of the Joan of Arc unit of Community Service league are spending their vacation in Denver, Salt Lake City and other points of interest in the west. Cards received from them indicate that they have been entertained in several instances by ex-servicemen who were entertained at the Army and Navy club in Omaha while their troops were passing through on their way to demobilization points. Mr. E. C. Thomas, assistant community organizer of the War Camp Community Service, together with his family, Mrs. Thomas and Hazel, are spending a vacation in Illinois. Miss Mary English, president of the Joan of Arc club, is spending several weeks in Casper, Wyo. Tuesday evening, September 2, was the regular meeting of the Lafayette club. They were entertained at the home of Misses Helen and Elizabeth Snow, 4188 Pratt street. Roasting wienies and corn over a bonfire was very much enjoyed by all. After the picnic supper the club was entertained at the Snow home the remaining part of the evening. Miss Ruth Thomsett, adviser for the General Pershing unit, has returned from Madison, Wis., where she has taken special work in the university at that place during the summer. We are very glad to welcome her back into the War Camp Community Service circle. Read "Hunkins" in the Saturday Evening Post, it sounds like the American Legion, headquarters, Army and Navy club, Seventeenth and Howard streets. The Woolco club held their regular meeting and picnic supper at Elmwood park, Friday, September 5. The usual noon hour sing was held by the Byrne & Hammer factory girls Tuesday, September 2. The State Fair is now over and the thousands of people who saw our dental exhibit were highly pleased and will not forget this opportunity of seeing something unusual in dentistry. Our Pyorrhea chewing gum took so well with the public that we realize the great demand and will have it available at all drug stores at an early date. This is a late marvel for the good of humanity. "Cutting the Cost of Dentistry" (Article One)

People who are interested in securing satisfactory dental service at prices they can afford to pay, should first of all consider how much of the blame for high prices is due to themselves. Dentists must live; they have only their time and skill to sell—they charge for BOTH—bear this in mind. When you visit your dentist, be on time; don't waste THE TIME YOU ARE PAYING FOR in conversation. Buy his SERVICE, not his SOCIETY. If you want to cut down your dental bill, do your part. Our system of appointments insures you a sitting promptly at the appointed hour, and the operator of your choice at each sitting.
