Association Plans for Some Post-Season Games

Indianapolis, Ind., Sept. 11.—Under tentative plans announced here today by President Thomas J. Hickey of the American Association, the winner of the association pennant will play the champions of the Pacific Coast league, and the Association team which finishes second will play the Baltimore team, which has the International league pennant sewed up.

To Plan Longways

The Omaha Red Sox, a crack colored team, will play the Longways of Council Bluffs at Rourke park, Sunday afternoon in a double-header.

These teams have been trying to get together for some time and now that the arrangements are completed, a great battle is expected. The first game will begin at 2 p. m.

The Unions, Amateur Class B Champs, Go to St. Paul for Match

The Unions, Omaha class B city champions, will leave this evening for St. Paul, where they will clash with the Cardozo, class A champions of the St. Paul Amateur Base Ball association, for the class A title Sunday afternoon.

The party of 15 men will be in charge of James Milota, recording secretary of the Municipal Base Ball association, and Frank Jacobs, president of the City league, of which the Unions were the champions.

The Omaha team will arrive at St. Paul Saturday morning, and it is understood that the northern city has prepared an elaborate program of entertainment for them.

Those who will make the trip besides Milota and Jacobs are Mat Pascal, manager; Walter Nuter, Potter, E. Nuter, Frank Pascal, Skomal, Ernie Koehler, Custard, McIntyre, Stucker, Gunotte and Jacobson.

William O. Blozies writer of amateur sports for the Omaha Bee and a member of the association, will accompany the team.

Large Squad Reports For Foot Ball Team At Shenandoah High

Shenandoah, Ia., Sept. 11.—The second week of foot ball practice for the squad of the Shenandoah High school has brought out a number of better men from former years who add experience and weight.

Prospects are favorable for a winning 11 this year with six or seven veterans to build the team around. Among them are Lewis, Drake, Hamilton, Fishbaugh, Corey, Martin and Purcell.

W. S. Morgenthaler, who played on the varsity 11 at the University of Missouri in 1914, is coach of the high school 11. A squad of 22 men have reported for foot ball practice.

Arrangements Made for Murphy-St. Paul Game Here Sunday

Sunday afternoon at Fontenelle park, when the Gordon-Fergusons, members of the Saturday league and class A, A, champions of the St. Paul Amateur Baseball association clash with the Murphy-Did-Its, pennant winners of the Greater Omaha league and Sunday class A champs in the world's amateur title game of the Western Amateur Baseball association, followers of the National pastime will witness one of the greatest games ever pulled off in this part of the country.

W. S. Morgenthaler, who played on the varsity 11 at the University of Missouri in 1914, is coach of the high school 11. A squad of 22 men have reported for foot ball practice.

Cutler to Meet Pesek at the Boone County Fair

Albion, Neb., Sept. 11.—Charles Cutler of Chicago will meet John Pesek of Shelton September 18 at the Boone county fair. This is the first time the two met and a hard tussle is looked for.

Pesek has never been pinned to the mat and is confident of a victory. Although Cutler has been pinned to the mat before both he and his manager say he is in the best condition he has ever been in and that he will put any stakes with either Stecher or Caddock for the undisputed championship.

Both men have signed a contract for an absolute clean and finish match. A stadium, with a seating capacity of 10,000, has been constructed.

In conjunction with the feature match Charles Peters and Kaverakus will wrestle for one fall. There will be a troupe of doughboy minstrel players and a jazz band to liven things up.

J. L. Williamson of Albion will have charge of the match.

Armours Leave for Kansas City for Two Match Games

The base ball clubs of the Armour and Co. plants at Chicago, Omaha, Kansas City and St. Louis are engaged in a championship contest among themselves. The Chicago club played at St. Louis last Saturday and Sunday and was beaten in the deciding game before the largest crowd ever attending an amateur game in St. Louis.

The Armour club of Omaha leaves this afternoon to tackle the Kansas City club, playing in Kansas City one game Saturday and double header Sunday. Dyck will probably open the fray on Saturday, while Graves will pitch Sunday. If the local club wins the series they will play the St. Louis team at Rourke park Saturday and Sunday, September 20 and 21.

Money for Beatrice Players.

Beatrice, Neb., Sept. 11.—The directors of the city baseball league held a meeting Wednesday evening and wound up the affairs of the organization. After all bills were paid there was $480 in the treasury, and this was divided among the eight clubs in the league.

President Mumford presented a silver cup to George Langdale, who led the league in batting with the percentage of .489. He returned early in the summer from France.

SOX SPLIT EVEN IN DOUBLE BILL WITH SENATORS

Shaw Holds the Edge in the Opener, While Williams Allows But Two Hits.

Washington, Sept. 11.—Chicago made it two out of three from Washington by splitting even today in a double header. The league leaders won the second game, 5 to 3, after dropping the opener, 4 to 3. Shaw outpitched Kerr in the first game, allowing the visitors only four hits. Williams bettered his performance in the second contest in which only two safeties were registered by Washington.

Must Have Regular Card to Get Seat for World Games. Cincinnati, O., Sept. 11.—Directors of the Cincinnati National League Base Ball club announced today that no attention will be paid to requests being sent in for reserved seats for the world's series games, expected to be played here, unless they are made by regular application cards, which may be obtained at the Cincinnati club's office.

"It will be a waste of time and effort," President August Herrmann said, "to make application in any other way. We simply cannot give consideration to the many thousands of requests that are being sent to us. The club is trying to grant the desires of as many of the base ball public as possible, but there must be a system in handling the requests. Everyone is welcome to call at our offices and ask for an application card, but no application should be for more than four seats, all orders to be for a three-game set of tickets."
