EIGHT VICTOR RECORD ARTISTS TO APPEAR HERE

Will Be Heard In Recital of Popular and Classical Selections at Auditorium.

An opportunity to hear eight famous Victor artists in person will present itself at the Auditorium on next Tuesday evening, when an allstar aggregation of record makers will appear in a popular concert and entertainment under the local disection of the Omaha and Coun-cil Bluffs Victor agencies.

The eight artists, who make up the party are: Henry Burr, tenor; Albert Campbell, tenor; John H. Meyers and Frank Croxton, baritones; Monroe Silver, the "Cohen" story teller; Fred Van Eps, ban-joist; Frank Banta, pianist; and Billy Murray of World-Wide Victor fame. Three members of the party, Campbell, Burr and Meyers, com-pose the Sterling trio which will give several selections, as will also the Peerless quartet which is com-posed of Campbell, Burr, Meyers and Croxton.

Burr, who is one of New York's leading American tenors, has made but few concert tours, having gained his international reputation through the medium of his Victor records. He was formerly soloist at the Church of the Incarnation in

New York. There is probably no better known American singing comedian than Billy Murray. His running mate in the comedy parts of the program is Monroe Silver, the creator of the Jewish "Cohen" stories. Silver has a wide reputation as a fun maker, and will entertain with new stories and parodies. Albert Campbell, tenor, and John Meyers and Frank Croxton, the baritones of the company, will each have solo parts, and also be heard with the trio and quartet. American critics rate Croxton as one of the best of American concert and oratorio haritones. Fred Van Eps and Frank Banta will look after the instrumental parts of the program. Van Eps is undoubtedly the premier banjoist of his generation. Banta will be at the piano as soloist and accompanist. The program to be announced soon will embrace both popular and semi-classical selections.

Pioneer Abstractor For Union Pacific Dies at Age of 85

Joel Hoxie Wright, 85 years old, for many years prominently identi-fied with the Union Pacific railroad in Omaha as abstractor, died at the home of a daughter, Mrs. Harry E. Duval, in Chicago, according to word received in Omaha yesterday. The body will be brought to Omaha and funeral services will be held from the Burket chapel at 2:30 Friday afternoon. Burial will be in Forest Lawn cemetery.

Mr. Wright was born in Utica, N. Y., in 1834. When he was 5 years of age he was taken by his parents to Chicago. He engaged in business with his father in that city when a young man, and in 1875 removed to Omaha, coming to this city as abstractor for the Union Pacific and remaining in that capacity until 1910, when he retired and returned to make his home with

He is survived by his wife, his daughter, Mrs. Duval, and two sons, Joel H. Wright, jr., and Charles Wright of Omaha.

The Rev. J. M. Wilson will be in charge of the funeral services. The pallbearers will be S. H. Wilson, W. W. Johnston, J. W. Holmquist, B. A. Wilson, R. E. A. Duval and W. J. Cook.
