

SCHOOLS TO AID CAMPAIGN FOR MONUMENT FUND

Students Will Write "Four-Minute Talks" on Roosevelt—Paper Will Be Published.

Omaha public schools will cooperate in raising funds for the Roosevelt national monument fund, it was decided at a meeting of the Board of Education last night.

A suggestion by Superintendent Beveridge that Omaha school children write four-minute talks on Roosevelt found much favor with the committee in charge of the fund at Washington that school children in every state will be asked to do the same.

Miss Ella Thorgate, a Park school teacher, was placed in charge of the Americanization work in night schools of the city, which open October 13.

Favor Junior Schools. Superintendent Beveridge made a detailed report of the work of the junior high schools in Davenport, Ia., declaring that they are a complete success there.

Will Urge Bonds. As a medium to push the proposed $5,000,000 bond issue, Mr. Beveridge declared the paper would be available.

Bluffs Heroine Returns from Service Overseas

Ambulance Driver During War and Twice Decorated Miss Ruth Harl Now Wants to Pilot Airplane—Served in Five Countries.

Ruth Harl, Council Bluffs girl who saw four years' service at the battle fronts of Europe, decorated for bravery and efficient work by the Serbian and Russian governments, has arrived at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Nettie Hunt, on Lafayette avenue.

Ruth Harl

Miss Harl drove an ambulance during the war, and saw active service at the front in five countries, France, Turkey, Russia, Greece, Serbia and the Balkan states. She bore all the expense of her work with the Red Cross.

Tells of Peril. In telling of her experiences under fire, she declares that her work in Odessa, just prior to its fall before the bolsheviks, was the most perilous of all her four years of the war.

Wants Airplane Now. "Aviation appeals to me now," says Miss Harl, as she smilingly remarks that she can no longer see the "simple life."

what her future plans might be. "I don't know what I shall do right away, except just visit friends."

The Serbian retreat through the mountains was the most gruesome of her war life, says Miss Harl. Many times wounded had to be left on the field of battle to die because of the terrible condition of the roads. Patients had to be strapped to the back of mules to be transported to medical aid, traffic by ambulances being utterly impossible.
