

GOES THIRTY MILES TO GET MORE TANLAC

Kansas Farmer Tried Many Medicines, But Tanlac Beats Them All, He Says.

"I have come thirty miles for these three bottles of Tanlac and would have gone further than that rather than be without it," said Lewis B. Burton, a well-to-do farmer of Stanley, Kansas, while in the Owl Drug Store at Kansas City, Missouri, recently.

"I have already taken three bottles of Tanlac," he continued, "and have gained eight pounds. It has done me so much good that I wouldn't think of being without it. I have been suffering from stomach trouble and a run down condition for five years and had gotten in such a bad fix that I would often have to stop work for four or five days at a time. I couldn't eat much and what little I did force down would cause sour stomach, gas and misery. I was constipated all the time, had awful headaches, and would get so dizzy I couldn't stand up, and I was so nervous and shaky I couldn't raise a cup of coffee to my lips without spilling part of it. What little sleep I got failed to rest me and I felt tired out all the time. I had no energy and very little strength, and when I worked at all it was just a drag for me.

"I felt like that unless I could get something to set me right and give me some strength. I would soon just have to give up altogether. So I got Tanlac and while I have only taken three bottles I am feeling better than I have in years. My appetite is fine and I can eat most anything I want without being troubled with sour stomach and gas. The headaches and dizziness have about left me, and I am getting good, sound sleep every night. I used to have pains in all my joints, but that trouble is about gone, too, and I am fast getting to feel like myself again. I have tried lots of other medicines, but Tanlac beats them all."

Tanlac is sold in Omaha at all Sherman & McConnell Drug Company's stores, Harvard Pharmacy and West End Pharmacy. Also Forest and Meany Drug Company in South Omaha and the leading drugist in each city and town throughout the state of Nebraska.—Adv.

Rheumatism
A Home Cure Given By One Who Had It

In the spring of 1899 I was attacked by Rheumatism and Inflammatory Rheumatism. I suffered as only those who have it know, for over three years. I tried nearly every remedy, doctor after doctor, but each one failed to give me any relief. Finally, I found a remedy that cured me completely, and it has never returned. I have given it to a number of my friends, and it has cured them of their Rheumatism, and it effected a cure in every case.

Cocoon Oil Fine
For Washing Hair

If you want to keep your hair in good condition, be careful what you wash it with.

Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and is very harmful. Mulisified cocoon oil shampoo (which is pure and entirely greaseless), is much better than anything else you can use for shampooing, as this can't possibly injure the hair.

Simply moisten your hair with water and rub it in. One or two teaspoonfuls will make an abundance of rich, creamy lather, and cleanses the hair and scalp thoroughly. The lather rinses out easily, and removes every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves it fine and silky, bright, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get Mulisified cocoon oil shampoo at most any drug store. It is very cheap, and a few ounces is enough to last everyone in the family for months.—Adv.

Jealousy Cause of McDermott Divorce, Naming Mrs. Higgins, Say Her Close Friends

Business Associate Speaking for Mr. Higgins, Expresses Much Surprise at the Whole Affair.

Unreasonable and insane jealousy on the part of Mrs. Sophia Helena McDermott, wife of Dr. Bernard A. McDermott, is the sole cause of the divorce action she filed Tuesday, naming Mrs. Minnie Storz Higgins, co-respondent, according to the statement yesterday of close friends of both Dr. McDermott and Mrs. Higgins.

While efforts to locate E. A. Higgins, husband of the woman alleged to be responsible for the trouble between Dr. McDermott and his wife, were without avail, a business associate, speaking for Mr. Higgins, declared he was very much surprised at the whole affair, but that the divorce charges had not in the least shaken his confidence in his wife.

"Mrs. Higgins cannot be guilty of any wrong," he is quoted as saying. "There must be a mistake somewhere."

Suppressed the News.
Surprise of the friends of the McDermotts at the divorce proceedings was the greater because they are devout members of the Catholic church.

Desperate efforts were made by friends of all the principals to keep the news out of the papers yesterday. These efforts succeeding only with the World-Herald, which suppressed all news connected with the suit except a brief statement, and kept from its readers altogether the name of the co-respondent, whom Mrs. McDermott named and charged with having had many meetings with her husband in his office and elsewhere.

Mrs. McDermott is staying at the home of her father, Michael Shirley, 3811 Burt street. No one was home at the McDermott residence, 3826 Webster street.

Statement for Mrs. Higgins.
Mrs. Minnie Storz Higgins, daughter of Gottlieb Storz, multi-millionaire president of the Storz Beverage and Ice company, refused to see reporters at the palatial Higgins home, 401 South Thirty-ninth street. A woman who spoke for her said:

"Mr. and Mrs. Higgins live happily and there is no question of divorce proceedings or any trouble whatever between them."

E. A. Higgins, husband of Mrs. Higgins, is secretary-treasurer of the Morrill-Higgins company, manufacturers of furnaces, 1112 Farnam street. He also was not at his office yesterday. He was formerly advertising manager for the Storz Brewing company, which his father-in-law, Gottlieb Storz, headed prior to prohibition days.

Married for Decade.
The divorce proceedings which Mr. McDermott characterized Tuesday as "a bolt from the sky," have come after both the principals and the co-respondent had been married for a decade.

The suit evidently did come as a complete surprise to the doctor, as he and Mrs. McDermott were seen at dinner at the Athletic club only a few days ago. When he was informed by a reporter for The Bee Tuesday that the suit had been filed, naming Mrs. Higgins, he couldn't speak for several moments.

Dr. McDermott stands very high in his profession and has an immense practice both as a physician and surgeon. Mrs. Higgins, through her father, Gottlieb Storz, is prospective heiress to a large fortune.

Young and Beautiful.
Dr. McDermott is 37 years old and Mrs. Higgins is several years younger. Mrs. Higgins is a handsome young woman and her gowns have been the wonder of the society set in which she moves.

Mrs. McDermott is a woman who enjoys the quiet of domestic life though she also is noted for her taste in dress.

The McDermotts were married in Omaha, February 3, 1909, three years after the doctor began practicing his profession here. He was educated in the Christian Brothers college from which he graduated in 1898. Then he studied at Notre Dame university, South Bend, Ind., and took his medical course in Northwestern university from which he was graduated in 1903. After an internship in eastern hospitals, he came to Omaha in 1903.

Have Two Children.
Here he met Sophia Helena Shirley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Shirley, both of whom are still living. Mr. Shirley had made a fortune as a contractor.

The McDermotts have two beautiful children, a boy of 9 and a girl of 6.

No Statement About Contest.
Besides her parents, Mrs. McDermott has two brothers in Omaha. Another brother and his wife were accidentally asphyxiated about two years ago when a gas heater exploded in their home.

Dr. McDermott has not stated whether he will contest the suit. He could not be reached at his office yesterday.

Central High Notes.

The cadet battalion of Central High school will have the first drill of the season today. There are six companies of about 100 cadets each. More than 1,200 lunches were served to students and faculty Tuesday. This number is said to exceed all previous records.

A large number of students responded to the call for candidates for the foot ball team yesterday. A mass meeting was conducted by Coach Mulligan.

Providers for 19 Are Awarded Custody of Their Granddaughter

Lee Prunty failed in district court yesterday to secure custody of his 3-year-old daughter, Catherine. Judge Sears, after hearing evidence of extreme cruelty, given by his former wife, Mabel, awarded the child to Mrs. Prunty's parents, Mr. and Mrs. David McClure, 3340 Redmond avenue, with whom Mrs. Prunty lives.

The Pruntys were divorced six months ago. He is 50 and she is 23 years old. She testified about his alleged drunkenness and he told of having a detective follow her on a man to a hotel a few weeks ago.

David McClure, father of Mrs. Prunty testified that he and his wife have 19 children and 66 grand children. "My wife had seven and I had seven more now," he said. "I think, with what little experience we have had raising children, that we can bring up the little girl right."

South Side TOO MANY WOMEN REASON GIVEN FOR MAN'S TRIP

South Side Man Leaves Tools in Hurried Flight—Police Report Thrilling Love Affair.

Has a choice between two sweethearts proven too much for William Stamm, 50 years old, employed for eight years by the Brown Truck company at Ralston?

A report of Stamm's disappearance was given police Wednesday with the theory that a love affair may have caused his temporary withdrawal from the neighborhood of the two young women that he is said to have been honoring with his attentions lately. Stamm is said to have bought a piano for one of his sweethearts and aroused the other one, causing the local climate suddenly to become too hot for him.

Stamm disappeared from his rooms at 492 1/2 South Twenty-fourth street on August 30 and has not been heard from since. His relatives know nothing of his whereabouts, but do not think he has committed suicide. He left tools valued at $100 in his rooms, but failed to tell his employers of his departure.
