St. Joseph Cinches Pennant by Defeating Wiches, 4 to 3

Wichita, Kan., Sept. 12.—St. Joseph won the Western league pennant by defeating Wichita in the first game of the series, 4 to 3. The game was a thrilling battle between Musser and Hoffman. Musser relieved Gregory in the first inning with two on bases and three runs, although he worked a full game the day before, and pitched wonderful ball for nine innings. Two doubles in the tenth by Walker and Dolan won the game. Hoffman also pitched a strong game and errors back of him allowed Wichita most of their runs.

A great throw by Jackson, who threw Musser out at the plate after Washburn had singled in the eighth, saved the game for St. Joseph.

Australian Team Defeats Americans in U. S. Doubles Championship

Chicago, Sept. 12.—Gerald L. Patterson and Norman E. Brookes, Australians, winners of the United States doubles championship in tennis for 1919, showed their supremacy over William M. Johnston and Clarence J. Griffin of San Francisco, the team that formerly twice held the same honors in the international matches which opened Friday.

The Australians won in straight sets. Brookes played the most finished tennis, while Patterson used tremendous power in his hitting. Johnston was considerably off form.

The other Australian pair, R. V. Thomas and Randolph Lycett, were off their game and were beaten by Ralph H. Burdick and Samuel Hardy of Chicago.

Vincent Richards of Yonkers, N. Y. was unable to come to Chicago for a singles exhibition and in his stead Walter T. Hayes of Chicago appeared against Willis E. Davis of San Francisco in a two-set match which they divided. Hayes played in all around good style, but Davis solved his style in the second set.

Don't Experiment with Catarrh; It Often Leads to Serious Trouble

You Will Never Be Cured by Local Treatment With Sprays.

Catarrh is a condition of the blood and can not be cured by local applications of sprays and douches; this has been proven by the thousands who have vainly resorted to this method of treatment.

Catarrh should not be neglected or experimented with. The wrong treatment is valuable time lost, during which the disease is getting a firmer hold upon its victim, and making it more difficult for even the proper treatment to accomplish results.

Though Catarrh makes its first appearance in the nostrils, throat and air passages, the disease becomes more and more aggravated and finally reaches down into the lungs, and everyone recognizes the alarming conditions that result when the lungs are affected. Thus Catarrh may be the forerunner of that most dreaded and hopeless of all diseases, consumption.

No local treatment affords permanent relief. Experience has taught that S. S. S. is the one remedy which attacks the disease at its source, the blood, and produces satisfactory results in even the worst cases. Catarrh sufferers are urged to give S. S. S. a thorough trial. It is sold by all druggists. You are invited to write to the Medical Department for expert advice as to how to treat your own case. Address Swift Specific Co., 254 Swift Laboratory, Atlanta, Ga.

CHIEF EXECUTIVE OF MINNESOTA WILL GREET OMAHA TEAM

Bee Writer Tells of Greetings by Mayor and Governor in St. Paul.

By WILLIAM O. BLOZIES.

St. Paul, Minn., Sept. 12.—(Special Telegram.)—Arrived here O. K. and immediately got in touch with the officials of the St. Paul Amateur Base Ball association. According to the local heads St. Paul amateur followers will turn out in full force Sunday afternoon at Lexington park, where the big championship contest will be staged between the Unions, class B City champs of the Omaha association and the crack Cardozos of the local association.

It is expected that one of the largest crowds of the year will be in attendance, weather permitting, and the locals are confident that their favorites will carry off the championship, although there are a number of the fans betting on the Omaha champs in the event that Stucker hurls the game, since the local fans received word that the youngster hurled a no-hit, no-run game last Sunday.

An elaborate program has been arranged for the Omaha champs when they arrive at the northern city. The Unions, headed by James Milota, recording secretary, and Frank Jacobs, president of the City league, will arrive here at 7:30 o'clock tomorrow morning and will be met at the station by officials of the local association. They will be taken to the Ryan hotel, where they will make their headquarters while in the city.

The Omaha team will be taken to the city hall at 9 o'clock, where Mayor L. C. Hodgson will turn over the key to the city, and at 10:30 o'clock they will be met by Governor J. A. A. Burnquist, who will make the principal address, welcoming the Omaha champs to the northern city. Later on they will be taken on an automobile tour around the city. A banquet will be given in their honor at 6 o'clock at the Ryan hotel and a theater party in the evening.

Confessed Automobile Thief Bound Over to District Court

E. H. Perkins and J. F. Wilson, both living at 2910 Deer Park Boulevard, were bound over to district court in police court yesterday, the former for stealing an automobile owned by S. O. Briggs, 1343 South Thirty-fourth street, and the latter on a charge of receiving stolen property. Perkins pleaded guilty. Their bonds were fixed at $2,000 each.

Cash and Bonds Are Stolen From Strongbox In Home

Albert Bennett, 2411 South Eleventh street, reported to the police early yesterday that someone stole a strongbox from his home containing $106 in cash, $150 in Liberty bonds, an $89 check and various valuable papers.

YANK—Bun Johnson case won't go to the jury. It will be turned over to an unbiased orchestra of ukulele twangers.

Chinese spectator fell out of the Supreme Court bleachers when Bun's lawyer referred to him as the Rhoderick Dhu of base ball. Expect the Ouija boards to register Rhoderick's disgust.

Lull in the trial while Ben chirped "I'll be with you when the subpoenas bloom again."

* * *

Bun's lawyer brought out the fact that Mays had pardissipated in two world series. May have meant participated. Maybe both.

* * *

The opposition's lawyer is of the hip and elbow school of oratory. Uses his voice only when he runs out of gestures.

* * *

The worst that can happen to Mays is that he will be sentenced to stick with the Yanks.

* * *

Yanks have a team of lawyers. One is an old bird. When he gets on the other bird runs for him.

* * *

A lawyer seems to be a song plugger with a legal education.

Bun's lawyer buzzed for two hours straight without saying the same thing twice or one thing once.

The league president accuses Mays of conduct unbecoming a pitcher or a gentleman.

* * *

Mays hasn't attended the trial so far. Fo ra bird who is suspended he is losing a lot of ball games.

* * *

The question is, did Bun have the power to suspend Mays?

* * *

He did.

* * *

Did he have the power to keep him suspended?

* * *

He did not.

* * *

When the Yanks' lawyer spiels Bun seems to grow split hoofs and a forked tail. You wonder how he gets his hat over his horns.

* * *

When his lawyer sings a lullaby Bun sprouts a cherubic complexion like a cat full of Grade A cream. A halo hangs over his ears like a horse collar on a door knob.

* * *

If the Yanks bought Mays to help cop the pennant the records indicate they should can their twin lawyers and hire an alienist.

* * *

The case goes to the jury soon, barring war, earthquakes or Woodrow's veto.

The works took a Shantung twist when Ump Owens popped into court. He got jealous and left when he piped the lawyers using their whole framework in making gestures.

200,000 APPLY FOR TICKETS FOR WORLD'S SERIES

Office of Cincinnati Club Is Swamped With Applications for Reservations for Ball Classic.

Cincinnati, O., Sept. 12.—Long lines of persons gathered on the stairs of Wiggins block or down the street from the Cincinnati National league base ball offices here this morning, while as many as could get in the club offices waited their turn to receive cards on which applications for world's series seats must be written.

President August Herrmann of the Cincinnati club had announced that no attention would be given to any requests for world series tickets except by filling out cards issued to applicants at the club's offices.

The application cards read for tickets for the first three games. No single tickets will be issued. The prices for world series games were given on the application as follows:

Grand stand, reserved, $5.50; grand stand, reserved (upper), $3.30; field boxes, $6.60; pavilion, unreserved, $2.20, and bleachers, unreserved, $1.10.

A "notice" is printed on the application card which says that the applicant agrees that the method adopted by the club for the distribution of tickets is not a lottery scheme.

Herrmann has announced that it is intended to place the names of the applicants for tickets in a basket and if the pennant is won by the Cincinnati Nationals hold a drawing of these cards to distribute the available seats.

Herrmann said today his office has been swamped by applications for world series seats, already numbering more than 200,000, and that his plan to hold a drawing is the only way out of the difficulty.

Reports of Grain Surplus In Ukraine Are Unfounded

Paris, Sept. 12.—Advices from American Red Cross investigators at Poltava, southern Russia received in Paris today state that reports of an enormous grain surplus in Ukraine and southern Russia which have disturbed American wheat growers with visions of a tumbling market may be dismissed as groundless.

Russia and the countries bordering on the Black Sea will need the entire 1919 crop, the reports said.

Judge Grants Double Divorce On Grounds That Both Are Guilty

An unusual "double" divorce was granted by District Judge Sears yesterday in the case of Homer Charles and Maude Charles. Judge Sears declared that each was guilty of cruelty. He granted a divorce to Homer from Maude and gave him custody of one of their children. He also granted a divorce to Maude from Homer and granted her the custody of the other child.

Homer alleged in his petition that his wife treated him cruelly. He testified that she said his presence made her nervous and he finally decided to go away, he said.

Mrs. Charles, in a cross-petition, alleged that her husband threatened her life and declared he would not be responsible for what might happen to the children.

Paralyzed Father Near Death Begs For Return of Son

With his body paralyzed and almost all hope for his recovery gone, Nelson Puncaes, 2861 Bristol street, lies on his deathbed constantly calling for his son George, 26 years old, who disappeared from home more than six months ago, following his discharge from the army in January.

Mr. Puncaes has been partly paralyzed for many years. Due to the stress and excitement incident to the war his condition became worse, and the disappearance of his son has added to his worries. His condition is said by his physicians to be critical.

Now the aged father, near the point of death, lies vainly calling for the son, who has severed home ties because of a petty difference with him.

He was taken to the Mercy hospital, in Council Bluffs.

At the request of his father, Robert Budatz, Omaha police investigated the case and notified Griffin to come to the police station.

OMAHA RED SOX PLAY COUNCIL BLUFFS SUNDAY

Longeways to Tackle Local Colored Cracks in Double Bill at Rourke Park; First Game, 2 P. M.

The Council Bluffs Longeways will play the Omaha Red Sox, the crack colored team, in a doubleheader at Rourke park Sunday afternoon. With the Armours, the Omaha semi-pros, away, playing the Armour team of Kansas City, the local ball park would be without an attraction had not the colored boys and the Bluffs club agreed to meet there.

The Longeways team is one of the strongest semi-professional clubs in this vicinity and has tried for some time to book a game with the Armours, but the Packers had their dates arranged so far ahead that it was found impossible to accommodate the Bluffs aggregation.

After much wrangling the Omaha Red Sox finally made arrangements to play the Longeways.

The first game will start at 2 o'clock. Popular prices, 30 cents to grandstand or bleachers, will be the admission charges.
