Not Martial Law.

While Omaha is in charge of the military, martial law does not exits full meaning. General Wood explained yesterday that the functions of the civil courts would not be disturbed; that the military authority will be extended only to protect life and property. County Attorney A. V. Shotwell conferred with the general yesterday afternoon on the matter of co-ordinating the office of the county prosecutor with the federal government.

All members of the local police department are subject to the directions of General Wood. Police Comthe military commander. Acting Mayor Ure also is co-operating.

Legion Members Serve.

Allan Tukey, an overseas service ian, is in charge of members of the American legion who have volunteered for special duty. Mr. Tukey expects to have an organization of 450 men. They are sworn in by the city as special police and are under orders of the military authorities. Their arms will be kept in the city hall when they are not on duty. General Wood addressed these men in the city council chamber at 5:15 p. m. yesterday.
"If you are ordered to make an arrest, you will be expected to do so with as little violence as possible, but with all the violence neces-sary," he said. "If you go after a

"Our men here have orders to carry out orders," announced the general, with his characteristic manner of expression.

Then he showed a telegram received from General March, chiefof-staff, Washington, D. C.: "You are authorized to take what-ver measures may be needed to andle the emergency, the governor the state having requested the United States government to fur-nish assistance."

Advice to Legion.

"Now is the time for the American Legion, white and black, to show that they stand for law and order," said General Wood. Dr. Amos B. Madison, commander of the local Theodore Roosevelt post of the American Legion of Colored Men, accompanied by H. J. Pinkett, also colored, called on the general with reference to the forma-tion of a platoon of negro members of the American Legion. This was
