Richard Carle and a galaxy of musical comedy stars in Alexander Johnstone's musical comedy, "Sunshine," will be the attraction at the Boyd for three performances be-ginning Friday, September 26. Mr. Johnstone will be pleasantly recalled as the author of "Fiddlers Three. The book is by William Carey Duncan and has a plot that contains a real honest-to-goodness story. In the role of Richard Skinner, an American life insurance agent adrift in Spain, Mr. Carle has what he states himself, by far the best role that he has ever essayed. "Sunshine" is in two acts and three scenes. Twenty big song hits are interpolated during the course of the performance. Alexander, the original "The Man Who Knows," is playing at the Brandeis all this week.

A special souvenir matinee for the ladies only is announced for Friday. At this performance, Mr. Alexander will present free of charge a limited number of his original luminous ouiji boards, oriental gazing balls and extensive horoscopes. On Saturday there will be the regular matinee to which the general public will be admitted.

Rich in comedy, gorgeous in cos-tuming, brilliant in dialogue, a wealth of amusing and novel characterizations, and with a distinctly new and unusual story, "Lombardi, Ltd." will be offered by Oliver Morosco at the Brandeis for an engagement of three days beginning Monday, September 22. The cast throughout is one of the best.

Final performances will be given today of the bill at the Empress, which has for its headline attraction the "Cabaret De Luxe," a singing, dancing and musical number. A piano performance that pleases is offered by Hans Hanke. Pat and Peggy Houlton have an offering of singing and dancing.
