ALL is not dull work in the life of a motor corps driver for the great parade which was given in New York, Wednesday. This attractive young matron drove her car in the parade which was given in honor of the conquering hero, General Pershing.

Mrs. Wharton had several members of General Pershing's staff as her passengers, and the thrill of being a part of this great pageant of victory will not soon be forgotten. Mrs. Wharton, who has spent the summer in the east, will return before the Ak-Sar-Ben festivities.

Taylor-Weendt.

The marriage of Miss Martha Weendt and Mr. Edgar J. Taylor of South Bend, Ind., took place Thursday evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Weendt. The Rev. C. F. Holler read the marriage rites.

Miss Catherine Wendt, sister of the bride and Mr. George Miller were the only attendants. The bride wore her going-away suit of dark blue with hat to match. After a short trip Mr. and Mrs. Taylor will make their home in Omaha.

Miss Russell Entertains.

Miss Florence Russell was hostess at a tea at her home Friday afternoon, in honor of her guest, Miss Dorothea Davidson of Lafayette, Ind. Roses were used as decorations. Assisting Miss Russell were Mesdames Edward Undeland, Frederick Stott, Edward Bannister, Allan McDonald and Guy Kiddoo; Misses Ruth McCoy, Grace Slabaugh, Eleanor Austin, Caroline Holmquist, Margaret Williams, Helen Pearce, Eleanor McGilton and Gertrude Stout.

The guests, who numbered 70, included maids and matrons of the younger set.

Miss Russell is planning a dinner party at the Country club Saturday evening, in honor of her visitor.

Miscellaneous Showers.

Miss Clara Jensen entertained at a miscellaneous shower at her home Wednesday evening, in honor of Miss Margaret Schiaber, whose marriage to Mr. Obad Smith will take place September 15. The guests included Misses Irma Gregg, Hazel Godard, Elizabeth Boychou, Mary Decker, Meta Jensen, Eugenia Caldwell, Rose Pascal, Julia Jensen, Katherine Boychou, Lillian Zarp, Anna Pedersen, Kathryn Jensen and Aden Reeh.

Sorority Affair.

Miss Marjorie Parsons entertained informally at a bridge party at her home Thursday evening, for the members of the Kappa Psi sorority. Twenty guests attended.

Old People's Home.

Rev. Frank G. Smith will conduct services at the Old People's home on Fontenelle boulevard, Sunday afternoon.

Country Club

Miss Dorothy Judson entertained at dinner at the Country club Thursday evening in honor of her guest, Mrs. Glenn Wharton of Hamilton, O., who arrived Thursday afternoon to spend the week-end with Miss Judson. Covers were laid for Misses Geraldine Hess and Claire Daugherty; Messrs. Paul Shirley, Jalvin Caldwell, Douglas Peters and James Connell. Dinner was followed by a party at the Orpheum.

Miss Claire Daugherty will entertain at dinner at the Country club Saturday evening, for Miss Bender. Those entertaining parties of eight guests at the dinner-dance, Saturday evening at the Country club, will include Mrs. George Laier, R. L. Huntley and Mrs. E. E. Calvin. J. G. McCord will have five guests.

B'nai B'rith Activities.

At a regular meeting held by the ladies' auxiliary of the B'nai B'rith Tuesday evening the members voted to donate $100 to the Jewish Welfare federation, $500 to the Free Loan fund and $500 to the Jewish War Sufferers' fund.

The members are giving a dinner Wednesday evening at the Athletic club in honor of several members who will become brides within the next two months, also in honor of Miss Ella Fleishman, who just returned from France.

Election of officers was held, the following members being elected: Misses Dina Gross, president; Celia Cooper, vice president; Sara Lewis, financial secretary; Mollie Oland, recording secretary; Fanny Rosenblum, treasurer.

Winter Dancing Club.

At a smoker held Wednesday evening at the home of Mr. Earl Burket, plans for the Winter Dancing club were formulated. In view of the return of the former president, Capt. Taylor Belcher, who has been overseas for two years, Mr. Burket, acting president, resigned, but will serve temporarily. Other officers elected were F. H. Koenig, treasurer, and W. H. Smalls, secretary.

A picnic will be given at the Boat club in Council Bluffs about September 20. The club has secured Turpin's hall for the dances which will be given monthly. As many of the former members have returned from service the club will be greatly enlarged this season.

Bridal Dinner.

Judge and Mrs. Bryce Crawford entertained at a bridal dinner at their home Friday evening in honor of their daughter, Elizabeth, and her fiancé, Mr. Warner Gibson Scott. Pink and white roses and cosmos were used to form the centerpiece. Covers were laid for Messrs. and Mesdames W. F. Scott of Lincoln, Austin Dodds, Carl Ochiltree, Alex Crawford of Ute, Neb., and Rev. and Mrs. James Wilson; Misses Faye Simon, Evelyn Horton and Helen Dodds; Mrs. A. F. Riffle, Messrs. Paul Withey, Ralph Lehr, Philip Watkins and Bryce Crawford, jr.

Dancing Party.

The blossoms of the autumn in their many hues decorated the ballroom of the Blackstone Friday evening, when Miss Ruth Hamilton entertained at a large dancing party in honor of her week-end guest, Miss Lillian Bartlett of St. Joseph, Mo. It was the first formal dance given for the school set during the fall season and no doubt many parties of a formal nature will follow. The dance was followed by supper served in the oriental room. The guests who numbered 100, included the members of the younger set.

Betrothal Announcement

These autumn days seem laden with joy for so many pretty girls are making wedding plans. Of wide interest is the betrothal announcement of Miss Frances Neble to Dr. Glenn Miller of Harlan, Ia., which was made by Mr. and Mrs. Sophus F. Neble Friday.

Miss Neble is an attractive brunette and most popular among the younger set. Following her graduation at Brownell Hall she chose a European school and was enrolled at a private institution in Copenhagen when war was declared.

Dr. Miller attended the University of Nebraska when he was a member of the Sigma Nu fraternity. He was graduated from the Nebraska Medical college and is also a member of the Nu Sigma Nu fraternity.

The engagement was announced at a beautifully appointed luncheon given at the Athletic club Friday, when intimate friends of the bride-elect were guests.

National League Notes

The promotion of work by the Omaha branch of the National League for Woman's service is being delayed pending the decision to be reached at the meeting of the national board of directors of the National League for Women's service which has been called in New York on October 2 for the purpose of determining the future program of the social and economic welfare work which the national board has already initiated.

The Omaha branch will be represented at the meeting in New York by Mrs. William Archibald Smith, chairman; Mrs. Edward Porter Beck, vice chairman, and Mrs. L. J. Healey, head of the commissariat division.

The board of directors at a meeting on Tuesday, September 9, voted to contribute $100 to the Visiting Nurses' association on tag day. Also to lend a sewing machine to the city mission.

Latest instructions from Washington, according to Colonel Wuest of Fort Omaha, in a communication to Mrs. Smith, indicates that the organization of a band at the fort will be possible within the next two months, as a greatly increased garrison has been promised for Fort Omaha. Fort Omaha has been without a band for several months, demobilization having thinned the ranks of the excellent band which Omaha enjoyed during the war. The band instruments used at the fort are the gift of the Omaha National League.

League headquarters on the second floor of the court house are now open each day from 1 to 4 (Tyler 2787). Mrs. Smith requests that all who have yarn belonging to the league return the same soon.

Social Settlement Dance. The Social Settlement gave a dance at the Hanscom park pavilion Friday evening.

Heart Beats

By A. K.

Your baby burned
His tiny hand
Against a red hot stove?
Too bad—
But baby has to learn
And only "experience" knows.
Stupid—yes
But baby's learned better now.
Your son disregarded
His mother's wish
And went to the pond
To swim?
Well—
He's all right now—
Life has been restored
To the body we thought
Was drowned.
He stole green apples
And was ill in bed
With fever and burning eyes?
The tomorrow told
That fate decreed.
He recovered
And you did not fear
The unripe orchards again.
Your man of affairs
Put his all on wheat
And the bottom
Fell out
While the "bears"
Took the spoils?
Next time caution
Will play a part
When he gambles
In golden grain—
He'll put a wee bit
On potash or pulp
Or railroad
Or Texas oil.
The baby who burned
His tiny hand
Learned a lesson—
A memory brand.
The unsafe pond
Nor the apple orchard—
Nor a plunge on wheat
Lured him back again.
But the wise old sage
Wears a cunning look
Of experience
For—
"Life is a series
Of serious songs"
He says the pond
"And dirges
And chants
And occasional jazz—
Fate has decreed
That we must live
Stupidly—
Blunderingly—
Daringly—
For an age—
That we may finally
Know how
To live wisely
For just a day."

Chinese Women Students Start War on Vice

Cigarette smoking and gambling will cease in China if a group of women students, returned from studying in foreign lands, have their way.

These women held a meeting recently in the headquarters of the Young Women's Christian Association in Shanghai to discuss forms of social service for which they might organize themselves. Various things were suggested, such as teaching, leading women's clubs and helping with music and Sunday school work.

The baby welfare organization desired a campaign against cigarette smoking and gambling. The students decided to take it up and rouse public opinion against both practices by means of lectures, sermons, talks in schools and a wide publicity campaign.

Mrs. C. C. Chen of Shanghai, president of the student committee of the Y. W. C. A., and two other prominent Chinese women are acting as the committee to draw up a statement of the purpose of the organization and to make plans for future work.

Society Dispatch

(Special Cable to The Bee.)
London, England—A number of American buyers have included England in their European trip this season and pronounce themselves more than pleased with what they have found in the way of novelties to take back to America. One buyer of novelty jewelry for a big Fifth avenue establishment reported that he found more interesting novelties in this line in England than in France.

Millinery buyers find the sports and trotteur hats made by English houses very good. London buyers, now that the war is ended, keep in very close touch with Paris, and it is becoming quite the thing for American buyers going to France to go to London before visiting the French market.

English women are wearing extreme décolletés and are nothing like as conventionally-clad as heretofore.

Spanish Club.
Mrs. Alexander Pollock will be hostess for the meeting of the Omaha Spanish club Tuesday evening, at her home, 3709 Jones street.

RAILROAD MEN UNDER GREAT STRAIN

Reports from various sections of the country show that railroad men who are exposed to the elements of the changing weather and all sorts of storms are frequent victims of colds and pneumonia. It is found also that Father John's Medicine is used by many railroad men as their safeguard against these dangers to which they are exposed. They realize that the pure food elements of which Father John's Medicine is composed give them new strength with which to fight off colds and coughs and help them to build new flesh and strength. Because Father John's Medicine is guaranteed free from alcohol and dangerous drugs in any form, many railroad men use it in their homes as a safe medicine for all the family.

Commercial High School Graduates Gave Two Plays Friday.

The graduating class of the High School of Commerce gave two plays Friday evening at the Central high school auditorium. The two presentations, "The Kleptomaniac" and "Mr. Bob," are semihumorous. The graduates who took part in the plays were as follows: Lillian Ragsdale, as Mrs. John Burton (Peggy); Mildred Peterson, as Mrs. Valerie Chase Armsby, a young widow; Rosina Shafston, as Miss Freda Dixon; Anna Yun, as Mrs. Charles Dover (Mable), a bride; Virginia Showalter, as Miss Evelyn Evans, a journalist; Anna Johnson, as Mrs. Preston Ashley and Hettie Hubbard, as Katie, Mrs. Burton's maid.

Mildred Peterson rendered vocal solos between the first and second acts.

The act, "Mr. Bob," consisted of the following students: Ethel Butterfield, as "Mr. Bob"; Francis Swirsin, as Jenkins, a butler; Anna Albertson, as Miss Sulse, (Aunt Becky); Esther Houser, as Patty, a maid; Geraldine Huntoon, as Katherine, Miss Becky's niece; Robert Dridla, as Philip, Miss Becky's nephew; and Joe McCabe, as Mr. Brown, a solicitor.

Tickets for the plays have been on sale for the past week. It is estimated that the girls had a full house.

On account of lack of boys in the present graduating class, the girls received the help of three boys, who are in the February graduating class. The acts consisted of 11 girls and three boys.

Miss Mary Irene Wallace, coached the amateur actors.
