

Ringer Fears Riot May Break Out If Big Parade Is Held

The Ak-Sar-Ben electrical parade may be abandoned unless the threatening riot situation calms down within 24 hours.

Police Commissioner Ringer, yesterday at the meeting in the council chamber, asked that the big annual event of Ak-Sar-Ben for which preparations have been under way for months, be called off.

"With a crowd gathered to see the parade, another riot may break out," he said.

The suggestion was opposed by Everett Buckingham, Ward Burgess and other Ak-Sar-Ben governors who were present.

"We should not take action on the parade until we see whether it is imperative," said Mr. Buckingham. Action was postponed.

The electrical parade is scheduled for Wednesday evening. An automobile flower parade is scheduled for Thursday afternoon.

London — The imported cow Routh Jantye realized $26,250 at a sale of Friesian cattle.

Conductor's Nerve Saves Negro From Fury of the Mob

The nerve of a street car conductor saved a lone negro from being mobbed at the corner of Sixteenth and Farnam streets just about dark.

The negro had jumped on the car at Seventeenth. The conductor swung the door shut and the car shot down the Farnam hill. A mob of boys and young men tried to get on, the conductor boldly ignoring their demands of "open the door."

Just as the car passed Sixteenth the trolley was pulled down. The car sped down the hill at top speed, too fast for the rioters to follow.

At Thirteenth the conductor swung open the door and the negro, safe, jumped off and darted up Thirteenth street.

Town Criers to Go.

Petersborough — The town crier having resigned, the corporation has decided to allow the office, which has been in existence from time immemorial, to lapse as being an unnecessary expense in the present day. Other English cities may follow suit.

Organized Labor Losing Confidence of Public, Secretary Redfield Says

Washington, Sept. 29.—Because of "radical action and leadership" organized labor is losing public confidence, Secretary Redfield said.

"The radical action shown in the Boston police strike and the radical leadership appearing in the steel strike," said Mr. Redfield, "seem to me to threaten the loss of public confidence in the constructive and conservative nature of organized labor and to cause the labor movement a serious injury.

"As a friend of organized labor, I deeply regret what I fear will be injury to its progress through radicalism."

Rabbi Cohn Makes Statement On What He Thinks of Riots

Rabbi Frederick Cohn yesterday made the following statement:

"Omaha was raped Sunday night. The same crime was excoriated in the negro, we ourselves committed. Omaha's fair name was lynched. We strung it up in the sight of all men, riddled it with bullets, foully murdered it. Omaha must atone for this cowardly, brutal act. The leaders of the mob must be punished. We must put down the mob spirit in Omaha. Rising today for one thing, it may rise for a far worse one tomorrow. A black crime has been committed against the name and progress of Omaha. We are deeply disgraced. We should go around in sack-cloth and ashes. Justice has been outraged, symbolized by the burned and mutilated court house. Justice has been mutilated."

Poor Man's Hotel Closes.

Dublin — Iveagh House, which accommodated 500 men at 16 cents a night each, is closed on account of labor troubles.
