

STRIKING COOKS, WAITERS OPEN UP NEW RESTAURANT

Diners Fill Co-operative Eating House to Capacity During the Entire Lunch Period.

Striking cooks, waiters and waitresses opened their co-operative restaurant at 1415 Harney street yesterday noon. Hundreds of strikers, who had been waiting in line, were immediately fed.

William Sweeney, business agent and secretary of the Cooks', Waiters' and Waitresses' local No. 143, stated that food prices at this restaurant were materially below those of other restaurants.

Diners filled the new restaurant to capacity during the entire lunch period.

Prices Are Cut.

Radical reductions in the prevailing prices for meals have been announced. In many instances the prices of meals have been cut to less than half of the amount charged by other restaurants. Those engaged in operating the restaurant are also receiving higher wages, as the union scale is above that paid by restaurant owners who have not reached an agreement with the strikers.

The food is of good quality, according to many of the diners who have been questioned. Following are some of the prices: Boiled short ribs with horse radish sauce, 25 cents; roast sirloin of beef, 25 cents; roast loin of pork with apple sauce, 25 cents. Mashed potatoes and vegetables are served with each order at the prices named above.

Profits to Strikers.

According to Mr. Sweeney, all profits from the operation of the restaurant will be distributed among the strikers. The public will share in the operation by purchasing meals at cost below that in other restaurants, he declared. The restaurant, which can accommodate 350 people at one time, will be operated until the union is successful, he asserted.

The strike continues, in the meantime, with no possibility of a quick settlement apparent. No concessions have as yet been made by either the employers or the Restaurant Men's association. Picketing has been resumed on a larger scale after withdrawal of the pickets from the streets Wednesday.

Arrested Pickets Discharged.

Seven pickets, who were arrested Wednesday on a charge of disorderly conduct, were discharged Thursday morning by Judge Fitzgerald in police court.

The judge commended their stand for higher wages and shorter hours but advised against the commission of rash acts against restaurant proprietors or pedestrians while doing their picket duty.

Those arrested and discharged were Pearl Hendricks, Mary Flagg, Myrtle McLane, P. W. Langstrom, Jack Williams, S. A. Knowles and Robert Murphy.

Cafe Proprietor Arrested.

Jerry O'Connor, proprietor of the Delmar cafe, Twenty-fourth and Farnam streets, was arrested Thursday morning on a warrant sworn out by A. C. Harbers, a striking waiter, who charged assault. O'Connor was released on bond immediately.

O'Connor's arrest followed a threat alleged to have been made against Harbers when the latter tried to insist on standing in the doorway of O'Connor's cafe while on picket duty.

A week ago O'Connor received a threatening letter, signed "The Union," in which it was stated that "unless you hire union help, we will clean up your place." The letter was handed over to Chief Detectives Dunn.

C. of C. Committee Urges Employment of Expert City Forester

The municipal affairs committee of the Chamber of Commerce has recommended to the city council the employment of an expert forester to care for the trees and shrubbery of the city.

The committee, headed by W. G. Brandt, has been investigating the way other cities cared for their trees and shrubbery bordering streets, and that almost every city in the country employed a forester, who supervised the trimming of trees.

The forester's duties, as outlined by the committee, will be to supervise the trimming of trees in all parts of the city, and to advise residents regarding the time and manner of planting trees, hedges and flowers.

Hunt Woman Who Failed to Return With Rented Auto

A woman, who said her name was Mrs. G. A. Houck, and that she lived at 2114 North Twenty-fourth street, called at the Ford Livery Co., Fourteenth and Howard streets, and rented a car. She left a deposit of $10, according to the rules of the company, and drove off in a Ford. She was an expert driver.

But she hasn't driven back, and an investigation at the address given shows that it is a grocery store and the people there know nothing of any Mrs. Houck.

Police have been notified to watch for the woman and car.

A new country club, to be known as the Auto View Rest, will be opened next Saturday for members of the Omaha Automobile club. It is situated two blocks north of Bellevue college, on the high Bellevue hill overlooking the Missouri river.

The club grounds are made up of nine lots, and cover approximately two acres. A seven-room house which was purchased with the lots has been remodeled and a large screen porch added. The building has also been equipped with ample cooking facilities, to accommodate a large number of autoists at the same time. A caretaker will be employed to look after the property.

Auto View Rest may be reached by following the Bellevue boulevard to Nineteenth street in Bellevue, and going west on Nineteenth street to the college grounds and then varding will be laid past the club house in the near future.

One of the features which increases the popularity of Auto View Rest, is the flat observation roof which has been placed on the porch. An unhampered view of great charm can be obtained from this place.

To the Public in General and to my Friends and Patrons in Particular:

As I am feeding from fifteen hundred to two thousand people per day, and as my service owing to labor troubles has been crippled for the past few days, it has occurred to me that it is due the public to state the facts in relation to the labor problem as far as I am concerned.

I understand there has been more or less talk in reference to my signing up with the Cooks' Union and afterward repudiating same. I desire to make the positive statement that neither myself nor any authorized agent of mine ever signed any agreement with the above Union. I did grant them a personal interview and went as far as I possibly could with them in their requests regarding my employees. Their exactions continued to multiply until I was compelled to refuse to have anything further to do with them.

They then exercised their authority by calling a walk-out without notice, of all my kitchen and cafeteria help at 12 o'clock noon Tuesday, September 9th.

There was no question of wages involved as the salaries I was paying were higher than their schedule. Previous to their calling on me I had granted these employees a six day week with seven days pay. When they finally insisted that I should employ none other than those from their office and that my cafeteria help should be unionized, I declined to treat with them further. I stated in unequivocal terms that I was committed absolutely to the principle of open shop and when engaging employees did not ask them whether they were union or not. All I asked of them was efficient service. I avail myself of this opportunity to thank my many friends and patrons for their loyalty and patience.—Adv.
