

SALVATION ARMY WORKER BOOSTS FUND IN THEATER

Several Hundred Dollars Taken at Orpheum Following Talk by Envoy Betsy Blodgett.

Envoy Betsy Blodgett of the Salvation Army spoke last night at the Orpheum theater in behalf of the present drive for the home service fund and a collection of several hundred dollars was taken. Envoy Blodgett is a niece of the wife of E. M. Reynolds, Omaha merchant. When General Pershing inspected the 85th division in France and congratulated the Salvation Army messes on their work, Envoy Blodgett made the reply to the general. Only $43,628 of Omaha's quota of $203,000 in the present drive has been raised, according to the report made by committee heads yesterday noon at the Paxton hotel.

Frank Howell and Aman Raymond spoke, declaring that Omaha is not properly awakened to the needs of this fund. Mr. Raymond declared that the Salvation Army and the Red Cross are the two welfare organizations which "came out of the war without having their reputations besmirched."

Louise Dinning, who did war work in France, was present at the noon meeting and was given a rising vote of honor. A young American who served five years in the Canadian army and won three medals was also present and was given the same honor.

Report by Committees.
The committees which have not yet made reports were criticized. The automobile dealers' committee has reported nothing. Thirteen out of 20 committees reported as follows:

After nearly 15 years of work the Italian government has finished the 152 mile long main line of an aqueduct to supply water to Naples and will build about 500 miles of branches at the source of supply.

AT THE THEATERS

RICHARD Carle and his company of fun makers, dancers and singers, in the merry musical comedy, "Sunshine," will be the attraction at the Boyd's theater for two nights beginning tonight. The story of "Sunshine" has to do with the adventures of an American motion picture scenario writer, his wife a former winter garden beauty, and an American life insurance agent who meet in Spain and who become entangled with smugglers, matadors, dancers and charming señoritas. In the support of Mr. Carle are such players of note as Marjory Owen, Betty Booth, Leona Stater, David Quixano, Phil McDermott, John J. Ward, Milton Dawson, Harry Kenneth and the ever famous Murdoch Brothers, a trio of wonderful dancers. Some of the big song hits are "Love is Like This Little Wheel of Mine," "Something Nice in Lingerie," "Home Again, Home Again," "I Like to Look Around a Little," "Treat 'Em Rough," and "The Land of Make Believe." The chorus is a decided feature and has been called the famous prima donna beauty chorus, for the girls and boys are real singers and dancers.

Presented in two elaborate scenes, with numerous costume changes, "The Reckless Eye" is by far the most amusing tabloid musical comedy that has ever been offered at the Orpheum. Its presentation requires 20 people. One of the three principals, Cecil Summers, portrayal of the engineer is a burlesque on people who are always looking for the worst to happen. The vocal ability of Esther Jarrett, the prima donna, is a delight to theater patrons. A featured act of the current bill is presented by Gus Edwards' famous juvenile entertainer, "George" Price, whose impersonations of famous actors are particularly effective.

Time flies—here it is Friday, the day of the two final performances of the tuneful "Victory Belles" at the popular Gayety theater, which attraction, because of its bigness, humor and cleanliness has gone far toward more firmly cementing the admiration Omaha has for present-day musical burlesque. Tomorrow's matinee, "The Roseland Girls" over which Booking Manager Johnson is congratulating himself for having secured for Ak-Sar-Ben parade week, opens its engagement, which is expected to break the house record for a week's attendance. Ladies' matinee today and tomorrow at 2:15.

Mirth and comedy are combined with music and dancing in "Quaker-town to Broadway," the musical comedy which headlines the show at the Empress this last half. This is one of the very best of the big girl acts of the season on the circuit. The part of the Quaker miss is taken by Leonette Ball, who has piquant beauty, which appeals irresistibly, a beautiful soprano voice, an air of distinction which goes well with her part.

Fiske O'Hara, popular Irish actor-singer, will be seen at the Brandeis for eight days beginning next Sunday, in his new romantic comedy "Down Limerick Way" by Anna Nichols. The new vehicle chosen by Augustus Pitou for Mr. O'Hara this season has all the qualities of laughter and sentiment, mirth with a touch of tears, that has endeared him to his friends. New songs this Irish favorite will sing cast a charm that is all his very own.

Finds Husband With Girl, but Refuses to Prosecute Him

Shortly after Mrs. Nellie Swan of Sioux City, Ia., arrived in Omaha Wednesday night in quest of her runaway husband, she found him in a room in the Belmont hotel, 1518 Dodge street, with Miss Evelyn Reed of Sergeant Bluffs, Ia., she told police. She summoned officers after convincing herself of the identity of her husband by looking over the transom of his door, she said.

Her husband and the girl were arrested and charged with disorderly conduct. Mrs. Swan refused to appear against either in police court, and after a reconciliation she took her husband by the arm and led him from the police station.

Miss Reed was allowed her freedom by the police upon request of Mrs. Swan. The Swans run a rooming house in Sioux City.

Municipal Stores Close as The Remaining Goods Are Sold

Mayor Smith's municipal store was opened in the Auditorium main floor yesterday long enough to close out the remnant of goods left over from the sale Tuesday and Wednesday nights. This concludes the municipal stores, according to the mayor.

Child Drowned

The body of Robert Peterson, 3-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Peterson, 3474 Grand avenue, who disappeared at 9 yesterday morning was found in a cistern in the rear of the home yesterday afternoon. Neighbors, who aided in the search for the child, found the body in several feet of water in the cistern.

-and no one could tell the difference

Last night's audience mystified Tries vainly to detect difference between voices of famous artists and RE-CREATIONS by Edison's new phonograph

Those present at Boyd Theater last night saw Marie Rappold walk onto the stage. They saw her take her position next to a beautiful cabinet. They saw her lips give voice to the opening lines of Gounod's Ave Maria. Then suddenly her lips were still—but the song kept flowing on.

How came this? They were hearing Mme. Rappold's voice, yet Mme. Rappold was not singing. The entire audience gasped as it slowly realized that it had been unable to distinguish between Mme. Rappold's voice and the RE-CREATION of that voice by the New Edison.

This was the daring test undertaken last night at the Boyd Theater by Thomas A. Edison. He sought to prove that no difference exists between the voice of the living artist and its RE-CREATION by the New Edison. The musically cultured of Omaha were invited to pass judgment. No test could have been more exacting.

Marie Rappold made comparison after comparison. Mario Laurenti, the famous concert baritone also made tests. The mystified audience tried vainly to catch a difference between the original rendition and its RE-CREATION by the New Edison. No one could tell one from the other.

It was a triumph whole and complete for the New Edison.

The NEW EDISON

"The Phonograph With a Soul"

The instrument used in last night's Tone-Test is the regular model which sells for $285 (in Canada, $431). It is an exact duplicate of the Laboratory Model which Mr. Edison perfected after spending Three Million Dollars in experiments.

The New Edison alone of all phonographs is capable of sustaining this test. Until Mr. Edison knew it would do so, he regarded his work as unfinished.

Youthful in Body and Mind

Never mind your age—as measured by years. How do you feel? That's the thing that counts!

See this sprightly old gentleman coming toward you down the street. His birth record would show you that he is past seventy. But judging from the easy grace with which he swings along, his erect carriage, his ruddy complexion, the keen glance of his eye, his whole appearance the very picture of health, you would say that he is not a day past fifty. He is young in spite of his three score years and ten.

More frequently you see the opposite of his type. Men scarcely in their thirties—luggard, listless, weak, nervous—men who take no interest in life, just dragging out a weary existence, all in, tired and worn out. Though young in years, they are, nevertheless, old men. Their vital forces are on the wane. They've lost their "punch" and "pep." They feel old—and they look it!

Stay young by keeping your body fit. Keep stomach, bowels, liver, kidneys and bladder healthy and active. Build up your strength and health. Nothing will accomplish these results better than
