

WOMAN'S SECTION OF THE BEE

O, for boyhood's time of June,
Covered in one brief moon.
When all things I heard or saw,
Me, their master, waited for.
—Whittier.

The day is done, and the darkness
Falls from the wings of Night,
As a feather is wafted downward
From an eagle in his flight.
—Longfellow.

Tuesday Musical Club Announces Year Program

The program of the Tuesday Musical club promises to be very interesting, comprising five concerts, beginning in November and ending in April.

The opening recital will take place on the evening of November 17, when Sophie Braslau, contralto, and Albert Spaulding, American violinist, will appear in a joint recital at the Brandeis theater.

The Zoellner string quartet and Frances Ingram, contralto of the Metropolitan Opera company, will be presented on the evening of January 13.

In response to repeated requests Josef Hofmann, the renowned pianist, will be the attraction for February 23.

Mabel Garrison, coloratura soprano with the Metropolitan Opera company of New York and Emilio de Gorgozza, baritone, will be heard in a joint recital on March 18.

Negotiations are pending with the "Adolphe Bolin Ballet Intime," and the "Little Symphony" for the closing program which will be given in April.

More details will be given of these concerts as time progresses. Unusual interest is shown in the Tuesday club, resulting in the addition of many new members.

Membership in this organization is open to both men and women. Mrs. A. V. Kinsler, 3806 Farnam street is membership secretary.

luncheon. The Women's auxiliary of the B'nai Broth gave a dinner party at the Athletic club. Miss Diana Gross entertained at a miscellaneous shower at her home. An apron shower for Miss Bessel was given by Miss Neddie Abrams at the Blackstone hotel, and Miss Bessel's sister, Stella, entertained for her at the Blue room.

Carter Lake Club.
Charles Duddy entertained 12 guests at dinner at the Carter Lake club, Saturday evening, the closing night of the club. Foursomes were entertained by Gus Golton, C. J. Kuhn, J. H. Smith, Dr. T. F. Kani and R. Murphy.

Camp Fire Girls

Friday, September 19, the Toheha group met with their guardian, Bertha Vaughan, for a business meeting. Virginia Frantz was elected secretary, and Elizabeth Pugsley, treasurer, for the next year.

Emma Hoagland left Thursday, September 18, to enter Bradford academy in Bradford, Mass.

The Toheha group had their pictures taken Wednesday in ceremonial dresses. They have begun the making of reed and rattan baskets.

The girls of Miss Mabel Harris' group met Saturday, September 20, at the home of Alice Wixon and planned a ceremonial. Three girls have entered high school this year: Claire Abbott, Geneva Noble and Margaret Fisher.

On Saturday the Toheha group hiked to the camping grounds to cook their dinner. They made corn chowder and club house sandwiches.

The Cheskamay group, of which Miss Anne Crixon is guardian, held a business meeting last week at the home of Juliet Wesin. They decided to give $5 to Salvation Army drive.

Any group who has not already contributed to the French War Orphan fund may do so at any time by sending money to campfire headquarters.

During the week a letter was received at headquarters from a little 15-year-old girl in Elkhorn, who is lonesome and who wants some girl to write to her. She is up here from the south, and naturally, being alone, is lonesome and homesick. She would like to have some one in Omaha or vicinity write to her. In so doing, some campfire girl may do an act of kindness. Her name is Fern Brown, Box 96, Elkhorn, Neb.

The Alaki group, Mrs. R. B. Macdoughal, guardian, met Friday with Bernice Anderson. They are planning several hikes for fall.

The Wisika Campfire Girls, Helen Gross' group, indulged in a regular hike on Saturday, September 13, hiking along the river road to Child's Point. On the way, among other interesting encounters, they visited a Gypsy camp. Arriving at Child's Point at nearly noon they hiked on to Johnson's farm, a point one and one half miles south of Bellevue, where they spent the night enjoying a real "homegrown watermelon party." They started for home about noon on Sunday.

Easily Erases Wrinkles

Thousands have reported great success with the famous axolite wrinkle-removing formula. One ounce of pure powdered axolite is dissolved in a half-pint of which hazel and the solution used as a face wash. The effect is almost magical. The deepest wrinkles and crow's feet, as well as the finest lines—whether due to age, illness, weather or worry—are immediately affected. No one need hesitate to try this simple lotion, as it will not harm any skin. Any druggist of course can supply the ingredients.

When you have that tired, careworn look and you want to look up for the afternoon or evening, bathing the face in the axolite lotion will produce a wonderful transformation. It will find this more refreshing than an hour's rest.
