

BUTLER TO ASK NEW HEARING ON SKIP-STOP PLAN

Will Introduce Resolution in Council Requesting State Board to Again Sound Public.

City Commissioner Butler states that he will introduce in the council meeting today a resolution asking that the mayor and city commissioners request the State Railway commission to reconsider their action in granting to the street railway company the right to continue the skip-stop plan indefinitely.

Adopted During War. The skip-stop originally was adopted as an emergency measure, as a coal conservation proposition, but now that the war is over and the company has been allowed a 7-cent rate of fare, I hold that it is time to abandon the skip-stop.

Saving to Company. The finding and order of the commission which was received here last week gave the street railway company the right to continue the skip-stop indefinitely. The reasons as set forth in the finding were that this plan of reducing stops afforded quicker and safer service and saved for the company $59,000 per year in the cost of coal and other items of operating expense.

BEWARE OF WILD SPECULATION IS ROBERTS' ADVICE

Grain Men Amazed at Letter of $2,000,000 Corn "Plunger."

A "special letter" to farmers, grain shippers and producers, sent out by George A. Roberts, Omaha grain man, who was reported to have made $2,000,000 by plunging in corn several months ago, is causing much amusement among members of the local exchange.

The letter asks farmers to protest to their congressmen against "wild speculation." It reads:

Cites Break in Corn. "July 28, 1919, No. 2 mixed corn sold on the floor of the Omaha Grain Exchange at $1.93. September 13, 1919, No. 2 mixed corn sold on the floor of the Omaha Grain Exchange at $1.31, a break of 62 cents a bushel.

"July 28, hogs sold on the South Omaha market at $21.40 to $22.25. September 13, hogs sold on the South Omaha market at $15.75 to $16.25, a break of about $6.00 per hundred.

"Corn and hogs on the Chicago and Kansas City markets have had about the same break as on the Omaha market. This decline has been brought about in a little over 40 days. No shipper of grain or live stock can stand such radical changes for any length of time in these days of car shortages and embargoes, to say nothing of the enormous loss to the producer.

An Enormous Loss. "September 8, the government's estimate of the new corn crop was 2,858,000,000 bushels. The decline in prices since July 28 would amount to $1,771,960,000 on corn alone, to say nothing of the enormous loss on cattle and hogs.

"Ask the farmer if he was able to hire labor any cheaper September 13 than on July 28, and if anything he buys in the way of farm machinery or anything else used on the farm could be bought September 13 any cheaper than it could be bought July 28.

"Wire your congressman protesting against wild speculation in farm products which seems to have been the cause of this enormous decline in such a short time."

The letter is signed by "George A. Roberts Grain Co." Omaha grain men call attention to Mr. Roberts' protest against "wild speculation," as it was by speculation that Mr. Roberts made large sums of money on the Omaha market, they say.

When asked about the letter, Mr. Roberts declared it was written merely to protect his customers. "It has no bearing on my personal affairs," he said.

Grain Men Amazed. Grain men expressed great amazement when told of this philanthropic attitude of Mr. Roberts, and are generally of the opinion that in reality Mr. Roberts is "long" on corn.

"Mr. Roberts is not taking the workmen into consideration, it seems," said Frank J. Taylor. "Most of us think this decline in the price of corn is as it should be. The workman is just as essential to the farmer as the farmer to the workmen of the city."

Country Girl Tires of Work at Home and Comes to City

A story of penury was told by Mona Frances Carter, 12 years old, of Monroe, Neb., who was brought to the police station upon complaint of her parents that she had run away last Thursday. The girl was found working in a home at 1619 Pierce street.

"I'm happy away from home," she told Police Matron Gibbons. "I've been working since I was 9 years old. Life was too common in that town, so I took $7 from mamma's purse and came here. I'm strong, know how to work and don't want to go home, or work and lodge, nor does it," she said.

Her parents were advised of the detention of the girl.
