Excoriating Mob Action

Dunn's Trade Review.

New York, Oct. 3.—Dunn's tomorrow will say:

With the labor situation still seriously disturbed in many parts of the country, business is increasingly inconvenienced, and its volume discloses progressive shrinkage in certain quarters.

Yet, progress is not wholly impeded and from trades and sections outside the immediate influence of industrial controversies come frequent reports of a demand for goods beyond the ability of seliers to satisfy. The shortage of supplies, aggravated by the restriction of outputs, is more often a factor in limiting transactions than any question of prices, and the sztensive buying of luxuries and the better classes of merchandise is a feature commented upon in many dispatches.

Weekly bank clearings, 18,157,452,221. Mrs. May Dressen, grandmother of Louis Young, 16-year-old boy who was killed while leading a mob on the county jail Sunday night, declared that the funeral sermon preached by Father James W. Stenson over her grandson's body was entirely inappropriate. Father Sten-son scored the action of the mob in his funeral sermon at the St. Philomena's church.
