CENSORSHIP IS PLACED ON NEWS AT STATE HOUSE

No Big Items for the Press to Be Given Out Without the Sanction of the Governor.

Lincoln, Sept. 23.—(Special.)—That in some instances the code bill is working out very successfully is being demonstrated when it relates to the publicity proposition. The national board of motion picture censorship has nothing on the present system of censorship of public news now enforced in the state house in departments coming under the code bill.

The way the thing is working out the people will never know what is taking place in the state house in public offices except those of the state officers regularly elected. Chiefs of departments have been ordered to give out no items of public interest to anyone, but to pass them on to the secretary at the head of the department. If the news is important it must go to the governor for approval and be given out by his secretary after it has received the executive approval.

Newspaper reporters covering the state house must now await the pleasure of the secretarial heads or the governor. No news can be given out until after it has been censored, the seal of approval placed on the can and under the pure food law the percentage of contents printed on the can.

The governor has, however, taken the matter under consideration and while insisting that the giving out of news by the heads of departments would "detract from efficiency of the department," said he would call the board of secretaries together and see about it. During the interim the "passing by" of the board of censorship will accompany all news given out in the present way.

Lincoln Man Killed When Ford Is Hit by Big Touring Auto

Lincoln, Sept. 23.—(Special.)—The speed mania which has struck Lincoln, or perhaps which has never left it, is responsible for the death of Leslie Ingold, according to a coroner's jury, which found David Zolot, a Lincoln high school lad, guilty of causing the death of Ingold.

Zolot, who was out in a big car with a bunch of students, ran down the Ingold car, a Ford, in which there were half a dozen people, and overturned it at the corner of D and Sixteenth streets in this city. The car was going about 35 miles an hour, according to people in a Buick car, which Zolot had passed a half block before it struck the Ford. Ingold died soon after being hit.

Interurban Line Asks For Increased Rates On its Bellevue Line

Lincoln, Sept. 23.—(Special.)—The Omaha & Southern interurban company, which operates a car line from Omaha to Fort Crook, has made application to the State Railway commission for an increase in fare from 5 cents per zone to 7 cents or four tickets for a quarter. There are three zones on the line, passengers paying 5 cents for each zone. If the commission allows it will mean a rate of 18 1/2 cents for the trip.

Sugar Price Is Given Another Boost in Lincoln

Lincoln, Sept. 23.—(Special.)—Sugar has gone up one-half cent a pound, according to orders issued by the Lancaster county food administrator, which means that if one can find it he can have it for 12 cents per pound; and yet someone has said that the "cruel war is over." However, the price might as well be nothing per pound as far as it is doing Lincoln people any good, for there is no sugar to be had today. Notwithstanding that Nebraska is making thousands of tons of sugar in the state in its own sugar factories, it is allowed to be shipped out, while the president of the United States who "kept us out of war" and who ought to be making war on the sugar trust, is spending his time out in the world trying to convince people that the United States senate ought to approve his league of hallucinations proposition.

Auto Truck Men Want Their Rates Adjusted

Lincoln, Sept. 23.—(Special.)—Freight trucking rates were the subject of a hearing before the State Railway commission today in which certain firms engaged in the business of transporting freight by auto trucks from one town to another were asking for relief from smaller parties who were doing the business at cut rates.

Railway Commissioner Wilson and Rate Clerk Powell were conducting the hearing and the principal matter in which the truckers were interested was the one-way price. They claim that the nature of the business is such that much of the time there is not sufficient truck for a full load on the return trip and they want an adjustment of the rate to meet those conditions.

State Agricultural Board Is Now Without Any Home

Lincoln, Sept. 23.—(Special.)—Driven out into the cold, cruel world by the effect of the code bill, the State Board of Agriculture will no longer have a home in the state house. Rearrangement of the offices and departments under the code give the offices formerly occupied by the department to the board of securities, while the Board of Agriculture has found refuge in the Lindell hotel.

The Lindell hotel management has turned over to Secretary Danielson the big ball room and as soon as petitions can be put in the board will have a part of the room. The board moved in today and until the petitions are in will have the entire room.

Kearney, Neb., Sept. 23.—(Special.)—Warrants were issued Saturday against Gottfried and Fred Geist, Kearney grocers, charging them with selling lemon extract for beverage purposes.

NO CLUE FOUND TO MURDERER OF OMAHA MAN

Most Reasonable Explanation Is That He Was Shot by Mistake for Someone Else.

R. L. Massey, 53 years old, 3017 Davenport street, one of the oldest conductors in the employ of the Union Pacific railroad, was found dead with bullet wounds in his forehead, mouth and chest, in a side street at North Platte, Neb., at 5 Monday morning, according to a dispatch received at the Union Pacific headquarters here.

No clue to the circumstances of his death was found, the dispatch stated. His watch and money had not been taken.

Left Omaha Monday.

According to railroad officials Mr. Massey left Omaha at 4:25 Monday afternoon and arrived in North Platte at 12:40 yesterday morning.

Mrs. Massey was prostrated with grief when informed of her husband's death this morning. She had no idea what motive anyone could have in shooting her husband, she said.

Murder Is Mystery.

"As far as I know he didn't have an enemy in the world," she sobbed. "When he left home Monday afternoon he was cheerful and kissed me goodby as usual. I am sure he had no idea that death was so near."

C. R. Zink, chief clerk to the general superintendent of the Union Pacific, a close friend of Mr. Massey, also declared that he was well liked by every one.

"When we first received the dispatch of his death I thought he had been held up going from the train to his room," the dispatch states, however, it is that he was mistaken for another man, when the tragedy occurred, for if any other railroad man had been with him he would have reported at once.

Train Crew in Dark.

"None of the train crew knew anything about his death, I believe, until informed later in the morning."

Mr. Massey had been in the employ of the Union Pacific railroad for about 35 years.

The only theory advanced by his friends is that he was mistaken for someone else.

Left Cafe at 1:30.

Mr. Massey, after the arrival of his train, No. 15, in North Platte, after midnight, registered at the station and then went to a cafe for lunch. He left the cafe about 1:30.

That was the last seen of him alive. His body was found at daylight in the morning on the curb opposite the home of Mrs. Leticia Cronin on West Sixth street, where he had a room. He was evidently on his way there when shot.

Leaves Big Family.

Mr. Massey is survived by his wife in Omaha; a son, Gerald, who lives in Idaho; a son, Robert, of Washington, D. C.; a daughter, Mrs. J. J. Woodruff, Omaha; a daughter, Dorothy, who is a student at Notre Dame, Ind.; and a son, Paul, who is attending school in St. Marys, Kan.

Stewart will continue as cashier and Adolph Kovondo as assistant cashier.

Well Known Citizen Of South Nebraska Dies at Geneva

Geneva, Neb., Sept. 23.—(Special.)—Hon. John J. Burke, a leader of the bar in southern Nebraska, in early life a prominent Nebraska school man, a member of the law firm of Charles H. Frank, W. Sloan and J. J. Burke of this city and a leading democratic politician, died at his home in Geneva Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Burke was born in Canton, Ill., in 1857. Of Irish stock, he inherited the strong and sturdy characteristics of that race and pushed west, finally coming to Grafton, Neb. At Grafton he was superintendent of the public schools. He was a member of the faculty of many county institutes in this part of the state. In 1888 he was elected by a large majority superintendent of public instruction for Fillmore county, to which position he was twice re-elected. Following this he was in the office of the clerk of the district court and in 1895 entered the law office of Charles H. Sloan. Later he was admitted to the bar and afterwards the partnership above referred to was formed, which continued to the time of his death.

In 1883 Mr. Burke married Miss Mary Keenan of Grafton. There were born to them eight children, two sons and six daughters. James F. Burke, now cashier of the Sutton State bank of Sutton and Thomas N. Burke, cashier of the Grafton State bank of Grafton. Two daughters, Alice and Wessie, are now teachers in the Lincoln public schools. The other children are Julia F. Burke, Anna Kenny, Katherine Burke and Marguerite Burke.

GENERAL OUTLINES AMERICA'S FUTURE MILITARY POLICY

A. E. F. Chief of Staff Calls for Peace on the Pacific "On Our Own Terms."

Washington, Sept. 23.—America's future military policy as advocated today before the house military committee by Maj. Gen. J. W. McAndrew, chief of staff of the A. E. F., throughout the war, should call for "peace on the Pacific on our own terms." This, he said, can be assured by control of the Panama canal and the Hawaiian islands.

Although General McAndrew told the committee he was loath to disagree with the general staff, he took issue with its reorganization plan on the basis of an army of 509,000 men, proposing instead a force of 300,000 "at the utmost." While joining with the general staff in advocating universal training for 19-year-old youths General McAndrew disagreed with its proposed three-month period of training, declaring it was "inadequate" and should be at least six months.

Wants 1,250,000 Army.

General McAndrew recommended that the skeleton of 21 divisions, a field army of 1,250,000 men, as proposed by the general staff be approved, but he suggested that these divisions, with the exception of four, be skeletonized to 6,000 or 7,000 men, instead of a larger number as proposed by the war department. He also agreed with the department plan for a "top-heavy" officers personnel, explaining these were needed for universal training, and even if such a system were not adopted their retention would be advisable for quick enlargement of the army in an emergency.

Division on Border.

The peace time army of 300,000 men, he said, should be distributed with one complete division at the Panama canal, another at Hawaii, another with additional troops, if necessary, along the Mexican border; small forces in the Philippine and Alaska and the remainder at home for coast defense and training.

"By all means," he asserted, "we must safeguard Hawaii. Its loss in time of war would put Japan or any combination of powers on the flank of our communications to Asia and the Philippines. It is likely that in any war in the Pacific we might not at first have the preponderance of naval strength, and the army must maintain the islands until reinforcements are brought from the Atlantic fleet by way of the canal. With one division and the shore batteries we could keep a navy off for some time because of the few landing places."

How Any Woman Can Remove Hairy Growths

(Beauty Culture)
It is not longer necessary for a woman to visit a specialist to have superfluous hairs removed, for with the aid of a plain delatone paste, she can, in the privacy of her own home, remove even a stubborn growth in a very few minutes. The paste is made by mixing some water with a little powdered delatone. This is applied to the hairs and after 2 or 3 minutes removed and the skin washed, when it will be left clear and hairless. Be sure you buy real delatone.

MRS. R. L. MOORE WOULD SIT AND CRY, SHE STATES

Was on Verge of Nervous Prostration—Gains Twenty Pounds—Restored by Tanlac.

"Before taking Tanlac," said Mrs. R. L. Moore of 1615 Elmwood street, Kansas City, Missouri, in a statement recently. "I was so nervous, miserable and despondent that I would just sit and cry. My appetite left me nearly two years ago," she explained, "and my stomach got in such a bad fix that I could not eat anything but what would ferment, causing gas and intense pain. I was constipated all the time and my head ached so bad that I had to use ice on it to relieve the pain. My condition was so bad for months before I began using Tanlac that I was unable to be up, much less do my housework, and I believe I was right on the verge of nervous prostration. I could hardly sleep and no one will ever know how miserable I did feel, because I just can't fully describe it."

"A friend of mine got after me to try Tanlac, but I refused at first, because I had tried everything else and had lost nearly all hope of ever getting well. But she insisted until I made up my mind to try it and before finishing the first bottle I felt better. The work in my seven-room house is easy for me now, for I am feeling just fine. Now this is just what four bottles of Tanlac has done for me and I certainly do think it is the grandest medicine in the world."

Tanlac is sold in Omaha at all Sherman & McConnell Drug Company's stores, Harvard Pharmacy and West End Pharmacy. Also Forest and Meany Drug Company in South Omaha and the leading druggist in each city and town throughout the state of Nebraska.
