What do YOU think about "The Miracle Man?"

Personally, we think it's the greatest motion picture ever produced, because it does not have to depend upon stupendous sets or an enormous cast to put it over—it simply touches your very inmost soul it is so convincingly presented.

Here's what the local papers say about the picture:

"Omaha yesterday had an opportunity to see for itself with all the musical and lighting effects the Rialto could give, the far famed picture, 'The Miracle Man.' Omaha endorsed the opinion of the critics and crowds of the east, who have praised 'The Miracle Man' as the screen sensation of the year. 'The Miracle Man' is one of those kind of pictures which one can not help remembering as he eats breakfast the next morning."—World-Herald, September 15th.

"The Miracle Man" is no dry sermon. It is no weary preachment against mankind's frailties and mental ills. It is a simple story, simply told. But it is told so well, so truthfully that one forgets one is viewing a picture flashed on the screen. In seeing it one lives the picture and the story that it tells. One becomes a part in the great drama of human lives and loses consciousness of self as debased ideals are reformed and crippled bodies are renewed in strength."—Daily News, September 15th.

"The Miracle Man" is without doubt the greatest picture that has been produced; everyone that came out of the Rialto last night had no other conversation but the "Miracle Man." It was heard on street cars, round automobiles and in every doorway. Seldom does a thing grip as does this motion picture. It is as though one were permitted to look deep into a soul of man and see reflected there all the feelings of which it is capable. . . . "The Miracle Man" stands out as a superior accomplishment.—Omaha Daily Bee, September 16th.

We're not going to tell you about the big business we're doing, suffice it to suggest that you come in the afternoon, if possible, also that we are giving three shows nightly—6:30, 8 and 9:30 p. m. Just one other thing—please try and get in your seat at the beginning of the presentation; you'll enjoy it far better that way.
