BEAUTY PARLORS.

THE birds who get rich scooping warts into dimples have got the shriller sex up on their high heels for fair. The beauty experts who make knock-kneed swans out of bow-legged ducklings are charging so much for beauty spots and rouge that these articles are almost beyond the reach of the workingman.

You can't blame the henna profiteers for striking while the curling world's record for 4-year-old geldiron is hot. If a dowager wants to flapperize her complexion she ought to pay for it. A frail is never satisfied with the facial apparatus that nature staked her to. If she's a blonde, she wants to be a brunette. If she's a brun, she wants to be a blonde. If she ain't either, she wants to the 2:07 trot, Echo Direct, the sturdy be both. If she is an old demon of 40 she wants to look like two young demons of 20. Mathematically correct, but hard to accomplish without an adding machine and an axe. You use the axe on the adding machine. No woman has any use for an adding machine that adds over 17, either in years or shoe sizes.

You can't censure the peroxide impressarios for charging double for double chins. Anybody who can make locomotives out of scrap iron is entitled to the gate receipts.

The frail who pulls a Jim he Penman stunt with a lipstick and an electric needle in an effort to forge herself a new complexion is a swindler. In the old days beauty was skin deep. Now it is only powder deep. A chicken believes that taxation without misrepresentation is tyranny. There are no more mothers and daughters any more. They all want to be kewpies. No more grandmathers and granddaughters, either. We now have flappers and grandflappers. The only way you can tell a woman from her daughter is by asking her grandson.

Synthetic beauty is the darb now. For eight berries you can get a in your hair that will make your bonnet act like a rocking chair.

Synthetic beauty is the darb now. For eight berries you can get a wave in your hair that will make your bonnet at like a rocking chair, For 40 smackers they will smear a permanent wiggle in your toupe that you could open bottles with. The permanent wave last three days.

Give a beauty chauffeur 100 butons and he will do everything with your wig but make it bark. It it's red he will make it ptomaine green, and if it's junk colored he will brighten it up so that you can flag trains by tipping your bonnet to the engineer. If you want the old henna work slapped on your knob, the beauty mechanic gets a lot of stuff work like mud, acts like mud, and hangs it on your skull. You perch there on a chair like a ham in a smokehouse. In eight hours he removes the mud stuff, and what's left of your wool is the same color as the mud stuff, and what's left of your wool is the same color as the mud stuff, and what's left of your wool is the same as the Queen of Spades when you left home you can't blame the old man for thinking that somebody framed the pack.

The old brunette-blonde route is the well-known peroxide journey and is no longer stylish among the elite who judge heads from the outside. With a combination steam roller and hamburger steak chopper he cuts your warts down three sizes smaller and presses your wrinkles back into your skull. machine that looks like a concrete mixer, and judging by some of the marcelled skulls, maybe it's right. A blizzard of beauty spots, a shower of talcum and rouge, and you're beautiful.

The only trouble with this brand of beauty is that it is the kind that you've got to watch like your hats and overcoats in a one-armed lunch.

The same rule applies to smoking.

Cigar smokers, for example, are today more careful to avoid too many rich, heavy Havanas. (In fact, more and more cigar smokers now smoke cigarettes too, to help cut down the number of cigars.)

In the same way, cigarette smokers are learning that Turkish tobacco, delicious as it is, is so over-rich or heavy that a man can easily smoke too much of it.

But they are learning also that, instead of cutting down the number
