Him.

years ago. She proved to be the mother, Mrs. Effie P. Hewins, who curb. became quite friendly, and insisted that I go to their home in East Ded-

"The girl's mother said on their first visit to my office that I should make an ideal husband for her daughter and son-in-law to her.

"I did not like the coat that Hazel wore and gave her $35 to buy another, which she did. When she came back she showed me some calling cards that she had printed as 'Mrs. Rodriguez.' I said nothing to her for doing it

"After repeated invitations on the there for three years. I became infatuated with Hazel, who was the wife of Henry A. Kussmaul, not then living with his wife. Hazel kept telling me that just as soon as she obtained a divorce from her husband she would marry me.

I spent large sums of money on Hazel because I loved her, and I made her mother presents of clothes and also things for her father. I supplied Hazel with all of her clothes. I purchased furs, silk stockings, gloves-in fact, whenever she wanted anything to wear, I either bought it myself or gave her the money to do so.

Liquor and Lawn Mower.

"I kept her father supplied with liquor and tobacco and I even bought his clothes. I supplied them with a lawn mower and other garden implements and garden seeds.

I was called to New York on business, where I remained for several weeks, and I kept buying nice things that I saw and expressed them to Hazel. I paid $20 for a box of candy one time. Whenever Hazel wanted any money she would write me and I would send any amount she wanted.

"My suspicion was aroused when Francisco Ballestros, the Mexican consul in Boston, came to me one day and showed me a letter he had received from Hazel. I called her attention to what I had learned and she seemed to be very much surprised. She pleaded with me to forgive her, saying that she did that to see if I was jealous.

"Sweet on Mexican Boy."

"One day I saw her and the Mexwas very mad. The Mexican con- cerns had stayed until the water in work, and that we applied ourselves sul treats me very cool since then. Mexican boy, Robert De La Freute, power plant to suspend operation. who is secretary in the Mexican of President Carranza of Mexico. His father is General De La Freute, a general in Carranza's army.

"I feel very bitter toward Hazel's father and mother, because they are tonio to Corpus Christi which left responsible for her going away and the former city early Sunday reached leaving me. They treated me fine Sinton, Tex., at 2 o'clock that afterwhile I was living at their home and as long as I kept buying them pres- the division notified the headquarters ents and helping to run the house. "Hazel, I have learned, has since been divorced by Kussmaul and married a man named Vincent B. Beckett, on June 23, 1919, in Chica-The ceremony was performed by Judge H. Sterling Pomeroy. This is true, for I have a certified copy of the marriage from the authorities in Chicago. I have also in my possession a certified copy showing that Henry Abel Kussmaul, Hazel's husband, had secured a divorce in Lets Her Handle Money.

"So certain did I feel that Hazel would be some day my wife, I gave her keys to my office and let her attend to all my business, even to handling the money. She and her mother would visit my office when ditions I was away. Of course, I did not object to that. Mrs. Hewins had Only a key to the office, also.

"Mrs. Hewins would write me love letters and send me verses written about love and would telephone me. She frequented my office at all been accounted for. hours and would stay with me quiet a while, and then when she went home she would tell Hazel and her father that she had been to a show. The mother bothered me so by telephoning at the office and calling herself that she interfered with my business and I had to order her

"I have over 300 letters written in which they expressed their love for me, and I have verse after verse which they sent me. I was so confident that Hazel would become my wife that I made myself poor by giving them what they wanted, with shattered and unable to sleep.

tists have shown that the wind car- were on board the Monongahelia, ries some disease bacteria 200 feet which was reported as lost with all and as high as 60 feet into the air. hands in the gulf hurricane.

(Continued on Page Two, Column Two.) which continued Sunday night were felt at Galveston too and telegraphc communication with that city over eased wires of The Associated Press was marked by frequent in-

Sunday and caused the tidewater to flood the railroad section and the north side of the island to a depth of three feet. The seawall withstood the onslaught of the poundcame to my office in answer to an no damage to the causeway con-'ad' for a girl for office work three necting the city with the mainland.

type of girl I wanted, so I engaged water had receded from Galveston's her. The first time she came to the streets although an area of several office she was accompanied by her blocks still ran with water to the Tonight the wind was still blow-hour, but the barometer was rising steadily and the tide receding. The maximum area flooded by back water from the bay extended from seven to nine blocks from the bay front and the entire length of the north side of the island.

issued a bulletin late today saying the danger to Galveston had passed but urging caution because of the high winds. With the exception of the street car system, which was part of Mrs. Hewins, I moved my forced to suspend service early in furniture to East Dedham and lived the day, all public utilities came through the storm intact.

Refugees Straggling Through. the bay refugees began straggling raiment.

shelter in office buildings. Others were housed in the county court house and the public library and the city schools. The majority of the visitors had left the city yesterday on advice of beach front hotel proprietors. A small number of local esidents went with them.

Water was standing in Market street, the center of the business as she recalled it. section, when some of the stores were thrown open and emergency workers began carrying merchandise to top floors. This work was finhad been moving to the trains and be damaged. More than 100 train loads of wheat were hauled out yesterday.

When the day broke the rain which for a while had ceased began to fall again. Pieces of driftage floated to the streets. By noon the streets presented a carnival-like appearance. Motor and sailboats, skiffs, wagons and buggies moved back and forth and merchants declared their loss was not great. Galveston marine circles had no reports of shipping loss.

Telegraph and telephone companies lost their connections with it would mean to us in after life. Corpus Christi and other points It was a speech brimful of encourican consul talking on the street in south of Victoria, Tex., at 3:30 p. m. agement. He told us we were in Boston and I passed them by. I Sunday after employes of these con-Corpus Christi had reached a depth to our studies so we would be able of six feet, causing the electric consular office in Boston. Young De train which left Corpus Christi for John made it clear that discipline La Freute, who is a good-looking Rock Port at 8 a. m. Sunday was chap with blond hair, is a protege declared to be somewhere in the path of the hurricane, according to general offices of the railroad at San Antonio.

> noon, when the superintendent of that he noticed the front of the Commercial hotel at Sinton blown in by a 60-mile gale. He ordered the train back to San Antonio.

valley was suspended indefinitely. A number of negroes astride large the street. Fastidiously swished about the water to their dumb and nearly blind, who is States Recovering.

Only minor damage was reported from along the coasts of the two states. Train service on the Mississippi coast lines was resumed today. All vessels from New Orleans have

New York, Sept. 14.-The strike of United States Steel corporation

Tampa, Fla., Sept. 14.-The 1,666ton oil steamer Monongahelia, which PHONE DOUG Just the Thing for a Pick-up Lunch. Keep It at Home; The Whole Family Will Enjoy It.

Hurricane Inundates

Railroad Section Flooded.

The storm struck Galveston early ing waves, however, and there was

By Sunday night most of the ing in gusts from 60 to 65 miles an

The United States weather bureau

When the water backed in from through the streets carrying bundles and babies, some of them in night A number of refugees accepted

Lose Phone Connections.

A southbound train from San An-Traffic on the St. Louis, Browns ville & Mexico railroad lines south nor of buildings wrecked or devasof San Antonio into the Rio Grande timbers displayed their craft along dressed women

Kings county, Washington, October waists while the rain fell in tor-

New Orleans, La., Sept. 14.— Southern Louisiana and Mississippi were recovering tonight from the effects of the gulf hurricane and conwere rapidly approaching to Delay Their Strike

employes, set for September 22, will be deferred until after the industrial conference in Washington, called for October 6 by President to me by Hazel and her mother Wilson, it is learned from reliable sources.

Tanker Safe.

the result that I am now broken broke loose from the steamer down in health with my nerves Ligonier in the storm Tuesday earth, and her home-folk and boyish night, is reported anchored at Key lover, the world's real aristocrats, West. The tug Senator Bailey will Tests made in Ireland by scien- go to the rescue. Fourteen people seen at the Sun for the entire week It is a strong story of the deserand the life in Cairo. The locations, and settings could not have been much improved upon, and the storm in the desert is very well done, ceptionally good. Edwin Stevens, as the heavy, in the part of a Russian nobleman, is splendid in his part. This is a Hodkinson produc-Olive Thomas in "Love's Prison-usual-opportunities to display her Skinner's the Best Macaroni and Spaghetti Recipe Book Free_Omaha er" is on at the Moon. She has un-

The phonograph is giving a record of General Pershing speaking. Left to right are: W. R. Barton, Clay C. Bigger, A. J. Harter, James W. omax, C. B. Welch (now dead), Mayor Edmund B. Allen, Henry C. Lomax, A. J. Caywood, J. T. Hamilton and Judge Oscar F. Libby.

Johnny" Would Not Allow Smoking at Recess-Arabella Tells Story of Time Pershing Had a "Crush" on Her and Wanted to Escort Her Home—Blushes as She Relates the Romance.

happened, but it was a "lively row,"

There is a man in Laclede, howished before the water entered the near the Laclede railroad station, buildings. Wheat and other grain and it is well worth one's while to stored in elevators awaiting export stop and have a "bite" in Clint's place. Standing behind the lunch it was said there was little left to counter, and one engages him in conversation, bringing the general of the Prairie Mound school days when John Pershing was the teacher.

"May seem strange," he said to me, "that I was a pupil of John's, cause I'm a year older than he is. But pupil I was, and I recall every incident of the days when he was teacher at Prairie Mound.

No Pipe Smoking.

"He was a good teacher-strict, but not overbearing. I remember school. He made a little speechschool to fit ourselves for our life of art, so far as photography goes.

t has no battle scenes, nor views of great throngs madly struggling, tation spread from any source. It scapes, bits of water scenery that appeal and inspire, and pictures of cople of human interest. Its story has to do with an aged man, deaf, strangely gifted with the power of healing. To him go a gang of New York crooks, bent on getting control of the "miracle man" for the purpose of exploiting his wonderful power. Instead, they find them-cincing. All in all, "The Miracle Man" is a remarkable picture.

Sunday. This picture was produced

Disillusioned, the girl returns

Louis Glaum in "Sahara" will be

Miss Glaum is quite convincing in this story, and some of the situations call for strong acting, but she never fails to do justice to them. Matt Moore, as the engineer and husband, is ex-f a sick daughter.

make the scenes realistically con- V. Mong.

does give exquisitely beautiful land-

Mrs. Henley spoke of a "spat" | and that he was going to run the which occurred in the school one school, not the pupils. He issued an order forbidding pipe smoking at recess. "I liked him from that moment

So did most of the rest.
"He was such a nice looking boy Thrashing a Bad Boy.

in the school, boys and girls, ranging all the way from 5 or 6 years into it, Clint will tell of the row and of age to 18 or 19. I think I was like a man. the oldest boy in the school. I was 19. John was 18, as I recall, but facedly. John caught him, pulled the all she would say was: there were several boys as old, or gun from his pocket-a big revolver little older.

remember his name-started a 'rough house' one day. He made some saucy answer to a question John put to him and he would not the first day he came into the sit down when John ordered him to. John didn't waste any words. He told us the value of education, what walked up to the boy-he was a bigger boy than John, too-picked him off the floor like a sack of meal and hurled him into his seat.

big, red-faced farmer.
"I was standing near John when they appeared .

You manhandled my boy this boy had been unruly and had been linens and gingham. punished, as all boys who were unruly would be.

Takes Gun from Father.

"The man bellowed and stormed ike a bull gone mad. Then he made "lively row." He is Clinton T. Stutsman. He runs a little restaurant blue eyes that were good to look the man wasn't amenable to reason. He was mad as a hatter.

"'Alright,' John said, and he was "There were about 30 or 40 pupils as cool and calm as a cucumber. fight, I'll fight. But first take that | tiful place. gun out of your pocket and fight

"The farmer backed away shame--and tossed it to one side. Then "During all that winter-it was they went to it. John knocked the my last term-there was just one man down several times-finally row. A boy, one of the largest and knocked him out. That ended it. knocked him out. That ended it. oldest boys in the school-I can't | When the man came 'round he apologized.

A Boyhood Romance? Perhaps, to the minds of many persons will come conjecture as to girls. Did John Pershing have "a girl?" they will ask. Was there someone in Laclede who might have been Mrs. Pershing? Old Man Comes Round.

"The boy was so taken aback he idn't say a word—just sat where ohn had hurled him. But later that as the prettiest girl in Laclede. I as the prettiest g disciplined returned to school in the had a "crush" on Arabelle, or afternoon with his father, a great, "Belle." Mrs. Lomax she is called today.

I went to the Lomax dry goods store and there asked Mrs. Lomax if she would not tell me the story morning?' the man thundered at of it. Her husband was in the store, with his wife behind a counter "John explained; he said that the in front of shelves piled high with Mrs. Lomax Blushes.

"I guess I never heard of this, ne remarked, as I questioned his wife. But there was a twinkle in his eyes that belied his statement. Mrs. Lomax blushed.

"Why," she declared, "there wasn't any romance." And by the way she said it one knew there had been-a boy and girl romance, one of those sweet, clean boy and girl romances that 'Alright,' he said, 'if you want to makes of this world a more beau-

> "The Girl" Tells Story. I laughed and told her of the stoies-the rumors-I had heard, but

"John used to go to the same par ties I went to and once, I remember, it was a Leap Year party in Mary Griffith's home-her father was Colonel Griffith-John wanted to walk home with me. I chose to walk home with another young man. John didn't like it very well. But romance-no.

was not to enter into it until he was There is a hint, just a hint, of a romance that will always be remem- across the street when the accident as the prettiest girl in Laclede. La- Presidio. Yes, the nation mourned der the influence of liquor. Burg with you, General Pershing, and get away strong with the audi-They are clever and sing well. Frank Devoy and his company have a bit of chatter that is worth all the time it takes. Francis X. Bushman and Beverly Bayne are back again, this time in "Daring Hearts," a picture with plenty of action, pathos and comedy.

(Continued Tomorrow.)

Alexander, the original "The Man Who Knows," student of the occult "George Washington Cohen," a and delver into psychical research, satrical comedy playlet, has been lays no claim to the supernatural powers, but invites the public to term his demonstrations just what they please. Alexander works several months each year and the remaining time is spent in hunting, Sight Large Sea Serpent; fishing, study and supplying the relaxation that is essential to regaining the energy that he has given out in his daily contact with the public. The engagement of Alexander and his show of wonders will commence the elderly and elongated station his show of wonders will commence master of Jasper Junction, is a tonight, September 15, at the Brandeis theater and continue for six extracation of his legs from the arm days. A special souvenir matinee for the ladies only will be given on Friday and a general matinee on > Oliver Morosco will present Leo Carrillo at the Brandeis Theater for three days beginning Monday, September 22d, in Frederic and Fanny Hatton's fun fashion success, bardi, Ltd." with Marie Colebrook and the typical Morosco cast. Mr. Carrillo's portrayal of "Tito morus and novel characterizations seen of late years. His ability to create constant laughter is difficult to describe.

ability to sing and act acceptably man She is technically more finished ground. than the most of the actresses on the burlesque stage. Miss Mae sings with a feeling that holds her audiences and her costumes are worthy of special mention. She will be seen at her best heading the big Broadway beauty chorus in the second act at the Gayety twice daily this week.

Baltimore Wins Title.

New York, Sept. 14 .- The new mount film, Harold Lloyd in a trio is welcome, especially because International league base ball seacomedy, and Pathe Weekly, show- of the nimble way in which they do son closed today with Baltimore ing interesting scenes of General their work. The Houltons, with winning the championship, having Pershing's arrival in America, the their little sketch, "A Summer Flir-lead of 71/2 games over Toront winning the championship, having a

> Can you afford to take the Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy during the hot weather?

Streets of Galveston Schoolmaster Pershing Took Gun From ONE TREE BEARS | WILSON HEARS Big Boy's Dad; Soundly Whipped Him INCLUDING PEARS

Different Apple Grafts and Six Different Kinds of Pears.

Findlay, Ohio, Sept. 14.-An apple tree growing thirty-two different kinds of apples and six differ-pear grafts have borne fruit of an addresses made since he left Washexceptional quality. Others will bear | ington. in coming seasons. All are vigorous, regardless of the fact that they draw sap from a trunk of an alien va-

Some of the Varieties. Fall, Rambo, Stayman, Wine Sap, than, Winter, Banana, Summer Maiden Blush, Winter Maiden Northwestern Greening, Blush. Gate' Applle crossed with the Summer Sweet, Aldenburg, Rome Beauty, Fall Water, Anti-English Ram-

From July to October. Apples are secured from the tree rom July until the latter part of October. Flater has already sold about $6 worth from one limb. When Flater acquired the land the ree, sole survivor of an ald orchard. was a mere shell. The holloow trunk and decayed spots were filled with cement and heavy chains were used to hold the limbs together.

Instead of dying, the tree has shown new life each year and no one would suspect that it is now seventy-five years old.

Wants Them Half and Half. Flater this year has made grafts to produce apples, half sweet and half sour. It is done by laying two slit buds of a sweet and sour variety together in the same graft. These grafts are growing, but have not reached their bearing stage.

Flater feeds his apple trees plant ood to give the roots elements they need in soil, exhausted by many years of growth. He has worked with many university horticiturists of note.

Wheelbarrow Driver Hurt When Struck by Automobile

Lars Burg, 62 years old, Nineteenth and Burt streets, was slightly injured at 10 o'clock last night when Tracing the general's life through all the paths of it, one knows that driven by Ray Nugent, 2612 Harney romance-whole-souled romance- street, at Twenty-third and Cuming streets. He suffered a cut knee. over 40. Then love came into it, a Burg was wheeling a wheelbarrow was able to go home unassisted.

Police Head Praises Work of Inspection Department Police Commissioner Ringer occupied the pulpit at the Walnut Hill Methodist church yesterday morning as a substitute for Elmer Thomas, who was to have spoken but who was absent from the city. He declared that his department departments for meat and milk in-vious time. Commenting on the discontinuation of the morals squad he declared that it did not mean that the fight efficient manner than at any pre-

Lombardi" is one of the most hu- ists, Paul Gartman of this place is to pluck some apples off a near-by tree. When he got up on the branches of the tree he was greeted 'Million Dollar Dolls" Co. combines by the largest blacksnake he ever captivating stage presence with an saw. It was five feet long. Gartdropped sprawling to the > May Hood, colored, 419 North Thirteenth street, shot twice at Clarence Henderson, white, same ad dress, after an argument last night. Her aim was poor. Both were arrested. Miss Hood was charged with hooting with intent to kill and Henderson was charged with drunk-

Shoots After Argument.

Skinner's the Best Macaroni and Spaghetti made of Durum Wheat

Progressive Women Use The Omaha Bee Advertising Columns as Their Shopping

38 KINDS FRUIT, PACIFIC LABOR MEN'S TROUBLES

75-Year-Old Trunk Has 32 Representatives of Washington State Federation Present Grievances at Seattle Meeting.

(Continued from Page One.)

where he slept last night after concluding probably the most strenuous ent kinds of pears is one of the most | week of his entire speaking trip. He exceptional horticultural wonders was somewhat fatigued after his 10produced by Henry Flater, in years day journey across the continent, Practically all of the apple grafts but his physician, Dr. Cary T. Gray-son, said Mr. Wilson was in excelare bearing regularly. Two of the lent health, considering the many

Makes 18 Speeches.

Although he has traveled only a little more than 4,000 miles of his 10,000-mile itinerary, and has been on the road only about one-third of Some of the different varieties the total time to be consumed by grown on this tree are: Yellow the trip, the president has made 18 Fransparent, Red Astrakan, Wealthy of the 33 set speeches on his schedule. From this point on there will Delicious, Wol River, Arkansas be only a few days on which his Black, Fall Pippin, Baldwin, Jona- plans call for more than one speech. One speech a day will be the rule during all the coming week with the exception of Tuesday, when there s no address on the schedule. He will spend the entire week on the Pacific coast, and from Tuesday morning until Sunday night will be in California, the home state of Senator Johnson, a leader among the treaty opponents. Leaving Seattle late tonight, the president will speak tomorrow night in Portland, Ore. Tuesday will be pent on the train enroute to San rancisco, where he will speak Wednesday night. Thursday night he will be in Oakland; Friday night in San Diego and Saturday night in Los Angeles. Because of the lightening of his schedule of set speeches, it was considered possible that he will break his rule against talking from the rear platform of his train more frequently.

NEW YORK SONG SUCCESS

The latest New York sensational ballad PRETTY LITTLE RAINBOW, is at present quite a fad in the east. The song possesses a simple waltz refrain, with a beautiful melody which impresses you immediately, and from all indications will be the most popular hit this country has ever known. Following is a portion of the Pretty Little Rainbow Pret - ty lit - tie Rain - bowlet me Contract plans and I a way Like a ray of light that's ahin - ing thro' the niget, you're guiding me Cupricht Jon Kerth Perm. Lette Schledinger.

Although the song has been pub-He declared that his department lished a short time, thousands of was being run on a business and not copies have been sold. Thre is a a political basis, asserting that his slight advance over the popular music. This can be had for phonospection were being run in a more graph and player pianos.

Rupture Kills 7,000 Annually that it did not mean that the fight against vice would be discontinued.

Sight Large Sea Serpent;

Immune to Bullets

Reno, Nev., Sept. 1 — Doubt not the authenticity of this, for the nation went dry long since.

Four hunters report a sea serpent 35 feet long in Ypramid lake, largest fresh water body west of the Great Lakes. It has huge fins and a serpent's tail, comes to the surface of the water and dives, and its hide is impregnable to bullets.

The hunters who shot the animal, but who report it dived after being hit unhurt, are J. S. Neff, Mike Nagy, W. J. Neff and M. Geni.

Eve Knew It, Too

Sunbury, Pa., Sept. 14.—Notwithstanding the assertions of naturalists, Paul Gartman of this place is authority for the statement that snakes do climb trees. While out walking one day, Gartman decided to pluck some apples off a near-by tree. When he got up on the

The "cannon ball service" of tennis means tired muscles.

BAUME ANALGÉSIQUE

quickly relieves all muscular strains. Get a tube today Thos. Leeming & Co., N. Y.

FISTULA CURED

Rectal Diseases Cured without a severe surgical operation. No chloroform or Ether used. Cure guaranteed. PAY WHEN CURED Write for illustrated book on Rectal Diseases, with names and testimonials of more than 1,000 prominent people who have been permanently cured.

DR. E. R. TARRY, 240 Bee Bldg., Omaha, Neb.

THE WHISTLE CO.

power plant to suspend operation.

A San Antonio & Aransas Pass train which left Corpus Christi for Rock Port at 8 a. m. Sunday was

FLASHES From FILMLAND

·PHOTO ·PLAY · OFFERINGS · FOR · TODAY ·

66THE MIRACLE MAN" opened its week's run at the Ri-At Neighborhood Houses alto yesterday, attracting a very large attendance because of the APOLLO - 29th and Leavenworth-ETHEL CLAYTON in "MEN, WOMEN AND MONEY." stimulated interest in the picture BOULEVARD—33d and Leavenworth— LOUIS HUFF and JACK PICKFORD in "WHAT MONEY CAN'T BUY," 14th Episode "THE TIGER'S TRAIL" and production. It is truly a work

COMFORT-24th and Vinton-CHAR-LIE CHAPLIN in "SHANGHIED" and MONTAGUE LOVE in "THROUGH THE TOILS" GRAND—16th and Binney—Para-mount-Arteraft Special, GLORIA SWANSON and ELLIOTT DEXTER, in "FOR BETTER OR FOR WORSE."

HAMILTON-40th and Hamilton-ALMA RUBENS in "THE PAINTED LILY" also" SMASHING BARRI-ERS" Episode No 1. LOTHROP—24th and Lothrop—OLIVE THOMAS in "UPSTAIRS AND DOWN" and Arbuckle-Paramount Comedy, and Chester Outing Scenic. DIAMOND-24th and Lake-RUTH STONEHOUSE in "THE PHATOM HUSBAND" and Comedy.

selves moved by some strange im- versatile talents in this story, for pulse, and remain to learn and start she appears as a charity worker and on a new way of life. The company a thief, a girl whose early environwhich made the picture is formed of ment has nourished a character most capable actors, whose work is none too exacting as to code of all the more convincing because it honor. Finally she blossoms forth s devoid of the usual tricks resorted into a woman whose slumbering to by film actors to "register" the sense of right and wrong is awak-

Mrs. Charlie Chaplin in "Home" American girl visiting in England, tion. Eddie Janis and Rene Chappened a week's run at the Muse plays her part in a most excellent low, with violin, voice and feet, offer manner. by Lois Weber, and also was writ- ance of Sir Richard Beverly, Lady playing is meritorius. "Topics of ten by her. With notions distorted Beverly and their little son, Richard. daughter spends a short time at a with her little son to a rendezvous summer house party while her with her lover, she loses control mother slaves at home to take care of her car and in a smash-up is injured. Charmian Page (Miss home, finds it the dearest place on Young) restores him to health. Nearing the verge of bankruptcy has over his son, Sir Richard proposes to her and is accepted. A American grand fleet in San Francisco harbor, President Wilson in St. Louis, and other interesting scenes, conclude the program,

The Weather.

For 24 hours ending 8 p. m., Sunday. Temperature. Belative Humidity, Percentage, 8 a. m., 55; noon, 46. Precipitation, Inches and Hundredths, Total since January 1, 1234; deficiency, you enjoy a series of hearty laughs, the new bill at this vaudeville house is just what the doctor Harry Green, who appears in hearty laughs and that is the obvious mission of the act. Harry Hines has a manner all his own of delivering a merry line of chatter and song, interspered with some jazz steps. He is a small chap with plenteous unction and he has a confidential manner with an audience, Jack Clifford, as classic in his line of burlesque. The of a bench furnishes several minutes of hilarity. Local interest attaches to the appearence of the Lachmann sisters, who do not happen to be natural sisters, but who have a clever little "sister" act. They are real Omaha passions or emotions they are sup-posed to express. These are real picture. In support of Olive ville for youngesters. Mark Nelson actors, and by their ability they Thomas are Joe King and William is a juggling comedian who has a rapid-fire act which is pleasing. Collins and Hart are here again with Clara Kimball Young at the their strong man act in which they Strand in "The Better Wife" as an apparently defy the law of gravita-She makes the acquaint- an artistic act in which the violin the Day," and Kinograms, the latter by the false glamor of wealth and aristocracy, a small town plumber's with another man. While driving Pershing, are the screen offerings. A big musical act, "The Cabaret de Luxe," toplines the vaudeville killed, while little Richard is badly bill at the Empress, and justifies the importance given it. It has a number of sprightly girls, who can sing, dance and otherwise make themand realizing the power Charmian selves agreeable to the watchers, and thereby win a lot of merited applause. Rose, Ellis and Rose, oveless marriage follows. Learning "the jumping jacks," has a distinct of the faithlessness of his first air of novelty about it. It has been wife, Sir Richard begs his wife's a long time since a barrel jumper forgiveness. An educational Para- showed his skill in Omaha, so this tation," put their personality over which was first last year.

AT THE THEATERS

OMEDY dominates this week's , program at the Orpheum. If here before in a vehicle of similar construction. Mr. Green evokes Ede Mae, prima donna with the risk of being without