

HEART DISEASE CLAIMS VETERAN OMAHA SAILOR

John Morrissey, Who Enlisted in Navy With His 21-Year-Old Son, Drops Dead.

John Morrissey, 60 years old, 3825 Binney street, one of the oldest sailors recently discharged from the navy, died of heart disease at 7:45 yesterday morning at the Benson city hall, where he was employed. Firemen at the hall saw him fall as he entered the hallway of the building. Mr. Morrissey had been feeling ill for the last two months, his wife said.

It was an epoch in his life in August, 1918, when he enlisted in the navy with special permission from the Navy department on account of his age. His son, John, 21 years old, joined the navy on the same day, and both were sent to the Great Lakes.

The father, a mechanic, was placed in charge of a boiler-makers' school at the Great Lakes. He was discharged from the navy in March of this year. Since then he did janitor work at the Benson city hall.

The body will be buried in a navy uniform. Commander Post of the Omaha navy recruiting station, will send representatives to the home as a tribute from the Navy department.

Mr. Morrissey is survived by his wife and two sons and a daughter. Funeral services will be held at 9 Monday morning at St. Bernard's church, Benson. Burial will be in St. Mary's cemetery, South Side.

Kearney Commercial Club Has First Woman Secretary

Esther Stock Kroger Given Position By a Unanimous Vote By Directors—Is Recognized as Capable Business Woman, With Record in War Activities.

Kearney, Neb., Sept. 26.—(Special.)—In the very efficient person of Esther Stock Kroger, the Kearney Commercial club has its first woman secretary. With its first meeting of the year, held a few weeks ago, the club decided to hire a trained secretary who could devote his entire time to the Commercial club work, with a view to bringing civic enterprises in Kearney up to top-notch following the comparative inactivity necessitated by the war.

There were many applications, all men, but when the name of Esther Stock Kroger was suggested, the vote was unanimous in her favor. Recognized as a most capable business woman, she has come into added prominence during the last year for the skillful manner in which she has supervised the financial end of war activities, notably the three Liberty loans and the various Red Cross drives.

At the time of her election to the office of the Commercial club secretaryship she was office manager of the Patterson Motor Co., one of the highest salaried positions held by any woman in this city.

Army Bids Opened
Kansas City, Mo., and Chicago wholesale houses bid higher than houses of any other cities on 104-278 1/2 yards of brown denim cloth which was recently put on sale by the army zone surplus supply office here. Only one Omaha firm placed bids on the cloth. The highest bid was 23 cents a yard.

'BATTLE-SCARRED' YANK, WITHOUT SCARS, SENT TO PEN

Veteran, Who Claimed Un-numbered Medals, Guilty of Forgery.

Ferdinand Brandenburg, 23 years old, hero of Chateau Thierry and other battles, he says, pleaded guilty to forgery before District Judge Redick yesterday and was given an indeterminate sentence of one to 20 years in the penitentiary. He was taken there yesterday.

Brandenburg escaped from the Colorado state penitentiary, where he was serving a sentence for robbery, in 1917. He enlisted and eventually was sent to France.

"I served my country. I have been cited for bravery and have gained several medals including the Croix de Guerre with palm, distinguished service medal and several others and I just made one mistake when I was discharged," said Corporal Brandenburg to Judge

Redick. "I stopped several bullets and was gassed."

Brandenburg showed a copy of his discharge papers. The discharge stated that he had received no medals of any kind. An examination of his body showed no scars of bullet wounds. He stated the scars of the bullet wounds had been grafted over with skin so that they did not show.

He pleaded guilty to forging two checks for $20 each, signing them with the name, Carl W. Hitchwood. He passed them September 8.

Married Month Ago, Now Asks Divorce From His 'Fickle Wife'

David Johnson took a wife unto himself exactly one month ago yesterday. Yesterday he sued his wife, Ruth Johnson, for a divorce in the district court. Here is the short and simple annals of his "honeymoon" as he alleges it:

August 26, Married in Council Bluffs. September 4, Ruth told him she didn't care for him, but loved another man. She told him to leave her, he says.

September 5 to 17, he called several times and asked her to return to him.

September 19, he called on her and tried to get her to return to him. She struck him and told him to get out and stay out.

He then decided that probably she wasn't very "crazy" about him. So he's seeking a divorce.

Infants' long or short coats of silk, crepe de chine, eiderdown cashmere and serge. From 6 months to one and 2 years, at all prices.

Evening gowns and wraps

Gayety, charm and these dancing frocks are perfectly synonymous.

They are the embodiment of grace and frivolity subdued by an atmosphere of dignity, they have all the elaborate style touches and yet retain a rich simplicity.

Such originalities as a fluff of electric blue ostrich feathers on a sombre black gown—such inconsistencies as a large taffeta collar rolling to the waistline in front, but contradicted by a waist of sheerest net over a low corsage of silver tissue in back, explain the irresistibility of these frocks.

Gowns may be had for $25 to $250

The elaborate grace of "la Merveilleuse."

The new coat silhouette, which is a more graceful edition of the dolman, is well adapted to the luxury of evening wraps.

A full black chiffon velvet wrap held in at shoulders and hem by wide bands of brocaded cloth of gold is fittingly trimmed with mink; and vivid blue and crimson velvet is a suitable complement to huge collars and cuffs of dark fur.
