Miss Margaret Morrison Engaged

Margaret Morrison

Mrs. John F. Morrison announces the engagement of her daughter, Margaret Cecilia, to Mr. Freeman Fitzgerald. No definite date has been set for the wedding but it will probably take place during the holidays.

Miss Morrison is one of the petite brunette type of beauty. She was graduated from the Saint Berchman's academy.

Mr. Fitzgerald attended Notre Dame, where he was captain of the 1915 football team. During the war he received a commission as a lieutenant in the aviation corps and was an instructor at Carruther's Field, Fort Worth, Tex.

Miss Morrison, accompanied by her mother, leaves Monday for California where she will remain until the early winter.

Omaha Girls at Vassar. Omaha will be well represented in the ranks of Vassar students this coming year.

Rarely or ever has it happened that five Omaha girls have attended Vassar the same year.

The new entries include the Misses Josephine Marple, who will leave Wednesday; Betty Fairfield and Peggy Reed and Miss Virginia Crofoot, who returns, where she will be a sophomore, and Miss Emily Burke enters her junior year at this college.

lowed in the then new Willard. Senator Warren and his second wife, formerly Miss Morgan of Washington and Detroit, are the honored members of the family party attending General Pershing. In fact they are entertaining the Pershings, all except the general, in their apartment at 2029 Connecticut avenue, the apartment house de luxe, so "de luxe" that it has other designation.

The dates for state dinners in the White House, and for several musicales, have leaked out accidentally. It was not at all the intention of those arranging them to have them known to the public until November. The dinners will take place on Thursday evenings, as "before the war" and each one will be followed by a program of music from a famous artist. The first one will be in honor of the cabinet, the next in honor of diplomats, the supreme court, the senate, the house of representatives and the speaker of the house of representatives, who has one in his honor all by himself. They will come on December 11, January 8, January 22, February 19, February 26, March 4 and March 11.

Senator and Mrs. Norris' family has considerably dwindled with their oldest daughter, now Mrs. H. F. Nelson, married and living in Omaha, and Miss Gertrude Norris, who graduated from high school here last spring and gone off to the state university at Lincoln. She left this week for Omaha to stay for a week with her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey F. Nelson. Mrs. Nelson will go on to Lincoln with her and remain until she has matriculated and gotten settled for the winter.

Jack Reavis, son of Representative Reavis of Falls City, has gone back to Cornell for the winter. Mrs. Reavis, as secretary of the Congressional club, is more than busy with the preparations for opening the club house in another month.

Representative and Mrs. A. W. Jeffers of Omaha have removed from the Wyoming to 1870 Wyoming avenue in a comfortable apartment which they have leased until December. Their son, A. W. jr., will enter Central High school and their young school girl daughter, Miss Janet, will probably enter school later on as she is recovering from an operation for the removal of her tonsils.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur V. Shaffer of Seward, Neb., arrived early in the week from their home, having made the trip by automobile. Mr. Shaffer is secretary to Representative McLaughlin of York, Neb., and drove Mr. McLaughlin's car all the way through.

Mrs. William E. Andrews, wife of the representative from Hastings, instead of abandoning her war work of caring for a large number of young war workers at her own table, is rather increasing it. She finds just as much demand for proper food and proper chaperoning the young as during the war period, and her household has been increased within the past week. Neither she nor Mr. Andrews have any prospect of getting away for change and recreation this fall.

Mr. John Shanahan of Omaha, who had hoped to get out home for Ak-Sar-Ben time, has about given it up. Work is very lively around the capitol. Mr. Shanahan is the oldest of eight children and has had a taste of homesickness, particularly when talking about the fall festival, which will last from September 24 to October 4.

City, Neb., returned this week from a several weeks' stay at home with Mrs. Evans, who has been seriously ill. She is now recovering and will join him here about Thanksgiving, when he goes home for her. Judge Evans, Representative Jeffers and Judge Dickinson of Iowa, have had a merry, comfortable bachelor's hall at the Wyoming throughout the summer which was first broken into by the arrival of the Jeffers family.

Hundreds of women are having their last year's suits and coats dyed.

One woman who had her taupe velour coat dyed blue, said: "Why its prettier now that when it was new. Guess I'll have a new lining put in and my friends will think I have a new coat."
