Bee Juniors Resume Championship Series Today at Fontenelle

Play for the championship of the Omaha Bee Junior Base Ball assoiation between the Woodmen of the World, champions of division 1, and the Holmes Juniors, pennant winners of division 2, will resume this morning at Fontenelle park, starting promptly at 10 o'clock. The Holmes Juniors were victorious over the lodgemen several weeks ago, but on account of the Juniors using Player Jimmy Walsh, who was only allowed as a utility player, the game was ordered re-played. Walsh will not be allowed to participate in today's contest, unless the regular players are unable to play. However, according to Manager

Williford last night, the Holmes luniors are in the best of condition. Should Walsh start the game or play, unless the other utility or regular players are unable to, and in event they are victorious the game will be forfeited to the lodgemen. Next Sunday the final game for the championship will be staged, when the winners meet the Meyers Bearcats, division 3 pennant win
