PHOTO PLAY OFFERINGS FOR TODAY

At Neighborhood Houses
APOLLO—Twenty-sixth and Leavenworth. Evelyn Greely, "BRINGING UP BETTY."
LOREDO—Twenty-fourth and Lombard. Anita Stewart, "MIDNIGHT ROMANCE." Smiling Billy Parsons in "THE MUSIC MASTER."
GRAND—Sixteenth and Blaney. Constancy Talmadge, "A LADY'S NAME," and Sunshine comedy.
HAMILTON—Fortieth and Hamilton. A Pathé special.
DIAMOND—Twenty-fourth and Lake. "THE MASKED RIDERS" and a five-reel feature.
BOULEVARD—Thirty-third and Leavenworth. Pauline Frederick in "FEDORA," Comedy. "GREEN-GRASS GRAZERS."
COMFORT—Twenty-fourth and Vinson. Clara Kimball Young in "THE BETTER WIFE," and Big V comedy, two reels.

"THE Miracle Man" is on its last day, and if you have not already seen it, make an effort right away. It preaches that human nature changes with environment and that ideals stand higher than material wealth. Next week Mary Pickford in "The Hoodlum."
Strand—"The Third Kiss," with Vivian Martin. The catastrophe was due to her uncle's criminal negligence in allowing the exits of the building to become congested. Sunday Harry Morey will be seen in "The Gamblers," originally produced as a play, and had a very long run on Broadway.
Muse—"Home," with Mrs. Charlie Chaplin, one home is that of a small town plumber and the other the mansion of a wealthy aristocrat. This is the last day of this picture. Next week will be seen Douglas Fairbanks in "His Majesty the American."
Sun—Hasheesh is a powerful drug and produces an intoxicating effect. In "Sahara," the photo drama of the desert, John Stanley, a young American engineer, begged for money in the streets of Cairo that he might buy hasheesh with which to deaden his grief. Today will close a successful week's run. Douglas Fairbanks will be the attraction next week.
Moon—"Dangerous Waters," starring William Desmond, portrayer of serio-comic roles, will be shown at the Moon theater for the last time today. Tom Moore in "The City of Comrades," will be at this house Sunday. This is one of the best Goldwyn has turned out.
Empress—Vesleska Suratt in "The Soul of Broadway," will be seen for the last time today at the Empress theater. Her gowns have made the audience gasp in amazement.

AT THE THEATERS

Today Gayetyites are to again be regaled by another brand new show, "The Victory Belles," which the producer, James E. Cooper, terms as being the Rainbow Division of Burlesque. To Eddie Dale and Mickey Markwood are entrusted the comedy roles. The principal women are Franz-Marie Texas, prima donna, and Vivian Lawrence, soubrette. A notable feature of the program is Mlle. Davignon's Parisian models in poses picturesque. Today's matinee starts at 2:15; Sunday's at 3.
 This is the final day of the Orpheum bill headed by the character comedian, Harry Green, in "George Washington Cohen." The curtain this evening is to rise at 7:55 o'clock sharp. Mr. Green will be first on program and seating will be discontinued during this act. Of the bill opening tomorrow the stellar attraction is to be the brilliant musical comedy, "A Reckless Eve," in two scenes, lavishly produced by William B. Friedlander. A featured of Everything."

On Friday evening of next week act of the bill is to be "Georgie," Price in an offering called "A Little Richard Carle and his company will open the season at the Boyd, presenting the new musical comedy, "Sunshine." It comes here from the Studebaker in Chicago, where it was joyously welcomed.
 Mr. Alexander, who is appearing at the Brandeis the last time today, matinee and evening, introduces at each performance unexplained feats in mental mystery, which leave his auditors bewildered. He claims nothing but a lifetime of study and a keen training and development of the mind.

"Lombardi, Ltd.," with Leo Carrillo's drawing of the temperamental Italian dressmaker, Tito Lombardi, the chief figure of the story, and Marie Clinebrook as the wide-eyed little mannequin whose "movie" teachings has led her to believe that in order to succeed and hold her position in an establishment of the Fifth avenue sort she must be a baby vampire of the 18 carat variety, comes for a three-day engagement at the Brandeis, starting next Monday evening.
 Cervo, the accordionist, at the Empress theater, has made a fine impression. He gives enough of classical musical to show his ability and mixes popular selections to captivate the audience. A big applause hit is the acrobatic and singing novelty offered by the Clifford Wayne trio.

"The Wolf" Bound Over On Charge of Robbing Paralytic of Money

Joe Green, 1015 Capitol avenue, known in negro circles as "The Wolf," was bound over to district court yesterday on a charge of highway robbery. "The Wolf" was identified by five persons who held up John Bates, a paralytic, 116 North Ninth street, Thursday and robbed him of $60.
 Ben Miller, negro, 1015 Capitol avenue, arrested with Green, was released upon failure of four of the witnesses to identify him as "The Wolf's Partner."
