

PERFECT LOVER CONTEST WILL CLOSE TUESDAY

Winners of Prizes Will Be Announced Wednesday; Editor Swamped With Love Descriptions.

The Perfect Lover contest being conducted by The Bee will end Tuesday. Winners of the various prizes which are offered for the best description of the perfect lover, will be announced Wednesday. To the three individuals who best describe what they believe to be the perfect lover will be apportioned $20. An autographed photograph of Eugene O'Brien, the supreme lover of filmdom, and tickets to the Strand theater are among the prizes offered for the next best description of the perfect lover.

Traveling Salesmen

Raymond B. Wixson

Raymond B. Wixson, traveling salesman for the Carpenter Paper company, is one of the biggest men his firm has and his business does not restrict itself to sales accounts, but manifests itself physically. Mr. Wixson is a six-footer and then some. Besides his long legs he has a long nose—for an order, his friends say. He is the tallest and thinnest salesman who carries the Square Brand papers and can detect an order a day off. Northern Kansas, eastern Colorado and southern Nebraska are his fields.

Wilson to Talk Here at 10 O'Clock Today

(Continued From Page One.) organizations will be represented on the stage: Omaha chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, Colonial Dames, Daughters of 1812, Relief corps of the Grand Army of the Republic, War Mothers of America, American War Mothers, Spanish War Veterans, War Camp Community Service, Knights of Columbus, Salvation Army, Young Men's Christian association, Young Women's Christian association, Jewish Welfare society, American Legion, Order of the Golden Star.

Efforts were made yesterday to obtain a bouquet of orchids, Mrs. Wilson's favorite flower. Sixth City on Tour. Omaha is the sixth city on President Wilson's itinerary of the states west of the Mississippi river. The president will explain why he is urging ratification of the league of nations covenant and the peace treaty.

Police Hold Man as Suspect in Lincoln Depot Robbery Case

Twelve hours after two masked negroes held up and robbed the ticket agent of the Rock Island station at Lincoln, Omaha detectives arrested a man giving his name as Herbert Atkinson, Milan, Tenn., at the Union station under suspicion of having been one of the highwaymen. Atkinson bore the identical description given of the robbers, police say.

Burglars Split on Dry Law, But the 'Wets' Predominate

Cleveland, O., Sept. 7.—Not even the burglars are unanimous on this prohibition question. 'Wet' burglars stole 16 cases of whisky from John Gilske. 'Dry' gentlemen of the same craft stole two cases of grape juice from a neighboring grocery store.

BATTLE IN CELL ENDS IN DEATH OF TWO PERSONS

Officer and Inmate of Illinois State Reformatory Killed and Three More Suffer Wounds.

(Continued on Page Two, Column One.) from which they apparently hoped to drop outside the reformatory grounds, but were discovered by another officer and they then descended to the grounds again and in the shooting which followed Kelly was killed and Frederick wounded. Before leaving the cell house after killing Officer Kruger, the pair had taken Hancock's keys and released a prisoner by the name of Burns, who attempted to escape with them. Burns, however, was unarmed and soon surrendered. The men were attempting to return to the cell house when Kelly was killed. Frederick, wounded, fled back to his cell, according to Superintendent Scouter and was found there a short time later.

Bathing Girls Must Wear More Clothes Or Show Will Close

General Superintendent Weirich, of the Board of Public Welfare yesterday ordered the closing of the performance of the Mack Bennett bathing girls show at the Brandeis theater unless the principals appeared in fleshings, according to an announcement made at the theater last night by Fred Newell, studio director of the company from Los Angeles.

To Suspend Officers If Held for Trials

(Continued From Page One.) commissioner and the chief repeatedly refused to make a statement in regard to the affair for public consumption. Ignoring the universal public demand for assurance from the city hall that Armstrong and Brigham would be punished in the event their guilt is established, both Commissioner Ringer and Chief Eberstein treated with silent contempt every effort to get them to promise that justice would be meted out to the two officers.

Will Defend Police

Ringer and Eberstein have indicated they would go to the very extreme to defend Armstrong and Brigham. Every possible effort was made to prevail on County Attorney Showell not to file complaints against the detectives. Elmer Thomas, hired press agent and spokesman for the city administration, was delegated to represent the interests of the accused officers at the inquest. Attorney Thomas sat within whispering distance of Detective Paul Sutton while the latter testified at the coroner's inquest. But Mr. Thomas failed to wield any influence. The county attorney conducted the hearing himself and the next day announced that he believed Armstrong and Brigham were guilty.

American Legion Plans Membership of Million

New York, Sept. 7.—A national campaign to increase its membership to 1,000,000 veterans of the great war was announced today by the American Legion. The campaign will begin September 15 and last six days.

DISMISSAL OF SNEAD OPPOSED BY LABOR HEADS

Postal Clerk Discharged for Alleged Radical Activities During Strike of Teamsters.

Labor leaders of this city are incensed at the action of the federal government in dismissing from the service A. C. Snead, postal clerk, for alleged radical activities among the organized postal employees of Omaha.

Snead was notified by Assistant Postmaster General Koons Saturday that his services would no longer be required. He was in Washington in the interests of the local postal employees when he was notified of the decision of the Postoffice department. Radical statements attributed to Snead during the recent teamster's strike in this city made him unfit longer to hold a position with the department, in the opinion of the assistant postmaster general. He is also charged with having actively aided the teamsters in their strike, in violation of the rules of the postal department.

Woman Dies of Kicks

Edinburgh, September 7.—William Lamb, an armless man, is held on a charge of kicking Agnes White to death. A woman's hair, similar to that of the murdered woman, was found sticking to boots worn by Lamb. There has been found a hook identical with others on the deceased's skirt, and the hook is reported to have been discovered embedded in the lower part of Lamb's trousers.

Divorce Courts

Marie Brandes alleges, in a petition for divorce filed in district court that her husband, Rudolph, refused to support her and that she was compelled to work to support herself and child. She says he was jealous. She asks for the custody of the child.

Mary Barnson sued Julius Barnson in district court for a divorce on the ground of non-support.

Ben Ferra, in a petition for a divorce from Gladys Ferra, says he married her shortly before he went into the army in 1917, but that since his return she refuses to live with him, but insists on living with her parents. He says he is willing to provide for their child if he is granted a divorce.

Louise Christian says, in a petition for a divorce filed in district court, that her husband, Edward Christian, did not support her properly, though he earns $250 a month as a salesman. She says she was forced to secure employment as a saleswoman. She asks for alimony.

Maude Conwell charges her husband, Frank Conwell, with nonsupport in a petition for divorce filed in district court. She asks for the custody of their child.

Helen Holcomb sued her husband, Algeron, for a divorce in district court on the charge of nonsupport. They were married in 1908. She asks for alimony.

The plea of Jacob Kurtz that his wife, Mary, return to him did not move her, he alleges in a petition for divorce filed in district court. He says she left him in August, 1914, three years after their marriage. He declares he went to see her on a farm near Sheridan, Wyo., and begged her to return, but she would not.

SENATE BEGINS TREATY FIGHT DURING WEEK

Investigation of Mexican Affairs Will Start in Committee Today, But H. C. L. Not Yet.

Washington, Sept. 7.—Transfer of the peace treaty from the foreign relations committee to the senate as the final step toward ratification will be the principal event this week in congress. Chairman Lodge of the foreign relations committee is expected to report the treaty with recommended amendments and reservations Wednesday and thereafter the treaty is expected to have exclusive right of way on the senate floor.

Filing of majority and minority reports of the foreign relations committee on the treaty by Chairman Lodge and Senator Hitchcock, democrat, Nebraska, respectively, will be the opening formality in the actual senate consideration of the treaty. The reports will be brought in in open executive session. The treaty is to be considered and voted upon article by article. Initial controversies will come on amendments proposed by the republican committee majority.

While the amendments, numbering nearly 40, are under fire, negotiations will proceed as to "mild" or "strong" reservations, which generally are regarded as the crux of the entire controversy. Indefinite debate is expected on the treaty. Opponents of the league of nations plan to reply to addresses made by President Wilson on his speaking tour, both from the senate floor and in other cities.

Definite arrangements are to be made this week for the congressional welcome to General Pershing. Mexican Affairs. The general investigation into Mexican affairs will be opened tomorrow by the senate foreign relations subcommittee of which Senator Fall, republican, New Mexico, is chairman. The inquiry is expected

Prohibition enforcement legislation entered into its final stage this week, with conferences between senate and house managers. Final enactment of the bill is expected by next week.

The Cummins railroad bill, proposing private ownership and operation under federal control, with strikes and lockouts penalized, as permanent railroad policy, was taken up Tuesday by the senate, interstate commerce committee. Disposition of legislation designed to reduce living costs is somewhat in doubt. While the house is expected to pass the departmental appropriation measures, after pruning the $40,000,000 requested, other legislation is delayed. The house bill to amend the food control law so as to give the Department of Justice more power to prevent profiteering is on the senate calendar, but because of the peace treaty, its prospect of immediate passage is uncertain.

The house agriculture committee plans to present this week a bill to regulate cold storage. Conservation legislation is to be pressed soon. The oil and coal handling bill passed by the senate will be taken up this week by the house committee.

MYSTERIOUS MAID OF EDITH CAVELL FINALLY LOCATED

Pauline Randall Gives Out Facts Relative to Arrest of Executed English Nurse.

London, Sept. 7.—(By Universal Service.)—Pauline Randall, the mysterious Pauline in the trial at Paris growing out of the betrayal of Edith Cavell, was located Saturday at Cavell-on-the-Sea, where she is vacationing.

Miss Randall was Edith Cavell's maid, and her name has been frequently mentioned at the trial of Quen, but up to Saturday the search for her had been futile. She is a quiet, retiring girl of 20, and pretty. She is 13 years old when she went to Brussels two years before the war, her father being the owner of a small circus. Pauline ran away from him and joined Edith Cavell, who adopted her into her organization.

"One day," said Miss Randall, "Sister Wilkins, one of Miss Cavell's nurses, was called to the kommandatur (German military headquarters). Later she told Miss Cavell that two men she had seen there tallied with the description I had given her of two men I had met, and that they pretended to know all about Miss Cavell's activities. This was not true. "The following day six German policemen went through Miss Cavell's papers. The day after they came again and locked up all the nurses and maids, including myself, in one room. They then arrested Miss Cavell and released us. "If I can help trace those who betrayed Miss Cavell I shall be happy, but I have not been asked so far."

Is Backache Wearing You Out?

DOES any little exertion leave you tired and worn? Do you feel weak, nervous, "all unstrung"? Do you suffer daily backache, dizziness, and sick headache? You shouldn't! Too many folks drag along day in and day out, thus handicapped. And too often they overlook the kidneys which are likely at fault. Weak kidneys cause many queer aches, pains and kidney irregularities. But, if taken in time, kidney ills are usually easily corrected. Neglected, even a slight kidney weakness may turn into gravel, dropsy or Bright's disease. Don't wait! You owe it to yourself to get well and to stay well. Use Doan's Kidney Pills! Doan's have brought thousands of weak, tired, discouraged people back to health. Omaha folks tell the story. Ask Your Neighbor!

These Are Omaha Cases:

North Twenty-fourth Street Will McNamara, proprietor of barber shop, 5214 North Twenty-fourth street, says: "I suffered from disordered kidneys, which I think was caused from being on my feet so much. My back was lame and painful and there was a hazy appearance before my eyes. My kidneys acted too freely, too. I read about Doan's Kidney Pills and bought a box at the Adams-Haight Drug Co. Through the use of Doan's all the trouble was driven away and I have never been bothered since." South Seventeenth Street Mrs. Charles Appleton, 2818 South Seventeenth street, says: "I was so bad some years ago, owing to backache and kidney disorder. I began using Doan's Kidney Pills and relief followed. Doan's strengthened my kidneys and helped me in other ways. They have also given wonderful results to other members of my family." (Statement given August 14, 1912.) Charles Street Mrs. Z. M. Young, 2711 Charles street, says: "I had terrible pains through my back and kidneys and was perfectly helpless for three months. I had pains in the back of my head and was so nervous I couldn't sleep. My kidneys were irregular in action. I used different remedies for more than three years, but could get no help until I used Doan's Kidney Pills. In a few weeks I felt like a different person. My kidneys acted regularly and the aches and pains left my back. I used several boxes of Doan's and I gladly recommend this medicine to others." Emmett Street C. W. Engellander, 1823 Emmett street, says: "Being on my feet from early morning until late at night has a bad effect on my kidneys and occasionally brings on the too frequent action of these organs. Whenever I have these attacks I use a few doses of Doan's Kidney Pills and they strengthen my kidneys and give me better health generally. I don't know of any remedy I can recommend more highly than Doan's Kidney Pills." North Twenty-sixth Street R. G. Savage, 1924 North Twenty-sixth street, says: "Whenever I have had backache or other kidney annoyances Doan's have done good work in relieving such troubles. Doan's Kidney Pills have not only been used by myself, but by others of my family with good results and I consider them a good, reliable medicine." (Statement given July, 1915.) On November 25, 1918, Mr. Savage said: "Since recommending Doan's Kidney Pills several years ago I have used them several times. Whenever I have needed something for my kidneys, Doan's have helped me."
