

SALLEE OR ELLER WILL OPPOSE SOX IN TODAY'S GAME

Gleason Will Put Dependence In "Lefty" Williams, One of Best Left-Handers In Business.

Cincinnati, Oct. 1.—Claude "Lefty" Williams, rated as one of the best left-handers in the American league this season, probably will be Manager Gleason's pitching selection to stop the batting drive of the Reds in the second game of the world's series tomorrow.

While Pat Moran, leader of the Reds, did not care to make any official announcement concerning his mound choice, it was generally accepted that either "Slim" Sallee or "Hod" Eller would oppose the White Sox tomorrow.

"We got away to a flying start," said Manager Moran tonight, "batting Cicotte, Gleason's best bet, and it makes no difference to me what pitcher Gleason starts tomorrow. They said before the series that the Reds couldn't hit. Fourteen hits tells the story. The same batting drive will carry them through to victory."

"The Reds entered the series a 'cocky' lot of players, and this victory has given them a lot more confidence. Ruether deserved a shutout and the Chicago players will find it just as hard to hit our other pitchers. Ruether deserves great credit for the victory. He was cool at all times. His batting was a surprise to me."

Even Up Thursday, Says Gleason. "We will even up the series tomorrow," said Manager Gleason of the White Sox. "When Cicotte hit Rath in the first inning he was un-nerved and was not himself thereafter. I could have taken him out then, but I trusted that luck would smile on Eddie to regain his control. I intend to start Williams tomorrow and have every confidence that there will be a different story to tell."

Ruether Batting Hero of First World's Game Cincinnati, O., Oct. 1.—Walter Ruether, who pitched the Reds to victory over Chicago today, is the batting leader for the first game of the world's series, with a percentage of 1.000. He bagged three hits out of three times at bat and was walked once. The average follows:

Gossip of First Game

Cincinnati, O., Oct. 1.—John Philip Sousa, the bandmaster, responded to an ovation from the crowd and directed the band in playing one of his favorite marches before the game was called.

Five former Cincinnati managers—Joe Tinker, Clark Griffith, Hank O'Day, Buck Herzog and Christy Mathewson—saw the Reds' victory.

Jake Daubert, the veteran baseman, made the first hit for the Reds—a single to center in the first inning.

Ruether, Neale and Daubert were the batting stars of the day, each bagging three safe blows, Ruether making two triples.

Frederick K. Ruether, a San Francisco merchant, was the proudest man in the grand stand. He had traveled 2,000 miles to see his son in action in the series.

Manager "Pat" Moran of the Reds yelled instructions to his basemen from the first base line, while Manager "Kid" Gleason of the White Sox coached from third base.

Jake Daubert was knocked completely out in the eighth inning when Pitcher Loudermilk "beamed" him with a high, fast ball. Daubert, however, gamely went to first and was cheered.

Ruether retired the Sox on four pitched balls in the seventh.

The day was a scorcher, more like August than October. The grandstands and bleachers were a sea of coatless fans, who mopped their heads and fanned themselves for a breath of air. The government thermometer registered 88, the second hottest October 1st in the history of the Cincinnati weather bureau.

Eddie Roush, National league batting champion, was the fielding star of the day. He electrified the crowd with thrilling one-handed catches. All of them were difficult catches. He had eight putouts, one less than Daubert at first base.

The first ball pitched by Cicotte dug into Rath's ribs. The Chicago pitcher followed Rath to first base, inquiring whether the injury was painful. He patted Rath on the back when the Reds' second baseman said he wasn't hurt.

The first two balls pitched by Ruether were high and wide. Then he put over a strike. John Collins, the batter, responded with a hit—Chicago's first—a single through center.

Catcher Wingo's throw was perfect when he caught Collins and Gandil attempting to steal in the first and second innings, respectively.

Rain Prevents Iowa Foot Ball Practice; Captain Back in Game

Iowa City, Ia., Oct. 1.—(Special.)—Heavy rains held up Iowa's foot ball practice Tuesday. With the Nebraska game five days distant, the squad and the coaches chafed under the restraint, but there was nothing to do except make the best of it.

Captain Lohman was out in a suit for the first time in four days. His throat is in bad shape and he appeared with a mask over his mouth to keep out the damp air and cold germs.

More scrimmage is needed to bring the variety into good condition and the Hawkeyes are praying for the weather man to take a change of heart.

A canvas fence will surround the soldiers' quarters and spectators will be allowed on the Auditorium stage. The stage has almost as much floor space as any theater in Omaha, so that quite a number of local fans may be accommodated. The board will be placed at one end of the stage and seats will be arranged at the other.

COMPARISON OF PITCHING GIVES RUETHER EDGE

Made Fewer Throws in First World's Series Game Than All Three Sox Hurlers.

Cincinnati, O., Oct. 1.—Tabulation of the pitchings of today's game shows that Ruether, winning Cincinnati pitcher, pitched 21 strikes and 29 balls, while the three White Sox pitchers—Cicotte, Wilkison and Loudermilk—sent over 21 strikes and 26 balls.

The record shows that Chicago batters found Ruether's pitching 38 times, mostly for high flies and fouts. The hard-hitting Reds connected with 42 balls pitched by the three White Sox hurlers, 14 of them for safe hits. Twenty-one flies and 17 grounders were hit off Ruether, while 16 flies and 26 grounders were knocked from balls pitched by Cicotte, Wilkison and Loudermilk.

A grand total of 179 balls were pitched during today's game, 88 by Ruether in nine innings and 91 by Chicago pitchers in eight innings.

The record for fewest balls pitched in any one inning went to Ruether, who, in the seventh inning, tossed only four times. One of these was a ball, two were high flies out and one was a grounder on which the batter was thrown out.

Loudermilk pitched the highest number of balls in any one inning when he went into the box in the eighth. He gave 10 balls and four strikes, and one fly and five grounders were knocked—a total of 20 pitched balls.

CORNHUSKERS TO START FOR IOWA CITY TONIGHT

University of Nebraska Grid Team Starts for Opening Game of Season on Rock Island.

Lincoln, Neb., Oct. 1.—(Special.)—The Nebraska Cornhuskers leave this evening at 10 o'clock, over the Rock Island, for Iowa City, where they will meet the University of Iowa foot ball team in the 20th game in 30 years Saturday afternoon. The trip will be made by way of Omaha and Des Moines.

In lieu of the wide diversity of his material, Head Coach Schulte has requested that the athletic department permit 27 men, rather than the usual 22 men, to be taken on the trip. The Nebraskans are unusually flexible in squad formation, and the absence of one of 25 men may bring a difficulty.

Hawkeyes Have Strong Team. Reports from Iowa City are to the effect that the Hawkeyes have the best team in history. It is also reported that Iowa sportsmen are betting two and three to one odds that their aggregation will win in Saturday's conflict.

The Husker squad is flexible. Coach Schulte has brought a system to Nebraska field that demands that more than 11 men play the game of foot ball—that there be from two to three men available for every position, and that one man be capable, if he be a star, to jump into most any position at most any time.

CATARRH IS NOT INCURABLE

delicate membranes of the nose and air passages, which choke up and make breathing very difficult. To get rid of these distressing effects you must remove their cause.

The blood is laden with the Catarrh germs, which direct their attack against the tender and delicate membranes of the nose and throat. These germs cannot be reached by sprays of douches, which, of course, have no effect whatever upon the blood.

S. S. S. is a purely vegetable remedy, made from roots and herbs direct from the forests, which combat promptly any disease germs or impurities in the blood. This great remedy has been used for more than fifty years, with most satisfactory results. It has been successfully used by those afflicted with even the severest cases of Catarrh, because it drives out from the blood the Catarrh germs, and eliminates every foreign substance from the blood.
