The Reds! The Reds! By BESS FURMAN.

I saw the queerest man this week, I thought he was a bolshevik, so very, very wild his look, just like the picture in a book, of radicals, sans coat and collar, and furthermore I heard him holler, "The Reds! The Reds! Hip, hip, hooray! The Reds will surely win today!" And all about him clustered then a crowd of even wilder men, they tossed their hats with laugh and shout and danced and threw their arms about. Said I, "This thing must be adjourned and every man of them interned." And so I hurried quick, of course, to call upon the police force. But reaching them, on my behest, I found them wilder than the rest. And soon I learned that the wild man was nothing but a base ball fan.

Three Foot Ball Games Scheduled for Local Gridirons This Week

Three foot ball games are on the schedule for the followers of the gridiron pastime this week. Commerce High will meet Council Bluffs across the river Saturday morning, while the Creighton Blue and White squad will mix with South Dakota at Creighton field the same afternoon. Central will meet South High at Rourke park on the same date.

No doubt one of the biggest games of the season for Creighton university will be played Saturday afternoon as both the "Coyotes" and the Blue and White squad have been intense rivals for the past eight years.

It is reported that the "Coyotes" have the edge over the Creighton squad, but Coach Tommy Mills is confident that his warriors will do the same thing this year as they did last year when they defeated the "Coyotes" by a large score.
